Payne And Nassar Chapter 5:

Politics and Culture in the Developing World Richard J. Payne, Jamal R. Nassar, 2015-10-15 From decolonization and democratization to religion and gender Politics and Culture in the Developing World is a comprehensive survey of the global context of development With in depth and current examples from Asia Africa Latin America and the Middle East this text examines the central political themes in the developing world Throughout Politics and Culture in the Developing World demonstrates how globalization both accelerates change and increases interdependence between developing and developed countries The Victims' Rights Movement Michael Vitiello, 2023-07-18 What s not to like about the Victims Rights

Movement What about the fact that it has led to excessive punishment and to increased racial disparity in sentencing What about its false promises to crime victims that they will experience closure by participating in the criminal justice process

African Renaissance in the Millennium Emmanuel Ike Udogu, 2007-01-01 The book brings into sharp focus some of the major political social and economic issues that might impede Africa s development project in the 21st century It debates and suggests ways that policy makers might tackle these issues in order to promote the vision of the continent s transformation in the millennium Dalit Theology, Boundary Crossings and Liberation in India Jobymon Skaria, 2022-11-03 Jobymon Skaria an Indian St Thomas Christian Scholar offers a critique of Indian Christian theology and suggests that constructive dialogues between Biblical and dissenting Dalit voices such as Chokhamela Karmamela Ravidas Kabir Nandanar and Narayana Guru could set right the imbalance within Dalit theology and could establish dialogical partnerships between Dalit Theologians non Dalit Christians and Syrian Christians Drawing on Biblical and socio historical resources this book examines a radical yet overlooked aspect of Dalit cultural and religious history which would empower the Dalits in their everyday existences Politics and Ethnicity J. Rudolph, 2006-08-05 This book offers a brief broad comparative study of ethnic politics that places ethnic conflict within the context of particular political systems To develop these themes they are explored by comparing and contrasting the experiences of France Czechoslovakia and its subsequent division and Nigeria

Transitional Justice and the Prosecution of Political Leaders in the Arab Region Noha Aboueldahab, 2017-10-05 The dramatic uprisings that ousted the long standing leaders of several countries in the Arab region set in motion an unprecedented period of social political and legal transformation The prosecution of political leaders took centre stage in the pursuit of transitional justice following the Arab Spring Through a comparative case study of Egypt Libya Tunisia and Yemen this book argues that transitional justice in the Arab region presents the strongest challenge yet to the transitional justice paradigm This paradigm is built on the underlying assumption that transitions constitute a shift from non liberal to liberal democratic regimes where often legal measures are taken to address atrocities committed during the prior regime The book is guided by two principal questions first what trigger and driving factors led to the decision of whether or not to prosecute former political leaders And second what shaping factors affected the content and extent of decisions regarding prosecution

In answering these questions the book enhances our understanding of how transitional justice is pursued by different actors in varied contexts In doing so it challenges the predominant understanding that transitional justice uniformly occurs in liberalising contexts and calls for a re thinking of transitional justice theory and practice Using original findings generated from almost 50 interviews across 4 countries this research builds on the growing critical literature that claims that transitional justice is an under theorised field and needs to be developed to take into account non liberal and complex transitions It will be stimulating and thought provoking reading for all those interested in transitional justice and the Arab Spring

Women's Empowerment for Sustainability in Africa Robert Dibie, 2019-01-17 This book uses an open explorative approach to deal with the different aspects of gender discrimination and gender empowerment policies as well as their impact on economic development and capacity building in several African countries It uses primary and secondary data to present the argument that without the full input of women sustainable development will not be achieved in many African countries This book is the first text written by knowledgeable gender issue experts that understand the culture of and lived and conducted research in Africa It provides many examples of the relationships between gender and economic development around the African continent highlighting different processes and practices As such the contributors here illustrate the impact of weak gender policies and the ability to adequately develop female capacity building that could lead to wide spread sustainable economic growth in Africa They also explore a wide range of new dimensions and variables that are commonly ignored by other text books on gender equality The book will help graduate undergraduate students and other readers to understand women s policies in the past present and future by analysing and illustrating cultural political and socio historical contexts which have shaped women s role in the economic and sustainable development of Africa

Tax Treaty Dispute Resolution Rachna Matabudul, 2023-11-07 Stakeholders in the international taxation community agree that existing dispute resolution processes are in serious need of improvement and a global consensus must be achieved This book offers a potential restructuring of the tax treaty dispute resolution system based on a comparative analysis of the dispute resolution mechanisms under tax treaties as prescribed in the OECD and UN models on the one hand and the UN Law of the Sea Convention LOSC on the other This comparative study is the first of its kind and is premised on certain key geopolitical similarities that underpin the international tax regime ITR and the law of the sea regime while taking into consideration the differences in the institutional context of both regimes The author proposes a new tax treaty dispute resolution system based on the LOSC system for resolving multilateral tax disputes focusing on the following mapping of the institutional arrangements that make up the dispute resolution mechanisms to understand how each system works comparative analysis of the patterns of interaction and outcomes generated across the two dispute resolution systems to identify relevant aspects of the LOSC system that may be adapted in the ITR to improve tax treaty dispute resolution and analysis of the inclusivity levels across the decision making structures under each system to identify specific consensus building techniques that may facilitate the implementation of the new proposed tax treaty dispute resolution system and also enhance international cooperation across the ITR The proposed restructuring of the tax treaty dispute resolution system expands the existing mutual agreement procedure and forms a comprehensive legal framework that aims to achieve a more effective predictable and equitable resolution of multilateral tax disputes in the 21st century ITR by striking a balance between countries right to tax sovereignty and the rule of law Just as the design of the dispute resolution system under the LOSC paved the way for universal consensus of the Convention among almost 160 countries the author s new tax treaty dispute resolution system also offers a solid foundation for consensus building towards a universal treaty in the ITR Everyone concerned with international tax dispute resolution whether policymaker in house counsel national tax authority official judge tax lawyer or academic will find the truly valuable analysis here not elsewhere

Complexity Science and World Affairs Walter C. Clemens Jr.,2013-11-18 Why did some countries transition peacefully from communist rule to political freedom and market economies while others did not Why did the United States enjoy a brief moment as the sole remaining superpower and then lose power and influence across the board What are the prospects for China the main challenger to American hegemony In Complexity Science and World Affairs Walter C Clemens Jr demonstrates how the basic concepts of complexity science can broaden and deepen the insights gained by other approaches to the study of world affairs He argues that societal fitness the ability of a social system to cope with complex challenges and opportunities hinges heavily on the values and way of life of each society and serves to explain why some societies gain and others lose Applying theory to several rich case studies including political developments across post Soviet Eurasia and the United States Clemens shows that complexity science offers a powerful set of tools for advancing the study of international relations comparative government and more broadly the social sciences

systematic analytical framework which assists in understanding and applying the international law regime governing State ocean jurisdiction with a view to improved ocean governance for sustainable development this book distinguishes between and focuses on the form the ground the scope and the purpose of State ocean jurisdiction Defining jurisdiction as the international law authority of a State to be involved in a factual matter on the basis of a valid legal ground to perform authoritative acts impacting on that matter it disaggregates the concept the complexity of which often leads to States failing to make full use of their existing ocean jurisdictions In the process it identifies when and to what extent there are gaps and overlaps of jurisdictions Bringing clarity on an inevitably complex and often misunderstood framework that is aimed at striking a universally accepted balance of competing interests the book lays the foundation for future research contextualising the position of State ocean jurisdiction not only in terms of ocean governance but in the whole of public international law With an original systematic focus on State ocean jurisdiction the book will be of interest to academics students and practitioners working in the areas of international law of the sea ocean governance human rights and environmental law

Transitional Justice in Comparative Perspective Samar El-Masri,Tammy Lambert,Joanna R. Quinn,2020-01-17 What if we could change the conditions in post conflict post authoritarian countries to make transitional justice work better This book argues that if the context in countries in need of transitional justice can be ameliorated before processes of transitional justice are established they are more likely to meet with success As the contributors reveal this can be done in different ways At the attitudinal level changing the broader social ethos can improve the chances that societies will be more receptive to transitional justice At the institutional level the capacity of mechanisms and institutions can be strengthened to offer more support to transitional justice processes Drawing on lessons learned in Colombia Democratic Republic of the Congo The Gambia Lebanon Palestine and Uganda the book explores ways to better the conditions in post conflict post authoritarian countries to improve the success of transitional justice

Planning Sustainable Cities Un-Habitat,2016-05-13 Current urban planning systems are not equipped to deal with the major urban challenges of the twenty first century including effects of climate change resource depletion and economic instability plus continued rapid urbanization with its negative consequences such as poverty slums and urban informality These planning systems have also to a large extent failed to meaningfully involve and accommodate the ways of life of communities and other stakeholders in the planning of urban areas thus contributing to the problems of spatial marginalization and exclusion It is clear that urban planning needs to be reconsidered and revitalized for a sustainable urban future Planning Sustainable Cities reviews the major challenges currently facing cities and towns all over the world the emergence and spread of modern urban planning and the effectiveness of current approaches More importantly it identifies innovative urban planning approaches and practices that are more responsive to current and future challenges of urbanization The Global Report on Human Settlements is the most authoritative and up to date global assessment of human settlements conditions and trends It is an essential
