Language of War, Language of Peace Raja Shehadeh, 2015-02-12 Award winning author Raja Shehadeh explores the politics of language and the language of politics in the Israeli Palestine conflict reflecting on the walls that they create legal and cultural that confine today's Palestinians just like the physical borders checkpoints and the so called Separation Barrier The peace process has been ground to a halt by twists of language and linguistic chicanery that has degraded the word peace itself No one even knows what the word might mean now for the Middle East So to give one example of many Israel argued that the omission of the word the in one of the UN Security Council's resolutions meant that it was not mandated to withdraw from all of the territories occupied in 1967 The Language of War The Language of Peace is another important book from Raja Shehadeh on the world's greatest political fault line

Humanitarian Intervention and Legitimacy Wars Richard Falk, 2014-08-21 In the aftermath of the Cold War there has been a dramatic shift in thinking about the maintenance of peace and security on a global level This shift is away from a preoccupation with how to prevent major wars between sovereign states to a preoccupation about non state transnational warfare and violence and strife within states in a world order that continues to be juridically and politically delimited by spatial ideas of national sovereignty and national independence as signified by international boundaries In this book Richard Falk draws upon these changes to examine the ethics and politics of humanitarian intervention in the 21st Century As well as analysing the theoretical and conceptual basis of the responsibility to protect the book also contains a number of case studies looking at Iraq Afghanistan Kosovo and Syria The final section explores when humanitarian intervention can succeed and the changing nature of international political legitimacy in countries such as India Tibet South Africa and Palestine This book will be of interest to students of International Relations theory Peace Studies and Global Politics

Critical Heritage Studies and the Futures of Europe Rodney Harrison, Nélia Dias, Kristian Kristiansen, 2023-10-24 Cultural and natural heritage are central to Europe and the European project They were bound up in the emergence of nation states in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries where they were used to justify differences over which border conflicts were fought Later the idea of a common European heritage provided a rationale for the development of the European Union Now the emergence of new populist nationalisms shows how the imagined past continues to play a role in cultural and social governance while a series of interlinked social and ecological crises are changing the ways that heritage operates with new discourses and ontologies emerging to reconfigure heritage for the circumstances of the present and the uncertainties of the future Taking the current role of heritage in Europe as its starting point Critical Heritage Studies and the Futures of Europe presents a number of case studies that explore key themes in this transformation Contributors draw on a range of disciplinary perspectives to consider variously the role of heritage and museums in the migration and climate emergencies approaches to urban heritage conservation and practices of curating cities digital and digitised heritage the use of heritage as a therapeutic resource and critical approaches to heritage and its management Taken together the chapters explore the multiple ontologies through which cultural and natural heritage have and continue to intervene actively in redrawing the futures of Europe and the world Praise for Critical Heritage Studies and the Futures of Europe Filled with many fascinating and diverse chapters this book vividly demonstrates the dynamism and breadth of critical heritage study of in and entangled with Europe today Sharon Macdonald Alexander von Humboldt Professor of Social Anthropology and Director of the Centre for Anthropological Research on Museums and Heritage CARMAH in the Institute of European Ethnology at Humboldt University zu Berlin Far from being restrictive let alone chauvinistic the multiscalar European focus of this book confirms the breadth and relevance of current critical heritage studies With contributions addressing such topical issues as climate emergencies urban landscapes cultural industries new media and identity politics be they written by established scholars or by emerging researchers it is Europe with all its shared grounds and recurrent divergences that comes into sharper relief From this vantage point readers of this compelling book will be better positioned for reflecting on and eventually influencing and challenging our heritage futures Nathan Schlanger Professor of Archaeology cole nationale des chartes Paris This book addresses European heritage realities and futures through new voices paradigms and methods It is a collage of tensions practically a representation of Europe itself through which to comprehend contemporary intersections of time place things and meaning It contributes to new vistas in heritage studies the offer of design and imagination as methods reckonings with data and climate change as seemingly uncontrollable actors and the ongoing negotiation of criticality in the making of our responsibilities for the past in the present Christopher Whitehead Professor of Museology Newcastle University

Creative Radicalism in the Middle East Caroline Rooney, 2020-06-11 Addressing the question of how neoliberal ideology has served to conflate the radical left with extremism this book examines how the Arab left has asserted itself in the context of authoritarianism and Islamic extremism during and after the Arab uprisings It examines how the Arab cultural left has offered a critique of the signifying practices of political hegemonies in the region and argues that though creative expression as constituted in the very language of the Arab uprisings it has put forward its own alternatives Using a wide array of texts and sources both Arab and non Arab the opening chapters of the book identify how ethical and radical values pertaining to sociality are co-opted by political leaders in the Middle East and turned into jargon. Later chapters outline resistance to this co-option through a poetics of inter-subjectivity that takes structures of feeling into account ranging from disappointment, despair and distrust to dignity, solidarity and reconfigured senses of the sacred. In showing how psychological and affective states relate to signifying practices, the book offers an original conceptual framework for differentiating radicalization from the creative radicalism of the Arab avant-garde.

Political Islam, Justice and Governance Mbaye Lo, 2018-11-08. This book argues that political Islam represented by its moderate and militant forms has failed to govern effectively or successfully due to its inability to reconcile its discursive understanding of Islam centered on literal justice with the dominant neo-liberal value of freedom. Consequently, Islamists' polities have largely been abject, often tragic failures in providing a viable collective life and sound governance. This argument is developed theoretically and supported through a set of case studies represented by the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt under President Muhammad Morsi's tenure, Hassan Turabi's National Islamic Front in Sudan and The Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS). It is ideal for audiences interested in Regional Politics, Islamic Studies and Middle Eastern Studies.

Reconciling Justice Salim J. Munayer, 2024-07-05. Christians too often disregard the depth and thoughtfulness of Jewish, Muslim and Middle Eastern Christian concepts of justice. To fill this lack, this book explores the rich development of justice within each Abrahamic faith as it relates specifically to the Palestinian-Israeli context. From a uniquely Palestinian Christian perspective, this book offers a theological framework through the concept of reconciling justice to facilitate better understanding for multiethnic political and religious encounters as a prophetic imagination for peace and reconciliation in the region.

Affective Tourism Dorina Maria Buda, 2015-05-15. This book brings together, explores and expands socio-spatial affect, emotion and psychoanalytic drives in tourism for the first time. Affect is to be found in visceral intensities and resonances that circulate around and shape encounters between and amongst tourists, local tourism representatives and places. When affect manifests, it can take shapes in the form of emotions such as fun, joy, fear, anger and the like. When it remains a visceral force of latent bodily responses, affect overlaps with drives as expounded in psychoanalysis. The aim of the title, therefore, is to explore how and in what ways affects, emotions and drives are felt and performed in tourism encounters in places of socio-political turmoil such as Jordan, Palestine, Israel, with a detour to Iraq. Affective Tourism is highly innovative as it offers a new way of theorising tourism encounters, bringing together, critically examining and expanding three areas of scholarship: affective and emotional geographies, psychoanalytic geographies and dark tourism. It has relevance for tourism industries in places in the proximity of ongoing conflicts as it provides in-depth analyses of the interconnections between tourism, danger and conflict. Such understandings can lead to more socio-culturally and politically sustainable approaches to planning, development and management of tourism. This ground-breaking book will be of valuable reading for students and researchers from a number of fields such as tourism studies, geography, anthropology, sociology and Middle Eastern studies Bearing Witness Sherrill Grace, Patrick Imbert, Tiffany Johnstone, 2012-10-01 As the centenary of the Great War approaches citizens worldwide are reflecting on the history trauma and losses of a war torn twentieth century It is in remembering past wars that we are at once confronted with the profound horror and suffering of armed conflict and the increasing elusiveness of peace The contributors to Bearing Witness do not presume to resolve these troubling questions but provoke new kinds of reflection They explore literature the arts history language and popular culture to move beyond the language of rhetoric and commemoration provided by politicians and the military Adding nuance to discussions of war and peace this collection probes the understanding and insight created in the works of musicians dramatists poets painters photographers and novelists to provide a complex view of the ways in which war is waged witnessed and remembered A compelling and informative collection Bearing Witness sheds new light on the impact of war and the power of suffering heroism and memory to expose the human roots of violence and compassion Contributors include Heribert Adam Simon Fraser University Laura Brandon Carleton University Mireille Calle Gruber Universit La Sorbonne Nouvelle Janet Danielson Simon Fraser University Sandra Djwa emeritus Simon Fraser University Alan Filewod University of Guelph Sherrill Grace University of British Columbia Patrick Imbert University of Ottawa Tiffany Johnstone PhD Candidate University of British Columbia Martin L schnigg Graz University Lauren Lydic PhD University of Toronto Conny Steenman Marcusse Netherlands Jonathan Vance University of Western Ontario Aritha van Herk University of Calgary Peter C van Wyck Concordia University Christl Verduyn Mount Allison University and Anne Wheeler filmmaker Peaceful Persuasion Ellen W.
