systems design International Ocean Systems ,2008 Driving Quality in Informatics: Fulfilling the Promise Alex Mu-Hsing Kuo,Omid Shabestari,2015-02-15 Although the data in healthcare comes from and relates to patients it has generally been the clinician and not the patient who has been seen as the end user of health information or health information technology This seems set to change though as the evolution of new online tools and mobile applications has led to the growth of a grass roots effort from patients to change their role and involvement in their own health management This book presents papers from the Information Technology and Communications in Health conference ITCH 2015 held in Victoria Canada in February 2015 The theme of this conference is patient centered care and not only were contributors asked to consider the role and voice of the patient but patients themselves were invited to contribute papers describing their experiences in healthcare and their use of their own data The papers included here reflect not only informatics innovations in the field but also explore how to involve patients in the design process implementation and long term use of health information systems and will be of interest to researchers health practitioners and patients alike China as a Twenty-First Century Naval Power Michael A McDevitt,2020-10-15 Xi Jinping has made his ambitions for the People s Liberation Army PLA perfectly clear there is no mystery what he wants first that China should become a great maritime power and secondly that the PLA become a world class armed force by 2050 He wants this latter objective to be largely completed by 2035 China as a Twenty First Century Naval Power focuses on China s navy and how it is being transformed to satisfy the world class goal Beginning with an exploration of why China is seeking to become such a major maritime power author Michael McDevitt first explores the strategic rationale behind Xi s two objectives China s reliance on foreign trade and overseas interests such as China s Belt and Road strategy In turn this has created concerns within the senior levels of China s military about the vulnerability of its overseas interests and maritime life lines is a major theme McDevitt dubs this China s sea lane anxiety and traces how this has required the PLA Navy to evolve from a near seas focused navy to one that has global reach a blue water navy He details how quickly this transformation has taken place thanks to a patient step by step approach and abundant funding The more than 10 years of anti piracy patrols in the far reaches of the Indian Ocean has acted as a learning curve accelerator to blue water status McDevitt then explores the PLA Navy s role in the South China Sea and the Indian Ocean He provides a detailed assessment of what the PLAN will be expected to do if Beijing chooses to attack Taiwan potentially triggering combat with America s first responders in East Asia especially the U S Seventh Fleet and U S Fifth Air Force He conducts a close exploration of how the PLA Navy fits into China s campaign plan aimed at keeping reinforcing U S forces at arm s length what the Pentagon calls anti access and area denial A2 AD if war has broken out over Taiwan or because of attacks on U S allies and friends that live in the shadow of China McDevitt does not know how Xi defines world class but the evidence from the past 15 years of building a blue water force has already made the PLA Navy the second largest globally capable navy in the world This book concludes with a forecast of what Xi s vision of a world class navy

might look like in the next fifteen years when the 2035 deadline is reached Civil Courts and the European Polity Chantal Mak, Betül Kas, 2023-07-13 The chapters collected in this book explore the place and role of judge made private law in an emerging European polity Examining case law from the perspective of different theories and viewpoints scholars and judges assess and reflect on the role of judges in civil cases for polity building in Europe The chapters thus present a kaleidoscopic view on the dynamics of private law adjudication against a European backdrop The book aims to add a private legal perspective to existing discourses in European constitutional law on Europe s political constellation It aspires to enrich two debates the first on the influence of fundamental rights in private legal relations and the second on the constitutional dimension of European private law The contributions are placed within a framework of five sub categories or dimensions of judge made European private law politics of European private law adjudication rights remedies representation and reflections of judges on specific cases Archaeological Explorations in Syria 2000-2011 Jeanine Abdul Massih, Shinichi Nishiyama, Hanan Charaf, Ahmad Deb, 2018-07-16 Syria has been a major crossroads of civilizations in the ancient Near East since the dawn of human kind This volume brings together scholars involved in archaeological activities in Syria and focusses on the scientific aspects of each explored site allowing researchers to examine in detail each heritage site its characteristics and identity Pulmonary Health and Disorders Mieczyslaw Pokorski, 2019-05-29 This book presents original articles that report on new approaches and developments involving pulmonary disorders Pulmonary health attracts public concern as lungs are the first line of defense of the organism against various contagions and are directly influenced by all too often unhealthy constituents of ambient air which make them vulnerable to diseases The articles deal with the pathogenic background and most relevant practical aspects of the widespread pulmonary disorders Topics include the mechanisms and treatment options of sleep apnea syndrome occupational exposure to carbon dioxide and the research on prognostic factors in lung cancer Another theme tackles quality of life in chronic pathologies and the psychosocial factors often underestimated having influence on lung function already in adolescence and thus liable to shape adult pulmonary morbidity Reports on the course of recent influenza outbreaks and a rather dismal state of anti influenza measures top off the content The volume is addressed to clinicians and researchers pulmonary doctors and other professionals engaged in patient care and therapy

Assessment of Maritime Piracy in East Africa Vincent C. Figliomeni, 2017-04-26 The rationale for writing this book is a desire to highlight the utility of combining the efforts of criminologists security practitioners and policy makers in confronting crime problems such as maritime piracy The study examines maritime piracy incident trends over the past few years and presents an explanation for the significant reduction of incidents in East Africa and offers a new approach in constructing a crime reducing framework applicable to piracy as well as other crime problems The intent is to add relevance to the pursuit of social science research crime data collection and analysis using criminological theories frameworks and planning techniques for developing crime interdiction strategies that are useful to security practitioners and policy makers

Emphasis is on obtaining readily available data using recognized social science methods to analyze the maritime piracy crime phenomenon for planning and developing the strategies and actions that produce desired outcomes in support of crime reduction. This approach involves identifying appropriate tasks or actions to be taken to achieve the desired effects for each objective and subobjective. It includes an evaluation process of the most salient variables in order to produce assessments that will focus on measuring those actions that have the greatest impacts for generating the most favorable conditions in the environment desired effects that are conducive to achieving supporting subobjectives and overall objective i.e. maritime piracy reduction. This approach creates a framework using selected crime theory elements for examining quantitative and qualitative data for planning counterpiracy actions through a dynamic planning and assessment process.
