Moving Beyond Sectarianism Religion Conflict And Reconciliation In Northern Ireland:

Moving Beyond Sectarianism Joseph Liechty, Cecelia Clegg, 2001 A six year research project of the Irish School of Ecumenics concerned with Christianities and sectarianism in Northern Ireland and offering a detailed analysis of sectarian dynamics Anti-Sectarianism and Reconciliation in Northern Ireland Cillian McGrattan, 2024-08-12 This book addresses the limitations of dominant ways of thinking about and doing politics in Northern Ireland Arguing for the foregrounding of anti sectarianism as a way of displacing the divisive dynamics of religion and nationalism it provides a new lens for studying Northern Ireland Drawing upon a close reading of the political philosophy of Jacques Rancière the book aligns anti sectarianism to the ways that people refuse affiliation with the traditional ethnic values and practices It describes this refusal as dis identification and reveals how dissensus acts as an alternative to the displacing of equality Returning equality and equality claims making to a clear position of visibility the book provides a radical rethinking of Northern Ireland a quarter century beyond the 1998 peace accord It will appeal to all those interested in politics and peacebuilding studies Global Change, Civil Society and the Northern Ireland Peace Process C. Farrington, 2008-01-23 Northern Ireland's Belfast Agreement has faced continual crises of implementation over a variety of security related issues This book places the implementation of the Belfast Agreement in a wide context to provide an analysis of why implementation has been so difficult

The Oxford Handbook of Religion in Modern Ireland, 2024-01-15 What does religion mean to modern Ireland and what is its recent social and political history The Oxford Handbook of Religion in Modern Ireland provides in depth analysis of the relationships between religion society politics and everyday life on the island of Ireland from 1800 to the twenty first century Taking a chronological and all island approach it explores the complex and changing role of religion both before and after partition The handbook's thirty two chapters address long standing historical and political debates about religion identity and politics including religion's contributions to division and violence They also offer perspectives on how religion interacts with education the media law gender and sexuality science literature and memory Whilst providing insight into how everyday religious practices have intersected with the institutional structures of Catholicism and Protestantism the book also examines the island's increasing religious diversity including the rise of those with no religion Written by leading scholars in the field and emerging researchers with new perspectives this is an authoritative and up to date volume that offers a wide ranging and comprehensive survey of the enduring significance of religion on the island Northern Ireland and the politics of boredom George Legg, 2018-09-10 This book provides a new interpretation of the Northern Irish Troubles From internment to urban planning the hunger strikes to post conflict tourism it asserts that concepts of capitalism have been consistently deployed to alleviate and exacerbate violence in the North Through a detailed analysis of the diverse cultural texts Legg traces the affective energies produced by capitalism's persistent attempt to resolve Northern Ireland's ethnic national divisions a process he calls the politics of boredom Such an approach warrants a reconceptualization of boredom as much as cultural production In close readings of Derek Mahon's poetry the photography of Willie Doherty and the female experience of incarceration Legg argues that cultural texts can delineate a more democratic less philosophical conception of ennui Critics of the Northern Irish Peace Process have begun to apprehend some of these tensions But an analysis of the post conflict condition cannot account for capitalism's protracted and enervating impact in Northern Ireland Consequently Legg returns to the origins of the Troubles and uses influential theories of capital accumulation to examine how a politicised sense of boredom persists throughout and after the years of conflict Like Left critique Legg's attention to the politics of boredom interrogates the depleted sense of humanity capitalism can create What Legg's approach proposes is as unsettling as it is radically new By attending to Northern Ireland's long standing experience of ennui this book ultimately isolates boredom as a source of optimism as well as a means of oppression

The Catholic Church and the Northern Ireland Troubles, 1968-1998 Margaret M. Scull, 2019-09-11 Until surprisingly recently the history of the Irish Catholic Church during the Northern Irish Troubles was written by Irish priests and bishops and was commemorative rather than analytical This study uses the Troubles as a case study to evaluate the role of the Catholic Church in mediating conflict During the Troubles these priests and bishops often worked behind the scenes acting as go betweens for the British government and republican paramilitaries to bring about a peaceful solution However this study also looks more broadly at the actions of the American Irish and English Catholic Churches as well as that of the Vatican to uncover the full impact of the Church on the conflict This critical analysis of previously neglected state Irish and English Catholic Church archival material changes our perspective on the role of a religious institution in a modern conflict

Irish Religious Conflict in Comparative Perspective John Wolffe, 2014-05-27 By setting the Irish religious conflict in a wide comparative perspective this book offers fresh insights into the causes of religious conflicts and potential means of resolving them The collection mounts a challenge to views of Irish exceptionalism and points to significant historical and contemporary commonalities across the Western world

Explorations in Reconciliation Dr Joseph Liechty, Professor David Tombs, 2013-05-28 Theologians and scholars of religion draw on rich resources to address the complex issues raised by political reconciliation in the Middle East the former Yugoslavia South Africa Northern Ireland and elsewhere The questions addressed include Can truth set a person or a society free How is political forgiveness possible Are political personal and spiritual reconciliation essentially related Explorations in Reconciliation brings Catholic Protestant Mennonite Jewish and Islamic perspectives together within a single volume to present some of the most relevant theological work today

The Church, The Far Right, and The Claim to Christianity Helen Paynter, 2024-08-30 In recent years far right organisations have invaded mosques across the UK with army issued Bibles declaring their actions a Christian crusade Others have paraded large crosses through Muslim majority areas and invaded migrant hotels harassing residents in their so called crusade Far right appeals to clean up society and restore Christian Britain can be quite attractive to some Christians However what they may fail to appreciate is that this rhetoric

may be cynically employed by those whose allegiance and values are quite contrary to Christian ones Despite all this the response from official church sources in the UK has been notably subdued and resources to help churches address hate crimes or racial tensions are scarce This book aims to fill that void Bringing together insights from theologians church practitioners and leading experts this volume examines the church's response to the rise of far right thinking in UK society and explores how it can respond more effectively With a foreword by David Gushee this book offers critical and constructive perspectives for the church to confront these challenges Jihadism, Sectarianism and Politics in a Changing Middle East Adib Abdulmajid, 2021-05-07 Jihadism Sectarianism and Politics in a Changing Middle East tackles questions of core significance for understanding the current religio political scene in the Middle East It addresses the doctrinal tenets associated with the emergence of influential Islamist organizations the rise of sectarian based extremist groups and the challenges encountered by the culturally diverse populations amidst such developments It constitutes an exploration of sectarianism Islamism Salafism and jihadism This book also delves into the historical events that have shaped the Middle East as we know it today It further examines the key factors behind the rise of the most influential sectarian guided jihadi based extremist groups in the recent years The emergence and growth of sectarian Islamist militant organizations whether Sunni or Shia is deemed to be the fruit of the emerging radical interpretations and elucidations of the conception of jihad and the evolution of the movement of Islamism in general The main objective of this book is to help the reader understand the complex religio political scene in today's Middle East and the ideological principles and agendas of key influential movements whose beliefs and actions constitute a serious threat to cultural diversity in the region Politics of Identity in Post-Conflict States Éamonn Ó Ciardha, Gabriela Vojvoda, 2015-12-14 Ireland and the Balkans have come to represent divided and re united communities They both provide effective microcosms of national ethnic political military religious ideological and cultural conflicts in their respective regions and as a result they demonstrate real and imaginary divisions This book will specifically focus on the history politics and literature of Bosnia Herzegovina and Northern Ireland while making comparative reference to some of Europe's other disputed and divided regions Using case studies such as Kosovo and Serbia Lithuania Germany Poland Russia and Belarus Greece and Macedonia it examines space place and border discourse the topography of war and violence post war settlement and reconciliation and the location and negotiation of national ethnic religious political and cultural identities The book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of cultural studies history politics Irish studies Slavonic studies area studies and literary studies Enforcing Reformation in Ireland and Scotland, 1550-1700 Crawford Gribben, 2016-04-29 The last few years have witnessed a growing interest in the study of the Reformation period within the three kingdoms of Britain revolutionizing the way in which scholars think about the relationships between England Scotland and Ireland Nevertheless it is a fact that the story of the British Reformation is still dominated by studies of England an imbalance that this book will help to right By adopting an international perspective the essays in this volume look at the motives methods and impact of enforcing the Protestant Reformation in Ireland and Scotland The juxtaposition of these two countries illuminates the similarities and differences of their social and political situations while qualifying many of the conclusions of recent historical work in each country As well as Investigating what reformation meant in the early modern period and examining its literal rhetorical doctrinal moral and political implications the volume also explores what enforcing these various reformations could involve Taken as a whole this volume offers a fascinating insight into how the political authorities in Scotland and Ireland attempted with varying degrees of success to impose Protestantism on their countries By comparing the two situations and placing them in the wider international picture our understanding of European confessionalization is further enhanced

Extremism in the Digital Era

Adib Abdulmajid,2021-07-15 This book constitutes a journey into the obscure field of sectarian guided discourses of radical Islamist groups It provides new insights into the ideological mechanisms utilized by such organizations to incite sectarian conflicts and recruit local and foreign guardians to their alleged cause This book examines diverse aspects and dimensions of the discourses of Sunni based ISIS and Shia based al Hashd al Shaabi and explores manipulative and ideological discursive strategies utilized by media outlets associated with these groups It delves into linguistic and contextual activities implicit and explicit messages within the discourses of various media outlets operating in the heart of the Middle East It also scrutinizes and explains aspects of politicization religionization and sectarianization within the media discourse of terrorist groups in the digital era

Ireland and the Reception of the Bible Bradford A. Anderson,Jonathan Kearney,2018-04-19 Drawing on the work of leading figures in biblical religious historical and cultural studies in Ireland and beyond this volume explores the reception of the Bible in Ireland focusing on the social and cultural dimensions of such use of the Bible This includes the transmission of the Bible the Bible and identity formation engagement beyond Ireland and cultural and artistic appropriation of the Bible The chapters collected here are particularly useful and insightful for those researching the use and reception of the Bible as well as those with broader interests in social and cultural dimensions of Irish history and Irish studies The chapters challenge the perception in the minds of many that the Bible is a static book with a fixed place in the world that can be relegated to ecclesial contexts and perhaps academic study Rather as this book shows the role of the Bible in the world is much more complex Nowhere is this clearer than in Ireland with its rich and complex religious cultural and social history This volume examines these very issues highlighting the varied ways in which the Bible has impacted Irish life and society as well as the ways in which the cultural specificity of Ireland has impacted the use and development of the Bible both in Ireland and further afield

Assessing the Impact of Transitional Justice Hugo Van der Merwe,Victoria Baxter,Audrey R.

Chapman,2009 In Assessing the Impact of Transitional Justice fourteen leading researchers study seventy countries that have suffered from autocratic rule genocide and protracted internal conflict

Ex-Combatants, Religion, and Peace in Northern Ireland J. Brewer,D. Mitchell,G. Leavey,2013-02-04 Studies of Northern Ireland s ex combatants ignore religion

while advocates of religious interventions in transitional justice exaggerate its influence Using interview data with ex combatants this book explores religious influences upon violence and peace and develops a model for evaluating the role of religion in transitional justice A Theological Odyssey John W. De Gruchy, 2014-09-01 John de Gruchy is one of the greatest and most respected South African theologians of the past five decades His work has left an indelible mark on both the South African and international theological landscapes In this book he describes his theological journey revisiting core themes periods and sources This is an enriching read as De Gruchy engages with some of the greatest theologians in the history of the church notably John Calvin Karl Barth Karl Rahner Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Reinhold Niebuhr as well as with a wide selection of his fellow South African theologians Cas Wepener Atonement as Gift Katie M Heffelfinger, Patrick G McGlinchey, 2014-06-01 Atonement as Gift Re Imagining the Cross for the Church and the World grows out of the conviction that the doctrine of the atonement has wide reaching practical implications for some of the deepest pastoral and theological questions individuals and communities face today It asks the question What difference does the atonement make for ecumenics pastoral care theodicy gender ecology and social division The answers given by experts in their fields point to the potential of the doctrine to renew Christian theology and spirituality This unique book is designed not only to offer the insights of these theologians but also to guide readers to engage the issue for themselves and to integrate the doctrine into their own theological reflection Contents 1 Stephen Williams The Atonement Today The State of Current Discussion 2 Vincent Twomey and Stephen Williams The Cross and Our Aspiration for a Common Doctrine of Redemption followed by questions for discussion groups 3 Ron Elsdon The Cross and the Redemption of the Cosmos 4 Elaine Storkey The Cross and the Reconciliation of Gender followed by a creative writing workshop exercise 5 David Tombs The Cross and the Reconciliation of Enemies 6 Richard Bauckham The Cross and God's Embrace of Suffering followed by an exegetically driven exercise examining lament texts 7 Robin Stockitt The Cross and Our Captivity to Shame followed by resources for conducting a bibliodrama workshop 8 Heather Morris The Cross and the Healing of the Self followed by the description of a prayer ministry clinic related to the themes of the chapter 9 Katie M Heffelfinger and Patrick G McGlinchey Responses 10 Conclusion A New History of Ireland Volume VII J.
