Naydan,2016-05-23 Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction considers the way in which contemporary American authors address the subject of belief in the post 9 11 Age of Terror Naydan suggests that after 9 11 fiction by Mohsin Hamid Laila Halaby Philip Roth Don DeLillo John Updike and Barbara Kingsolver dramatizes and works to resolve impasses that exist between believers of different kinds at the extremes These impasses emerge out of the religious paradox that shapes America as simultaneously theocratic and secular and they exist for instance between liberals and fundamentalists between liberals and certain evangelicals between fundamentalists and artists and between fundamentalists of different varieties Ultimately Naydan argues that these authors function as literary theologians of sorts and forge a relevant space beyond or between extremes They fashion faith or lack thereof as hybridized and hence as a negotiation among secularism atheism faith fundamentalism and fanaticism In so doing they invite their readers into contemplations of religious difference and new ways of memorializing 9 11 Subjective Well-Being and Security Dave Webb,Eduardo Wills-Herrera,2012-01-07 Security or the perceived lack thereof impacts on quality of life at many levels An important consideration is how security should be best understood Although definitions of how to understand human security have been proposed it is not clear how security should be measured Security can be analyzed from different perspectives i e personal security economic security health security political security cyber security etc In this volume all facets of research pertaining to security and subjective well being SWB are discussed including among others Objective and subjective measures of security Multiple security dimensions The relationship between security and SWB and possible mediators and moderators Cultural and religious influences on security and SWB Present and future security Perceptions of crime in cities and regions and development of relevant indicators Security in a globalized era and its relationship to SWB Security major events and SWB Book Lust to Go Nancy Pearl,2010-06-01 Adventure is just a book away as bestselling author Nancy Pearl returns with recommended reading for more than 120 destinations both worldly and imagined around the globe From Las Vegas to the Land of Oz Naples to Nigeria Philadelphia to Provence Nancy Pearl guides readers to the very best fiction and nonfiction to read about each destination Even within one country she traverses decades to suggest titles that effortlessly capture the different eras that make up a region s unique history This enthusiastic literary globetrotting guide includes stops in Korea Sweden Afghanistan Albania Parma Patagonia Texas and Timbuktu Book Lust To Go connects the best fiction and nonfiction to particular destinations whether your bags are packed or your armchair is calling From fiction to memoir poetry to history Nancy Pearl s Book Lust to Go takes the reader on a globetrotting adventure no passport required Risk and the English Novel Julia Hoydis,2019-09-23 Taking the cue from the currency of risk in popular and interdisciplinary academic discourse

this book explores the development of the English novel in relation to the emergence and institutionalization of risk from its origins in probability theory in the late seventeenth century to the global risk society in the twenty first century Focussing on 29 novels from Defoe to McEwan this book argues for the contemporaneity of the rise of risk and the novel and suggests that there is much to gain from reading the risk society from a diachronic literary cultural perspective Tracing changes and continuities the fictional case studies reveal the human preoccupation with safety and control of the future They show the struggle with uncertainties and the construction of individual or collective logics of risk which oscillate between rational calculation and emotion helplessness and denial and an enabling or destructive sense of adventure and danger Advancing the study of risk in fiction beyond the confinement to dystopian disaster narratives this book shows how topical notions such as chance and probability uncertainty and responsibility fears of decline and transgression all cluster around risk Deleuzian Fabulation and the Scars of History Ronald Bogue,2010-07-05 The concept of fabulation makes a late appearance in Deleuze s career and in only limited detail but by tracing its connections to other concepts and situating them within Deleuze s general aesthetics Ronald Bogue develops a theory of fabulation which he proposes as the guiding principle of a Deleuzian approach to literary narrative Fabulation he argues entails becoming other experimenting on the real legending and inventing a people to come as well as an understanding of time informed by Deleuze s Chronos Aion distinction and his theory of the three passive syntheses of time In close readings of contemporary novels by Zakes Mda Arundhati Roy Roberto Bolano Assia Djebar and Richard Flanagan he demonstrates the usefulness of fabulation as a critical tool while exploring the problematic relationship between history and story telling which all five novelists adopt as a central thematic concern This is an original and exciting project by a highly respected specialist in the field Islamophobia and the Novel Peter Morey,2018-08-14 In an era of rampant Islamophobia what do literary representations of Muslims and anti Muslim bigotry tell us about changing concepts of cultural difference In Islamophobia and the Novel Peter Morey analyzes how recent works of fiction have framed and responded to the rise of anti Muslim prejudice showing how their portrayals of Muslims both reflect and refute the ideological preoccupations of media and politicians in the post 9 11 West Islamophobia and the Novel discusses novels embodying a range of positions from the avowedly secular to the religious and from texts that appear to underwrite Western assumptions of cultural superiority to those that recognize and critique neoimperial impulses Morey offers nuanced readings of works by John Updike Ian McEwan Hanif Kureishi Monica Ali Mohsin Hamid John le Carr Khaled Hosseini Azar Nafisi and other writers emphasizing the demands of the literary marketplace for representations of Muslims He explores how depictions of Muslim experience have challenged liberal assumptions regarding the novel s potential for empathy and its ability to encompass a variety of voices Morey argues for a greater degree of critical self consciousness in our understanding of writing by and about Muslims in contrast to both exclusionary nationalism and the fetishization of difference Contemporary literature s capacity to unveil the conflicted nature of anti Muslim bigotry expands our range of resources to combat Islamophobia This in turn might contribute to Islamophobia's eventual dismantling Decolonial Imaginings Avtar Brah, 2022-06-28 A transdisciplinary study of the ways in which mobilities assume social forms and result in multiple belongings In Decolonial Imaginings Avtar Brah offers a transdisciplinary study of the ways in which mobilities assume social forms and result in multiple belongings Situated within the confluence of decolonial feminist theory border theory and diaspora studies the book explores borders and boundaries and how politics of connectivity are produced in and through struggles over difference Brah examines multiple formations of power embedded in the intersections between gender race class ethnicity and sexuality She analyzes this intersectionality in relation to diaspora theorizes the relationship between diaspora law and literature and between affect memory and cultural politics Discussing the crossings of impervious borders Brah foregrounds the economies of abandonment particularly the plight of people in boats in the Mediterranean a number of whom perished because of a catalogue of failures by NATO warships and European coast guards She revisits Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari's notion of nomad thought and Braidotti's feminist reworking of it and it seeks to assess this framework's value today She analyzes the politics of Black in Britain with a focus on feminism constituted by women of African Caribbean and South Asian background explores stereotypic representation of Muslim women in the context of Islamophobia and anti Muslim racism and considers the complexities of the MeToo movement and how whiteness is configured in these contestations

Transnational Politics in the Post-9/11 Novel Joseph

Conte, 2019-11-22 Transnational Politics in the Post 9 11 Novel suggests that literature after September 11 2001 reflects the shift from bilateral nation state politics to the multilateralism of transnational politics While much of the criticism regarding novels of 9 11 tends to approach these works through theories of personal and collective trauma this book argues for the evolution of a post 9 11 novel that pursues a transversal approach to global conflicts that are unlikely to be resolved without diverse peoples willing to set aside sectarian interests These novels embrace not only American writers such as Don DeLillo Dave Eggers Ken Kalfus Thomas Pynchon and Amy Waldman but also the countervailing perspectives of global novelists such as J M Coetzee Orhan Pamuk Mohsin Hamid and Laila Halaby These are not novels about terrorism nor do they seek comfort in the respectful cloak of national mourning Rather they are instances of the novel in terror which recognizes that everything having been changed after 9 11 only the formally inventive presentation will suffice to acknowledge the event s unrepresentability and its shock to the political order
