On History and Memory in Arab Literature and Western Poetics Bootheina Majoul, Yosra Amraoui, 2020-10-06 Texts act like receptacles for an ever present remembered past or what the French philosopher Paul Ric ur calls the present representation of an absent thing They might embody an efficient remedy to forgetting but could also become a vivid testimony for exorcised traumas This volume focuses on Ric ur s phenomenology of memory epistemology of history and hermeneutics of forgetting A special emphasis is laid on the dissension between individual and collective institutional memory

History and Film Eleftheria Thanouli, 2018-10-18 History and Film A Tale of Two Disciplines addresses the representation of history in cinema a much argued debate on the need to understand cinematic history in its own terms and develop a certain vocabulary for discussing historical films their relation to public history and their impact on public historical consciousness Eleftheria

Thanouli does this by changing the agenda altogether combining a macro level perspective with a micro level one in order to argue that cinematic history is the dominant form of historiography in the 20th century as it succeeded in remediating and repurposing the key formal rhetorical and ideological practices of 19th century professional historiography With case studies ranging from The Thin Red Line and Life is Beautiful to The Fog of War and The Last Bolshevik Thanouli bridges the gap between history and film studies and lays the foundations for a new visual historiography Movies in American History, 2011 This provocative encyclopedia is a valuable resource for readers seeking an understanding of how movies have both reflected and helped engender America's political economic and social history Horror Films of 2000-2009 John Kenneth Muir, 2023-03-22 Horror films have always reflected their audiences fears and anxieties In the United States the 2000s were a decade full of change in response to the 9 11 terrorist attacks the contested presidential election of 2000 and the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan These social and political changes as well as the influences of Japanese horror and New French extremism had a profound effect on American horror filmmaking during the 2000s This filmography covers more than 300 horror films released in America from 2000 through 2009 including such popular forms as found footage torture porn and remakes Each entry covers a single film and includes credits a synopsis and a lengthy critical commentary The appendices include common horror conventions a performer hall of fame and memorable ad lines The American West on Film Johnny D. Boggs, 2019-11-15 More than a history of Western movies The American West on Film intertwines film history the history of the American West and American social history into one unique volume The American West on Film chronicles 12 Hollywood motion pictures that are set in the post Civil War American West including The Ox Bow Incident Red River High Noon The Searchers The Magnificent Seven Little Big Man and Tombstone Each film overview summarizes the movie's plot details how the film came to be made the critical and box office reactions upon its release and the history of the time period or actual event This is followed by a comparison and contrast of the filmmakers version of history with the facts as well as an analysis of the film's significance then and now Relying on contemporary accounts and historical analysis as well as perspectives from filmmakers historians and critics the author describes what it took to get each movie made and how close to the historical truth the movie actually got Readers will come away with a better understanding of how movies often reflect the time in which they were made and how Westerns can offer provocative social commentary hidden beneath old fashioned shoot em ups Choice, 2005 Reference Sources for Small and Medium-sized Libraries, Eighth Edition Jack O'Gorman, 2014-02-25 Focusing on new reference sources published since 2008 and reference titles that have retained their relevance this new edition brings O'Gorman's complete and authoritative guide to the best reference sources for small and medium sized academic and public libraries fully up to date About 40 percent of the content is new to this edition Containing sources selected and annotated by a team of public and academic librarians the works included have been chosen for value and expertise in specific subject areas Equally useful for both library patrons and staff this resource Covers more than a dozen key subject areas including General Reference Philosophy Religion and Ethics Psychology and Psychiatry Social Sciences and Sociology Business and Careers Political Science and Law Education Words and Languages Science and Technology History and Performing Arts Encompasses database products CD ROMs websites and other electronic resources in addition to print materials Includes thorough annotations for each source with information on author editor publisher cost format Dewey and LC classification numbers and more Library patrons will find this an invaluable resource for current everyday topics Librarians will appreciate it as both a reference and collection development tool knowing it s backed by ALA s long tradition of excellence in reference selection

Cinemas of the World James Chapman,2004-06-03 The cinema has been the pre eminent popular art form of the 20th century In Cinemas of the World James Chapman examines the relationship between film and society in the modern world film as entertainment medium film as a reflection of national cultures and preoccupations film as an instrument of propaganda He also explores two interrelated issues that have recurred throughout the history of cinema the economic and cultural hegemony of Hollywood on the one hand and on the other the attempts of film makers elsewhere to establish indigenous national cinemas drawing on their own cultures and societies Chapman examines the rise to dominance of Hollywood cinema in the silent and early sound periods He discusses the characteristic themes of American movies from the Depression to the end of the Cold War especially those found in the western and film noir genres that are often used as vehicles for exploring issues central to us society and politics He looks at national cinemas in various European countries in the period between the end of the First World War and the end of the Second which all exhibit the formal and aesthetic properties of modernism The emergence of the so called new cinemas of Europe and the wider world since 1960 are also explored Chapman is a tough thinking original writer an engaging excellent piece of work David Lancaster Film and History

The Cinema in Flux Lenny Lipton,2021-04-07 The first of its kind this book traces the evolution of motion picture technology in its entirety Beginning with Huygens magic lantern and ending in the current electronic era it explains cinema s scientific foundations and the development of parallel enabling technologies alongside the lives of the innovators Product development issues business and marketplace factors the interaction of aesthetic and technological demands and the patent system all play key roles in the tale The topics are covered sequentially with detailed discussion of the transition from the magic lantern to Edison s invention of the 35mm camera the development of the celluloid cinema and the transition from celluloid to digital Unique and essential reading from a lifetime innovator in the field of cinema technology this engaging and well illustrated book will appeal to anyone interested in the history and science of cinema from movie buffs to academics and members of the motion picture industry

Interrogating the Image Del Jacobs,2009-09-22 Interrogating the Image argues that movies examining the role film and television plays in the lives of their audience have created changes both in the movies themselves and in their viewers and considers fourteen films where the moving picture is central to the narratives Three films discussed The Purple Rose of Cairo Pleasantville and The Truman

Show offer frame breaking experiences for their characters that allow spectators to appreciate the ruptures between lived reality and media play delivering therapeutic payoffs that can be restorative reconstructive or rejective Other examples come from the worlds of cinema The Majestic Matinee Cinema Paradiso television Bamboozled Network Natural Born Killers Medium Cool and the sociopolitical realm where media dominates Being There Wag the Dog Bob Roberts Bulworth Meanwhile significant interpretive stances reflective reflexive critical and ironic are engendered and embraced by filmmakers and audiences who create and consume these works The result is a media saturated culture in transformation and best understood using cinema s interrogative resources

Wallace Reid E.J. Fleming,2013-11-08 For a decade Wallace Reid was the most recognized face in Hollywood the most universally beloved actor in silent film Today all that is widely remembered of Wally Reid is that he died in a padded sanitarium cell the victim of a fatal morphine addiction Of all the actors who have enjoyed great fame only to vanish from the public eye Reid perhaps fell the fastest and the hardest This first full biography recounts Reid s complicated childhood his disrupted family history and his rise to film stardom despite these restricting factors It documents his myriad talents and accomplishments most notably his gift for brilliant onscreen acting The text explores in depth how the modern studio however unconsciously turned the popular star a well adjusted man with a loving family into a drug dependent mental patient within three years His death rocked the foundations of Hollywood and the huge new industry that he helped build nearly died with Dashing Wally Reid Film Architecture and the Transnational Imagination Tim Bergfelder,Sue Harris,Sarah Street,2007 Summary Film Architecture and the Transnational Imagination presents for the first time a comparative study of European film set design in the late 1920s and 1930s based on a wealth of designers drawings film stills and archival documents the book offers a new insight into the development and significance of trans national artistic collaboration during this period European cinema from the late 1920s to the late 1930s is famous for its attention to detail in terms of set design and visual effect Focusing on developments in Britain France and Germany Film Architecture and the Transnational Imagination Set Design in 1930s European Cinema provides a comprehensive analysis of the practices styles and function of cinematic production design during this period and its influence on subsequent filmmaking patterns Publisher description The Literature/Film Reader James Michael Welsh,James M.
