Moving Towards Internationalisation Of The Curriculum For Global Citizenship:

Moving Towards Internationalisation of the Curriculum for Global Citizenship in Higher Education Valerie Clifford, Catherine Montgomery, Oxford Centre for Staff and Learning Development, 2011 Through this book we offer a way into the complex debates on the internationalisation of the curriculum IoC and global citizenship education and provide examples of IoC for global citizenship at work in policy research and practice We hope that it inspires you to join us on this journey along with your colleagues to explore creative ways to engage with and take forward these ideas From the introduction

Handbook for Teaching and Learning in Geography Helen Walkington, Jennifer Hill, Sarah Dyer, 2019-12-27 This exemplary Handbook provides readers with a novel synthesis of international research evidence based practice and personal reflections to offer an overview of the current state of knowledge in the field of teaching geography in higher education Chapters cover the three key transitions into through and out of higher education to present a thorough analysis of the topic

Assembling and Governing the Higher Education Institution Lynette Shultz, Melody Viczko, 2016-09-27 This book emphasizes the inherently democratic nature of education from those who practice in higher education institutions and are involved in decision making to those questioning the methods of reform processes in those institutions As they are faced with increasing pressures to restructure and change their organizations in line with global institutional demands the foundations upon which their leadership and governance are based are called into question This book takes a critical approach to understanding higher education leadership and governance The overarching questions asked in this book are how has higher education come to be assembled in contemporary governance practices within the context of global demands for reform and how are issues of justice being taken up as part of and in resistance to this assemblage
