Stroke - it Couldn't Happen to Me Margaret Cromarty, Shoaib Siddiqui, 2016-07-12 Margaret Cromarty was a nurse who suffered a catastrophic stroke aged just 43 which left her with Locked In Syndrome Still paralysed even now with the aid of an on screen keyboard she has written this unflinching account of her treatment It describes the frustrations of being fully aware but ignored as a person by carers unable to communicate effectively and the painfully slow steps towards rehabilitation It contains vital lessons for health professionals caring for victims of stroke and for families and friends of patients I learned later that the doctors expected that I would die They made a poor attempt at concealing this expectation They discussed me over me I was dismayed at the negative vibes they exuded each time they came to see me I felt that they had written me off already Of course they can have had little idea of how their behaviour affected me I just lay there seemingly unresponsive just existing unable to enlighten them as to what was going on inside my head Margaret Cromarty
