Op De Bres Voor Neerlands Onafhankelijkheid:

May 1940 ,2010-04-27 In May 1940 the Netherlands were overrun by German armed forces The five day campaign might seem to be a prime example of Blitzkrieg which led shortly afterwards to the rapid and unexpected overthrow of France This book based on the newest scholarly research argues that this is too simple a view Even though the German assault on the Netherlands made use of tanks aircraft and airborne troops it was still a classic campaign against a weak opponent in a theater on the margins of Fall Gelb In many instances artillery and infantry were the decisive factors and it is debatable whether the bombing of Rotterdam can be seen as a precursor to the aerial terror campaigns against civilian populations that marked the later stages the Second World War Contributors are H Amersfoort H W van den Doel P H Kamphuis P M J de Koster C M Schulten and J W M Schulten Oranje op de bres Netherlands. gereconstrueerd tegen de achtergrond van het proces van dekolonisatie waarin Suriname was verwickeld. De drie factoren die dit proces bepaalden: Nederland, Suriname en de internationale gemeenschap worden apart en in hun onderlinge samenhang beschreven. Dekolonisatie wordt beschouwd als een proces met staatkundig, politieke, economische en culturele aspecten. Bijzondere aandacht is er voor de rol van het Surinaams nationalisme.
