Fabulous Sinkhole is a collection of stories set primarily in Arroyo Grande Texas and each one is connected with the title story by a theme of accident versus coincidence All of them contain lively accessible language and demonstrate the author's very gifted sense for storytelling Booklist on The Fabulous Sinkhole and Other Stories starred review The Fabulous Sinkhole and Other Stories Jesús Salvador Treviño, 1995-04-01 The Fabulous Sinkhole and Other Stories is a first collection of short stories by noted film director and writer Jesús Salvador Treviño Treviño's decision to write a collection of short stories arose from his frustration over years Hollywood rejecting his film projects with Hispanic characters and themes Rather than give up he channeled his energy into these short stories Through his interconnected stories Treviño gives us an off beat magically real and at times raucous vision of life in the barrios of Arroyo Grande Texas Ever the observer of the tragicomic human scene Treviño recreates for the reader the world of adults as overheard and filtered through the understanding of the young Each adult action creates a wave of repercussions for the children be it love triangles petty jealousies or revenge The rich texture of the narrative and the rich diversity of Hispanic characters all come to a romping feverish end with a fantasy that features an army of movie stereotypes of Hispanics who have returned as zombies bent on avenging themselves on Hollywood directors and screenwriters

The Family Terrorist and Other Stories J. L. Torres, 2008-09-30 In the story A Natural Thing Eric and Monica's lovemaking is interrupted by an odd sound Eric has a sinking feeling that it has something to do with his grandfather He's mortified when he sees what has entered the room A full grown rooster its wattles cut the feathers trimmed except the wings its legs plucked to pimpled skin strutting and bobbing its head like it owned the place Instantly Eric realizes that Don Epifanio has converted the basement into a cock fighting ring When Don Epifanio offered to renovate the basement it seemed like a blessing something to keep him busy Why did he bring the old man to New York City from the island Eric wonders Now Don Epifanio complains about everything the cold weather the even colder disposition of gringos the difficulty of finding guayabas and other tropical delicacies What will the neighbors say when they hear and worse smell the roosters How can he bring business associates home What will Monica think about his family This is the Bronx not Puerto Rico In this stirring collection of eleven stories set in Latino communities in the northeast J L Torres crafts deft reflections of Puerto Ricans living on the mainland A son who follows his father's wish to be buried in his beloved isla but can't seem to meet his father's other wish to not be covered with the American flag a right he has as a veteran of World War II and Korea A Nuyorican visiting his aunt in Cayey is fascinated with a run down shack where a mysterious woman lives surrounded by conflicting stories about her life and loves In the Bronx Ralph and Lou are unnerved by a spooky sight eight red kerchiefs tied equidistantly apart on a cyclone fence Torres characters reveal the circumstances that shape their lives in these thought provoking stories that explore machismo family relationships love and even santería
