Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in Latin America Jerónimo Arellano, 2015-05-21 Iconoclastic in spirit Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in Latin America is the first study of affect and emotion in magical realist literature Against the grain of a vast body of scholarship it argues that magical realism is neither exotic commodity nor postcolonial resistance but an art form fueled by a search for spaces of wonder in a disenchanted world Linking the rise and fall of magical realism and kindred narrative forms to the shifting value of wonder as an emotional experience this thought provoking study proposes a radical new approach to canonical novels such as One Hundred Years of Solitude Received as one of the most convincing manifestations of the turn to affect in contemporary Latin American critical thought Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions draws on affect theory the history of emotions and new materialism to reframe key questions in Latin American literature and culture Le cabinet des merveilles de Monsieur Wilson Lawrence Weschler, 1997 Derrière la façade anodine d'un immeuble de Culver City Los Angeles se cache un improbable Musée de technologie jurassique Il est l'oeuvre d'un personnage tout autant singulier un certain David Wilson Ce dernier a rassemblé quelques unes des bizarreries les plus extravagantes que l'homme ait pu produire ou trouver dans la nature There is Another Way Ian Gilbert, 2015-11-13 Edited by Ian Gilbert with chapters by Mark Anderson Lisa Jane Ashes Phil Beadle Jackie Beere David Cameron The Real David Cameron Paul Clarke Tait Coles Mark Creasy Mark Finnis Dave Harris Crista Hazell Martin Illingworth Nina Jackson Rachel Jones Gill Kelly Debra Kidd Jonathan Lear Trisha Lee Roy Leighton Matthew McFall Sarah

The Breathless Zoo Rachel Poliquin, 2012-08-22 From sixteenth century cabinets of wonders to contemporary animal art The Breathless Zoo Taxidermy and the Cultures of Longing examines the cultural and poetic history of preserving animals in lively postures But why would anyone want to preserve an animal and what is this animal thing now Rachel Poliquin suggests that taxidermy is entwined with the enduring human longing to find meaning with and within the natural world Her study draws out the longings at the heart of taxidermy the longing for wonder beauty spectacle order narrative allegory and remembrance In so doing The Breathless Zoo explores the animal spectacles desired by particular communities human assumptions of superiority the yearnings for hidden truths within animal form and the loneliness and longing that haunt our strange human existence being both within and apart from nature

The Poetics of Natural History Christoph Irmscher, 2019-09-08 Winner of the 2000 American Studies Network Prize and the Literature and Language Award from the Association of American Publishers Inc Early American naturalists assembled dazzling collections of native flora and fauna from John Bartram's botanical garden in Philadelphia and the artful display of animals in Charles Willson Peale's museum to P T Barnum's American Museum infamously characterized by Henry James as halls of humbug Yet physical collections were only one of the myriad ways that these naturalists captured catalogued and commemorated America's rich biodiversity They also turned to writing and art from John Edward Holbrook's forays into the fascinating world of herpetology to John James Audubon's masterful portraits of American birds In this groundbreaking now classic book Christoph Irmscher argues that early American natural historians developed a distinctly poetic sensibility that allowed them to imagine themselves as part of and not apart from their environment He also demonstrates what happens to such inclusiveness in the hands of Harvard scientist turned Amazonian explorer Louis Agassiz whose racist pseudoscience appalled his student William James This expanded full color edition of The Poetics of Natural History features a preface and art from award winning artist Rosamond Purcell and invites the reader to be fully immersed in an era when the boundaries between literature art and science became fluid

Curious Exotica (Ink on Paper) Andrea Zittlau, 2016-01-14 Ethnographic museums have been fundamentally reshaped during recent decades acknowledging contemporary cultural practices recognising aesthetic expressions and encouraging the active involvement of indigenous participants in all processes of museum creation and administration Despite these efforts however this book reveals how the institution of the museum as such continues to be haunted by its previous restrictive ideas of the other while talking about the self It investigates the ethnographic object and its performance in museum displays departing from notions of haunting as expressed by Jacques Derrida and Avery Gordon to think about presence and absence and the tension between object and text The book argues that the tension between satisfying and dissatisfying informational needs is essential to the museum context and that the objects on display have to be arranged in familiar patterns to be recognisable as material knowledge As such the ethnographic museum can be nothing else but a monument to its own history and the ethnographic object remains trapped by the limitations of its category that is inseparable from the museum setting

To Have and to Hold Philipp Blom, 2004-06-01 This curiously moving history traces the development of collections since the Renaissance through lively portraits of famous collectors The New Yorker From amassing sacred relics to collecting celebrity memorabilia the impulse to hoard has gripped humankind throughout the centuries But what is it that drives people to possess objects that have no conceivable use To Have and To Hold is a captivating tour of collectors and their treasures from medieval times to the present from a cabinet containing unicorn horns and a Tsar s collection of teeth to the macabre art of embalmer Dr Frederick Ruysch the fabled castle of William Randolph Hearst and the truly preoccupied men who stockpile food wrappers and plastic cups An engrossing story of the collector as bridegroom deliriously obsessively happy wed to his possessions till death do us part Wry history Blom s formidable research is an example of the collector s art in itself The New York Times Book Review An admirable attempt to chart the history of an obsession Publishers Weekly An impressive wide ranging book

Christopher Tayler Sunday Telegraph Blom's literary cabinet is full of pungent biographies Times Literary Supplement Provocative stimulating and entertaining Huge questions are thrown up on every page of the book but it is also full of jokes unusual and very welcome in a work of such impressive scholarship and elegance of style a sparkling discursive and eclectic book Independent on Sunday Throughout these well documented stories Blom probes the heart and soul of collecting's appeal An intellectual journey worth taking Booklist

AUTHOR'S INTRODUCTION I'm convinced that the Gospel enters our experience with the most sharpness and clarity at the points of the pain and passion of our life encounters As a comfortable middle class straight white male American Christian I've had virtually everything to learn from the people to whom I've been sent Experiences in the Philippines and Pacific Islands those while working with the World Hunger Emphasis of The United Methodist Church and while assigned to ecumenical organizations have had profound impact upon my faith and my approach to Bible study and worship preparation Serving as pastor of congregations that openly welcomed gay and lesbian persons into a full participation have extended this experience I'm also convinced that the Gospel most powerfully enters the experience of those to whom we've been sent when it speaks practical hope to vulnerabilities and pain At their best and as they were intended to be ministries of service are a vital integral part of the task of evangelization which not only involves preaching Good News but BEING Good News Preaching and reflecting are meaningless without serious engagement with real life The simplest of traditional cultures to which I was introduced have helped me in my spiritual journey As a Filipino anthropologist friend said after spending some weeks with the so called Lost Tribe the Tasaday in South Cotabato We'll not realize how much we have to learn from them until we admit to what we ourselves have lost My friends in traditional indigenous cultures have made me more sensitive to deeper meanings in stories and parables Perhaps they're more aware than we so called educated folk that this is how we transmit our culture and values It's in the stories where we find the greatest richness of the Bible in both the old and New Testaments Jesus constantly taught through story parable and metaphor Taking a shallow literal approach to these causes us to miss the many layers of meanings and themes which the writers intended to be addressed While stories may not prove something they illustrate something and they carry their own conviction It s up to us to incorporate them into our insight and understanding Hearing the stories of others has put me in closer touch with my own May mine do the same for you
