Moving Matters Paths Of Serial Migration:

Moving Matters Susan Ossman, 2013-01-09 Moving Matters is a richly nuanced portrait of the serial migrant a person who has lived in several countries calling each one at some point home The stories told here are both extraordinary and increasingly common Serial migrants rarely travel freely they must negotiate a world of territorial borders and legal restrictions yet as they move from one country to another they can use border crossings as moments of self clarification They often become masters of settlement as they turn each country into a life chapter Susan Ossman follows this diverse and growing population not only to understand how paths of serial movement produce certain ways of life but also to illuminate an ongoing tension between global fluidity and the power of nation states Ultimately her lyrical reflection on migration and social diversity offers an illustration of how taking mobility as a starting point fundamentally alters our understanding of subjectivity politics and social life

Shifting Worlds, Shaping Fieldwork Susan Ossman, 2021-04-19 Reflecting on fieldwork for the twenty first century anthropologist and artist Susan Ossman invites readers on a journey across North Africa Europe the Middle East and North America She reveals that fieldwork today is not only about being immersed in a place or culture instead it is an active way of focusing attention and engendering encounters and experiences She conceives a new kind of autoethnography making art and ethnography equal partners to follow three waves of her research on media globalization and migration Ossman guides the reader through diverse settings including a colonial villa in Casablanca a Cairo beauty salon a California mall turned gallery the Berlin Wall and Amsterdam s Hermitage museum She delves into the entanglements of solitary research and collective action This book is a primer for current anthropology and an invitation to artists and scholars to work across boundaries It vividly shows how fieldwork can shape scenes for experiments with multiple outcomes from conceptual advances to artworks performances to dialogue and community making

Networks of Knowledge Production in Sudan Sondra Hale, Gada Kadoda, 2016-09-14 This is the first book of its kind on Sudan and arguably one of the first in North Africa We are part of an emerging more cosmopolitan approach that calls for a reassessment of ideas about not only the concept of identities but also about migration and technology especially social media Our essayists engage in redefinitions the broadening of our key variables the linking and intersecting of concepts and the investigations of methods and ethics and opt for an approach that is at once culturally specific to Sudan one of the most fluid social landscapes in the world and transnational Our essays address the narrowness of studies of migration and note the almost total neglect in the broader Sudan literature of the rise of technology mobile telephony and social media in particular Furthermore our essayists address the near neglect in the Sudan literature of certain categories of people such as youth or certain diverse spaces such as neighborhoods or gold mines We have also been attempting to move away from the nearly stereotypic descriptions of Sudan to deal with topics that align Sudan with transnational issues and themes knowledge production among them This multidisciplinary collection of essays is the first comprehensive work to grapple explicitly with the question of knowledge production in such a diverse social landscape We discuss the impact of current trends in information technology and contemporary forms of identity and mobility on knowledge production These issues are pertinent for different sectors such as academia government or business and as we demonstrate reveal a myriad of possibilities for studying diverse population groups like youth women diaspora or specific political contexts such as conflict or oppression

When Migrants Fail to Stay Ruth Balint,Joy Damousi,Sheila Fitzpatrick,2023-09-07 The aftermath of the Second World War marked a radical new moment in the history of migration For the millions of refugees stranded in Europe China and Africa it offered the possibility of mobility to the new world of the West for countries like Australia that accepted them it marked the beginning of a radical reimagining of its identity as an immigrant nation For the next few decades Australia was transformed by waves of migrants and refugees However two of the five million who came between 1947 and 1985 later left When Migrants Fail to Stay examines why this happened This innovative collection of essays explores a distinctive form of departure and its importance in shaping and defining the reordering of societies after World War II Esteemed historians Ruth Balint Joy Damousi and Sheila Fitzpatrick lead a cast of emerging and established scholars to probe this overlooked phenomenon In doing so this book enhances our understanding of the migration and its history

Onward Migration and Multi-Sited Transnationalism Jill Ahrens,Russell King,2022-10-17 This open access book brings novel perspectives to the scholarship on transnational migration The book stresses the complexity of migration trajectories and proposes multi sited field studies to capture this complexity Its constituent chapters offer examples of onward migration spanning all major world regions The contents exemplify a range of interdisciplinary approaches including both qualitative and quantitative methodologies The result is an impressive remapping and reconceptualisation of global migration and mobility of interest to students and policy makers alike

Migration, Diversity, and Education Fred Dervin,2016-01-10 The concept of Third Culture Kids is often used to describe people who have spent their childhood on the move living in many different countries and languages This book examines the hype relevance and myths surrounding the concept while also redefining it within a broader study of transnationality to demonstrate the variety of stories involved

Child and Youth Migration A. Veale,G. Donà,2014-07-08 This edited collection captures the intersection between migration mobility and childhood studies Contributors explore under researched child and youth short term and micro movements within major migration fluxes that occur in response to migration and global change

Adolescent Girls' Migration in The Global South Katarzyna Grabska,Marina de Regt,Nicoletta Del Franco,2018-09-26 This book provides a nuanced complex comparative analysis of adolescent girls migration and mobility in the Global South The stories and the narratives of migrant girls collected in Bangladesh Ethiopia and Sudan guide the readers in drawing the contours of their lives on the move a complex fluid scenario of choices constraints setbacks risks aspirations and experiences in which internal or international migration plays a pivotal role The main argument of the book is that migration of adolescent girls intersects with other important transitions in their lives such as those related to education work marriage and childbearing and that this affects their transition into adulthood in various ways While migration is sometimes negative it can also offer girls new and better opportunities with positive implications for their future lives The book explores also how concepts of adolescence and adulthood for girls are being transformed in the context of migration

Rethinking Privilege and Social Mobility in Middle-Class Migration

Shanthi Robertson, Rosie Roberts, 2022-03-24 This volume explores the experiences of a wide variety of middle class migrant groups across the globe including ethnic entrepreneurs building new businesses in cosmopolitan neighbourhoods in Sydney Chinese grandparents shuttling between Australia China and Singapore to support their extended families well off young Indians in Mumbai strategising their future education pathways overseas and Japanese mothers finding ways to belong in a London middle class neighbourhood This book asks how relatively privileged migrant groups negotiate their life trajectories relationships and aspirations while on the move and how they transform the communities and societies that they move between across time and space The book's chapters consider motives for migration as well as experiences of risk uncertainty and insecurity in diverse local contexts A fresh look at the migration of those who possess skills and resources that can bring about significant economic social and cultural change this book engages critically with the notions of middling migration social mobility and mobile privilege in the global context of hardening borders and immigration complexity It will appeal to scholars with interests in contemporary forms of migration and mobility and their local and transnational consequences

Argonauts of West Africa Apostolos Andrikopoulos, 2023-05-10 Examines the paradoxes of kinship in the lives of unauthorized African migrants as they struggle for mobility employment and citizenship in Europe In rapidly changing and highly precarious contexts unauthorized African migrants turn to kinship in search of security stability and predictability Through the exchange of identity documents between siblings assistance in obtaining such documentation through kinship networks and marriages that provide access to citizenship new assemblages of kinship are continually made and remade to navigate the shifting demands of European states These new kinship relations however often prove unreliable taking on new unexpected dynamics in the face of codependency they become more difficult to control than those who enter into such relations can imagine Through unusually close ethnographic work in West African migrant communities in Amsterdam Apostolos Andrikopoulos reveals the unseen dynamics of kinship through shared papers the tensions of race and gender that develop in mutually beneficial marriages and the vast informal networks of people information and documentation on which migrants rely Throughout Argonauts of West Africa Andrikopoulos demonstrates how inequality exclusionary practices and the changing policies of an often violent state demand innovative ways of doing kinship to successfully navigate complex migration routes

Migration and Domestic Space Paolo Boccagni, Sara Bonfanti, 2023-03-24 This open access book provides insight into the domestic space of people with an immigrant or refugee background It selects and compares a whole spectrum of dwelling conditions with ethnographic material covering a variety of national backgrounds Latin America North and West Africa Eastern Europe South Asia and an equally broad range of housing household and legal arrangements It provides a fine grained understanding of migrants lived experience of their domestic space and shows the critical significance of the lived space of a house as a microcosm of societal constellations of identities values and inequalities The book enhances the connection between migration studies and research into housing social reproduction domesticity and material culture and provides an interesting read to scholars in migration studies policy makers and practitioners with a remit in local housing and integration policies This wonderful edited collection extends our understanding of migration not only into the confines of the domestic space but also into the territory of the ethnographer What does it mean to be a guest in a migrant home This collection of chapters traverses this question in diverse settings and circumstances of homemaking Boccagni and Bonfanti have skilfully created an intricate lace of ethnographic accounts that provides a nuanced understanding of the built environments where migrants live how they relate to their homes and how this is articulated in their attitudes toward majority society The chapters each on its own and together as a collection advance our understanding of the researcher being a guest in the migrant home just like the migrant being a guest in the host country This complexity of ethnography and positionality makes this edited book an essential reading for migration scholars and ethnographers alike Iris Levin Lecturer in Urban Studies RMIT University Melbourne Australia This book demonstrates how ethnographies of home and dwelling can bear on the study of migration and its manifestation in domestic space Entering someone's home as a researcher challenges our ethical registers the researcher moves between being a stranger and a guest The authors point to the dilemmas researchers encounter in intimate settings and how they might be resolved A valuable and timely book for researchers on dwelling home and movement Cathrine Brun Professor of Human Geography Centre for Lebanese Studies Oxford UK This excellent collection delves into the relationship between migration domesticity and material culture It is ethnographically rich and impressively varied in its geographical scope with insights that will prove extremely useful to scholars and practitioners alike The great strength of the volume lies in the fascinating diversity granular detail and methodological care of the contributions with authors deploying concepts and arguments that prepare a great deal of fertile ground for future work Tom Scott Smith Associate Professor of Refugee Studies and Forced Migration University of Oxford This insightful collection departs from the simple yet significant question of roles What happens when the researcher participant relationship becomes guest host instead By seeing and interpreting domestic spaces as ethnographic field sites the contributions shed light on refugees and other migrants lived experiences of home and housing Drawing on empirical evidence from diverse types of homes across geographic locations Migration and domestic space Ethnographies of home in the making offers valuable and fresh perspective encouraging new connections between material and emotional public and private in migration research Marta Bivand Erdal Research Professor in Migration studies Peace Research Institute Oslo PRIO

Cross-border Marriages and Mobility Avital Binah-Pollak, 2025-10-01 Cross border Marriages and Mobility

Female Chinese Migrants and Hong Kong Men focuses on cross border marriages between mainland Chinese women and Hong Kong men a phenomenon which is of critical importance to the transformation of Hong Kong By examining the women s motivations for migration and lived experiences in relation to the discursive political economic and social circumstances of mainland China and Hong Kong Avital Binah Pollak demonstrates how these marital practices are causing the expanding and blurring of borders so that there is a much wider strip of border in which the dichotomies of the rural urban periphery center and hybrid national identities become more complex and negotiable While this is particularly interesting and valid in the case of the border between mainland China and Hong Kong because of the particular nature of the relationship between these two societies it may also apply to borders between many other societies worldwide This book focuses on cross border marriages between mainland Chinese women and Hong Kong men a phenomenon which is of critical importance to the transformation of Hong Kong

A Museum Studies Approach to Heritage Sheila Watson,Amy Jane Barnes,Katy Bunning,2018-10-08 Heritage s revival as a respected academic subject has in part resulted from an increased awareness and understanding of indigenous rights and non Western philosophies and practices and a growing respect for the intangible Heritage has thus far focused on management tourism and the traditionally heritage minded disciplines such as archaeology geography and social and cultural theory Widening the scope of international heritage studies A Museum Studies Approach to Heritage explores heritage through new areas of knowledge including emotion and affect the politics of dissent migration and intercultural and participatory dimensions of heritage Drawing on a range of disciplines and the best from established sources the book includes writing not typically recognised as heritage but which nevertheless makes a valuable contribution to the debate about what heritage is what it can do and how it works and for whom Including heritage perspectives from beyond the professional sphere the book serves as a reminder that heritage is not just an academic concern but a deeply felt and keenly valued public and private practice This blending of traditional topics and emerging trends established theory and concepts from other disciplines offers readers international views of the past and future of this growing field A Museum Studies Approach to Heritage offers a wider more current and more inclusive overview of issues and practices in heritage and its intersection with museums As such the book will be essential reading for postgraduate students of heritage and museum studies It will also be of great interest to academics practitioners and anyone else who is interested in how we conceptualise and use the past

Migrant Professionals in the City Lars Meier,2014-07-17 The migration of professionals is widely seen as a paradigmatic representation and a driver of globalization The global elite of highly qualified migrants managers and scientists for example are partly defined by their lives mobility But their everyday lives are based and take place in specific cities The contributors of this book analyze the relevance of locality for a mobile group and provide a new perspective on migrant professionals by considering the relevance of social identities for local encounters in socially unequal cities Contributors explore shifting identities senses of belonging and spatial and social inequalities and encounters between migrant professionals and Others within the cities These qualitative studies widen the understanding of the importance of local aspects for the social identities of those who are in many aspects more privileged than others Displacement, Belonging, and Migrant Agency in the Face of Power Tamar Mayer, Trinh Tran, 2022-06-29 This book centres the voices and agency of migrants by refocusing attention on the diversity and complexity of human mobility when seen from the perspective of people on the move in doing so the volume disrupts the binary logics of migrant refugee push pull and places of origin destination that have informed the bulk of migration research Drawn from a range of disciplines and methodologies this anthology links disparate theories approaches and geographical foci to better understand the spectrum of the migratory experience from the viewpoint of migrants themselves The book explores the causes and consequences of human displacement at different scales both individual and community level and across different time points from antiquity to the present and geographies not just the Global North but also the Global South Transnational scholars across a range of knowledge cultures advance a broader global discourse on mobility and migration that centres on the direct experiences and narratives of migrants themselves Both interdisciplinary and accessible this book will be useful for scholars and students in Migration Studies Global Studies Sociology Geography and Anthropology Multinational Maids Anju Mary Paul, 2017-09-28 Multinational Maids offers an in depth investigation into the international migrations of Filipino and Indonesian migrant domestic workers The author taps on her rigorous study of more than 1 200 subjects migration trajectories to reveal how these migrants work in a series of overseas countries to improve their lives and in some cases seek permanent residence in another country Challenging the portrayal of Asian migrant domestic workers as victims of globalization Multinational Maids reveals migrants agency and strategic thinking under conditions of constraint At the market level the establishment of guestworker programmes for migrant domestic workers in multiple countries has created a global labor market A transnational diaspora shapes migrants evolving destination imaginaries while manpower recruitment and placement agencies create transnational mobility structures In addition differing destination hierarchies and degrees of access to resources lead to the adoption of divergent stepwise trajectories Written in an accessible manner Multinational Maids appeals to migration scholars policymakers activists and students Rohingyas and the Geographies of Precarity in Exile Anas Ansar, 2025-09-13 Focusing on Myanmar s Rohingya refugees in Bangladesh and Malaysia this study provides an in depth analysis of the contribution of historical legacies of exclusion along with contemporary practices of marginalisation and otherisation to the transcendence of the precarity landscape In light of the 2017 displacement of over a million Rohingya from Myanmar s Rakhine state to neighbouring Bangladesh the book offers a nuanced and empirically driven analysis of precarity across a wide spectrum at discrete and overlapping scales shaped by statelessness vulnerability uncertainty onward migration and everyday practices of exclusion Bringing together the diverse manifestation along the lines of identity status space mobility gender and labour the study proposes a comprehensive understanding of precarity

conceptualised as the interconnected geographies of precarity Elucidating the intricate web of structural constraints that predate in Myanmar and are continually reconstructed and actualised in exile the book examines the continuum of precarity in extended transnational spaces a phenomenon that is complex non linear transitional and multi faceted Transnational Lives in Global Cities Caroline Plüss,2018-12-21 This book investigates the transnational experiences of Chinese Singaporeans who lived in one of four global cities Hong Kong London New York or Singapore Plüss argues that these middle class well educated and often highly skilled migrants mostly experienced a sense of dis embeddedness and not cosmopolitanism or hybridity in their transnational lives The author's multi sited study intersects the Chinese Singaporeans highly varied perceptions of these global cities and their biographies to show that these migrants who often were repeat migrants foremost experienced ruptures and disjuncture in their education work family and or friendships lifestyle contexts Transnational dis embeddedness is explained in terms of the Chinese Singaporeans access to resources and their views of self others places and societies Plüss recommends that research on these migrants should more fully account for the complexities of transnational processes and contributes with such a knowledge to the scholarship on transnationalism migration race and ethnicity and migrant non integration

Chinese Senior Migrants and the Globalization of Retirement Nicole DeJong Newendorp,2020-09-08 The 21st century has seen growing numbers of seniors turning to migration in response to newfound challenges to traditional forms of retirement and old age support such as increased longevity demographically aging populations and global neoliberal trends reducing state welfare Chinese born migrants to the U S serve as an exemplary case of this trend with 30 percent of all migrants since 1990 being at least 60 years old This book tells their story arguing that they demonstrate the significance of age as a mediating factor that is fundamentally important for considering how migration is experienced The subjects of this study are situated at the crossroads of Chinese immigrant and Chinese American experiences embodying many of the ambiguities and paradoxes that complicate common understandings of each group These are older individuals who have waited their whole lives to migrate to the U S to rejoin family but often experience unanticipated family conflict when they arrive They are retirees living at the social and economic margins of American society who nonetheless find significant opportunities to achieve meaningful retired lifestyles They are members of a diaspora spanning vast regional and ideological differences yet their wellbeing hinges on everyday interactions with others in this diverse community Their stories highlight the many possibilities for mutual engagement that connect Chinese and American ways of being and belonging in the world

Migrant Representations Peter Leese,2022-01-15 Migrant Representations pairs twenty four carefully selected histories in order to compare how migrants themselves Irish labourer Lithuanian refugee or Indian doctor and their social investigators capture in words and images defining private and historical moments These comparative case studies from the 1780s to the 2000s explore how migrants constructed their own narratives of mobility and settlement through procedures of reflecting remembering and recording Moreover these studies examine how speech writing and picture were used for instance by a missionary social scientist or activist to make outside representations of the migrant Such life stories social surveys and pictures emerge as alternative archives Leese s transnational cultural history considers life story forms and their uses the tension between external surveillance and self observation the power of narratives to afford legibility and acknowledgement Leese argues that historically and in the present first person migrant stories and outsider investigations create a continuous charged exchange of views where both migrant and observer negotiate position authority authenticity and potential advantage Within the history of migrant representations this exchange generates a persistent subversive strain of opposition and critique Such self observations observations of others and images never settle
