Music, Movies, Meanings, and Markets Morris Holbrook, 2012-01-25 Music Movies Meanings and Markets Cinemajazzmatazz focuses on macro marketing related aspects of film music in general and on the cinemusical role of jazz in particular After a review of other work on music in motion pictures the book explores and illustrates the ways in which on screen jazz performances contribute to the development of dramatic meanings in various films many of which address the art versus commerce theme as a central concern The Janus Paradigm Franklin J. Himes,1998 Religion in Contemporary European Cinema Costica Bradatan,Camil Ungureanu,2014-02-18 The religious landscape in Europe is changing dramatically While the authority of institutional religion has weakened a growing number of people now desire individualized religious and spiritual experiences finding the self complacency of secularism unfulfilling The crisis of religion is itself a form of religious life A sense of complex subterranean interaction between religious heterodox secular and atheistic experiences has thus emerged which makes the phenomenon all the more fascinating to study and this is what Religion in Contemporary European Cinema does The book explores the mutual influences structural analogies shared dilemmas as well as the historical roots of such a post secular constellation as seen through the lens of European cinema Bringing together scholars from film theory and political science ethics and philosophy of religion philosophy of film and theology this volume casts new light on the relationship between the religious and secular experience after the death of the death of God Movies to Manage By John Clemens,Melora Wolff,2000-11 Movies do more than just entertain A good film can also teach Charles Foster Kane the tragic protagonist of Citizen Kane is the perfect example of how hoarding power can lead to chaos in business and personal matters Dead Poet Society s John Keating is the archetype of the employee who has affected change downward but has not solicited the support of superiors who may later stonewall other projects And Norma Rae in the movie of the same name a seemingly powerless factory worker shakes up the plant s male dominated management and becomes the company s most influential leader In this entertaining and instructive book you will discover that film is indeed an untapped source of leadership wisdom for businesses large and small You will see your own organization as well as your own management and leadership challenges mirrored here in the examination and analysis of nine compelling and highly accessible film narratives Book jacket Cinema-(to)-graphy Ellen Bishop,1999 Film is simply too big and too influential a mass medium to ignore Surprisingly enough although film is already a staple in many composition classrooms little has been written about its uses leaving many of us uncertain of how to proceed Cinema to Graphy takes you inside some of those classrooms offering new ideas on integrating film and other visual media with student writing Ellen Bishop divides the book into four sections based on where the authors locate themselves in the field of film and writing These essays if anything resist easy categorization all of them begin to unfold both theoretical and practical questions that arise from the conversation about film and writing cultural studies and undergraduate students These instructors offer special insight into both course structures and materials and the methods through which they make use of them Best of all they offer new strategies to help students become critical thinkers who can responsibly speak to and read their media saturated world and who can identify and work with the problems posed by language This anthology will be of great use to university and college teachers of all ranks especially graduate student teachers interested in integrating film into their composition classrooms Hearing a Film, Seeing a Sermon: Preaching and Popular Movies Timothy B. Cargal, 2007

Movies and Methods Bill Nichols, 1976 VOLUME 2 Movies and Methods Volume II captures the developments that have given history and genre studies imaginative new models and indicates how feminist structuralist and psychoanalytic approaches to film have achieved fresh valuable insights In his thoughtful introduction Nichols provides a context for the paradoxes that confront film studies today He shows how shared methods and approaches continue to stimulate much of the best writing about film points to common problems most critics and theorists have tried to resolve and describes the internal contradictions that have restricted the usefulness of post structuralism Mini introductions place each essay in a larger context and suggest its linkages with other essays in the volume A great variety of approaches and methods characterize film writing today and the final part conveys their diversity from statistical style analysis to phenomenology and from gay criticisms to neoformalism This concluding part also shows how the rigorous use of a broad range of approaches has helped remove post structuralist criticism from its position of dominance through most of the seventies and early eighties Publisher description

Women Labor Activists in the Movies Jennifer L. Borda, 2015-04-25 Some of the most indelible images of women in recent American film have been of working women fighting for labor reform or to expose corporate corruption This critical text explores films with female labor activists as main protagonists illuminating issues of gender and class while depicting the challenges of working class women Films covered include Salt of the Earth Pajama Game Union Maids With Babies and Banners Norma Rae Silkwood and Live Nude Girls Unite Through comparative analysis the text examines the responses of these films to the labor and feminist movements of the last half century and how American cinema has articulated notions of disempowerment ambivalence and at times the resistance of both women and the working class at large Contemporary British and Irish Film Directors Yoram Allon, Del Cullen, Hannah Patterson, 2001 The guide encompasses the careers of over 350 directors from the last 20 years A must for any film studies library it is a unique reference to the changing dynamics of these cinemas

Main Street Movies Martin L. Johnson, 2018-01-23 See yourself in the movies Prior to the advent of the home movie camera and the ubiquitousness of the camera phone there was the local film This cultural phenomenon produced across the country from the 1890s to the 1950s gave ordinary people a chance to be on the silver screen without leaving their hometowns Through these movies residents could see themselves in the same theaters where they saw major Hollywood motion pictures Traveling filmmakers plied their trade in small towns and cities where these films were received by locals as being part of the larger cinema experience With access to the rare film clips under discussion Main Street Movies documents the diversity and longevity of local film production and examines how itinerant filmmakers responded to industry changes to keep sponsors and audiences satisfied From town pride films in the 1910s to Hollywood knockoffs in the 1930s local films captured not just images of local people and places but also ideas about the function and meaning of cinema that continue to resonate today

Writing in Film Studies, from Professional Practice to Practical Pedagogy Bryan Mead, 2024-01-09

A common refrain heard from instructors in offices across the world is that students have a hard time producing quality written discourse. This is no different in the world of film studies where many undergraduate students struggle to cogently discuss the films they watch in class. How can film instructors help students become better writers? This book answers this question by first uncovering the disciplinary expectations we have for students and then offering strategies to explicitly teach those expectations in the classroom. This book examines and identifies the disciplinary conventions of professional film studies discourse along with the expectations we have for student writing in undergraduate film courses. What becomes clear from this analysis is that the pedagogical expectations we have for students are aligned with and shaped by professional writing in the discipline. It helps to uncover the argument types instructors take for granted and helps those teaching undergraduate students not only to know what those expectations are but also how to use that knowledge to foster better student writing.

An Annotated Bibliography for Taiwan Film Studies Jim Cheng, James Wicks, Sachie Noguchi, 2016-04-19. Compiled by two skilled librarians and a Taiwanese film and culture specialist, this volume is the first multilingual and most comprehensive bibliography of Taiwanese film scholarship designed to satisfy the broad interests of the modern researcher. The second book in a remarkable three-volume research project, An Annotated Bibliography for Taiwan Film Studies catalogues the published and unpublished monographs, theses, manuscripts, and conference proceedings of Taiwanese film scholars from the 1950s to 2013. Paired with An Annotated Bibliography for Chinese Film Studies (2004), which accounts for texts dating back to the 1920s, this series brings together like no other reference the disparate voices of Chinese film scholarship, charting its unique intellectual arc. Organized intuitively, the volume begins with reference materials, bibliographies, cinematographies, directories, indexes, dictionaries, and handbooks, and then moves through film history, the colonial period, Taiwan dialect film, new Taiwan cinema, the 228 Incident, film genres (animated, anticommunist, documentary, ethnographic, martial arts, teen film), reviews, film theory and technique, interdisciplinary studies, Taiwan and mainland China, Taiwan and Japan film, and aboriginal peoples film, and literature, film, and nationality biographical materials, film stories, screenplays, and scripts, film technology, and miscellaneous aspects of Taiwanese film scholarship: artifacts, acts of censorship, copyright law, distribution channels, film festivals, and industry practice. Works written in multiple languages include transliteration, romanized, and original script entries, which follow universal AACR 2 and American cataloguing standards and professional notations by the editors to aid in the use of sources.
