Fostering Girl Child Education in Malawi

Cecilia Mzumara,2019-03-21 This book outlines the contribution of the Missionary Sisters of the Immaculate Conception MIC Sisters towards girl child education in Malawi with particular focus on the establishment growth and development of Marymount Girls Secondary School in Mzuzu from 1963 to 2010 The appraisal by former students of Marymount reveals the courage of the pioneering Sisters towards the empowerment of fellow women in places where they were sent to evangelize in spite of numerous challenges that they encountered in the process The history of Marymount shows that education of the girl child provides a viable means to development and improvement of life at family nation and world level Pathways to Prosperity in Rural Malawi Andrew Dabalen,Alejandro de la Fuente,Aparajita Goyal,Wendy Karamba,Tomomi Tanaka,2017-07-06 By most accounts rural Malawi has lacked dynamism in the past decade Growth has been mostly volatile in large part due to unstable macroeconomic fundamentals evidenced by high inflation fiscal deficits and interest rates When rapid economic growth has materialized the gains have not always reached the poorest Poverty remains high and the rural poor face significant challenges in consistently securing enough food Several factors contribute to stubbornly high rural poverty They include a low productivity and non diversified agriculture macroeconomic and recurrent climatic shocks limited non farm opportunities and low returns to such activities especially for the poor and poor performance from some of the prominent safety net programs The Report proposes complementary policy actions that offer a possible path for a more dynamic and prosperous rural economy The key pillars of this comprise macroeconomic stability increased productivity in agriculture faster urbanization better functioning safety nets and more inclusive financial markets Some recommendations call for a reorientation of existing programs such as the Malawi Farm Input Subsidy Program FISP and the Malawi Social Action Fund Public Works Program MASAF PWP Others identify promising new areas of intervention such as the introduction of digital IDs and biometric technologies to enhance the reach of mobile banking and deepen financial inclusion Finally and importantly the report recommends the scaling up of investments on girls secondary education to curb early child marriage and early child bearing among adolescents This will empower women at home and work and bend the trajectory of fertility rates in rural areas in order to boost human development and reduce poverty Knowledge for a Sustainable World Tor Halvorsen,Hilde Ibsen,2015-12-07 The search for answers to the issue of global sustainability has become increasingly urgent In the context of higher education many universities and academics are seeking new insights that can shift our dependence on ways of living that rely on the exploitation of so many and the degradation of so much of our planet This is the vision that drives SANORD and many of the researchers and institutions within its network Although much of the research is on a relatively small scale the vision is steadily gaining momentum forging dynamic collaborations and pathways to new knowledge The contributors to this book cover a variety of subject areas and offer fresh insights about chronically under researched parts of the world Others document and critically reflect on innovative approaches to cross continental teaching and research collaborations This book will be of interest to anyone involved in the transformation of higher education or the practicalities of cross continental and cross disciplinary academic collaboration The Southern African Nordic Centre SANORD is a network of higher education institutions from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway Sweden Botswana Namibia Malawi South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe Universities in the southern African and Nordic regions that are not yet members are encouraged to join Capacity Building in Educational Research in Southern Africa Charles M. Nherera,Pamela Machakanja,P. W. Mamimine,1999 The Luck Charm Tito Banda,2018-03-07 Tomasi Manda an intelligent boy whose rational mind rejects belief in witchcraft does something that causes his mother and elder brother to fear that he might be bewitched They decide to put protective medicine into his blood But their problem is how to get Tomasi to accept the medicine having once before failed to convince him to have such protection However when Tomasi passes his primary school examinations and is selected for a boarding secondary school away from home the two approach him with the medicine disguised as a charm something that would bring him good luck from the strangers among whom he will now be living Tomasi initially rejects the offer but when to his surprise he sees that this causes his mother great pain he lets her insert into his blood the totally useless powder Then certain things begin to happen to Tomasi which unable to explain them otherwise he can't help thinking are being caused by the potion his mother has put in his blood Eventually he becomes convinced that he now has a potent luck charm in his body and reaches the frightening conclusion that from now on his life will be run by this charm What is he to do
