Mrs. Spring Fragrance Sui Sin Far, 2021-05-11 A rediscovered classic of linked short stories set in San Francisco's Chinatown by the first published Asian American fiction writer with an introduction by C Pam Zhang, bestselling author of How Much of These Hills Is Gold. In this rediscovered classic of linked short stories set in San Francisco's Chinatown, Sui Sin Far portrays Chinese immigrants as they fall in love, encounter racism, and wrestle with their new Americanized identities decades before writers like Maxine Hong Kingston and Amy Tan. By turns tender and dramatic, Mrs Spring Fragrance tells of the Chinese women and men as they confront prejudice and forced detention, choose to assimilate or stay true to their cultural heritage, meet both kind and predatory Americans, and find love, purpose, and understanding in their new home. These stories are windows into the lives of everyday people in an unforgiving city who find solidarity and hope in the most unexpected places. The Modern Library Torchbearers series features women who wrote on their own terms with boldness, creativity, and a spirit of resistance. Mrs. Spring Fragrance Sui Sin Far, 2020-10-25 When Mrs Spring Fragrance first arrived in Seattle, she was unacquainted with even one word of the American language. Five years later, her husband speaking of her said, "There are no more American words for her learning." And everyone who knew Mrs Spring Fragrance agreed with Mr Spring Fragrance. Mr Spring Fragrance, whose business name was Sing Yook, was a young curio merchant. Though conservatively Chinese in many respects, he was at the same time what is called by the Westerners Americanized. Mrs Spring Fragrance was even more Americanized. Next door to the Spring Fragrances lived the Chin Yuens. Mrs Chin Yuen was much older than Mrs Spring Fragrance, but she had a daughter of eighteen with whom Mrs Spring Fragrance was on terms of great friendship. The daughter was a pretty girl whose Chinese name was Mai Gwi Far, a rose, and whose American name was Laura. Nearly everybody called her Laura, even her parents and Chinese friends. Laura had a sweetheart, a youth named Kai Tzu Kai Tzu, who was American born and as ruddy and stalwart as any young Westerner was noted amongst baseball players as one of the finest pitchers on the Coast He could also sing Drink to me only with thine eyes to Laura s piano accompaniment Now the only person who knew that Kai Tzu loved Laura and that Laura loved Kai Tzu was Mrs Spring Fragrance The reason for this was that although the Chin Yuen parents lived in a house furnished in American style and wore American clothes yet they religiously observed many Chinese customs and their ideals of life were the ideals of their Chinese forefathers Therefore they had betrothed their daughter Laura at the age of fifteen to the eldest son of the Chinese Government school teacher in San Francisco The time for the consummation of the betrothal was approaching Mrs. Spring Fragrance Edith Transcending the New Woman Charlotte J. Rich, 2009 The dawn of the twentieth century saw the birth of the New Woman a cultural and literary ideal that replaced Victorian expectations of domesticity with visions of social political and economic autonomy Although such writers as Edith Wharton and Kate Chopin treated these ideals in well known literature of that era marginalized women also explored changing gender roles in works that deserve more attention today This book is the first study to focus solely on multiethnic women writers responses to the ideal of the New Woman in America opening up a world of literary texts that provide new insight into the phenomenon Charlotte Rich reveals how these authors uniquely articulated the contradictions of the American New Woman and how social class race or ethnicity impacted women s experiences of both public and private life in the Progressive era Rich focuses on the work of writers representing five distinct ethnicities Native Americans S Alice Callahan and Mourning Dove African American Pauline Hopkins Chinese American Sui Sin Far Mexican American Mar a Cristina Mena and Jewish American Anzia Yezierska She shows that some of their works contain both affirmative and critical portraits of white New Women in other cases while these authors align their multiethnic heroines with the new ideals those ideals are sometimes subordinated to more urgent dialogues about inequality and racial violence Here are views of women not usually encountered in fiction of this era Callahan s and Mourning Dove s novels allude to women s rights but ultimately privilege critiques of violence against Native Americans Hopkins s novels trace an increasingly pessimistic trajectory drawing cynical conclusions about black women s ability to thrive in a prejudiced society Mena s magazine portraits of Mexican life present complex critiques of this independent ideal of womanhood Yezierska s stories question the philanthropy of socially privileged Progressive female reformers with whom immigrant women interact These writers works sometimes affirm emerging ideals but in other cases illuminate the iconic New Woman s blindness to her own racial and economic privilege Through her insightful analysis Rich presents alternative versions of female autonomy with characters living outside the mainstream or moving between cultures Transcending the New Woman offers multiple ways of transcending an ideal that was problematic in its exclusivity as well as an entrance to forgotten works It shows how the concept of the New Woman can be seen in newly complex ways when viewed through the writings of authors whose lives often embody the New Woman s emancipatory goals and whose fictions both affirm and complicate her aspirations

Treacherous Texts Mary Chapman, Angela Mills, 2011 Although the suffrage campaign is often associated in popular memory with oratory this anthology affirms that suffragists recognized early on that literature could also exert a power to move readers to imagine new roles for women in the public sphere Beginning with sentimental fiction and polemic progressing through modernist and middlebrow experiment and concluding with post ratification memoirs and tributes this anthology showcases lost and neglected fiction poetry drama literary journalism and autobiography it also samples innovative print cultural forms devised for the campaign such as valentines banners and cartoons Featured
