Dictionary of the Ismailis Farhad Daftary, 2011-12-30 The Ismaili Muslims who belong to the Shia branch of Islam live in over 25 different countries around the world mainly in Asia Africa and the Middle East Their history has typically been linked to the history of the various countries in which they live but the worldwide community is united under Prince Karim Aga Khan the spiritual leader and 49th Imam of the Ismaili Muslims Few fields of Islamic studies have witnessed as drastic a change as

Ismaili studies due in part to the recent discovery of numerous historical texts and author Farhad Daftary makes extensive use of these new sources in the Historical Dictionary of the Ismailis This comprehensive new reference work is the first of its kind on the Ismailis and presents a summary of the findings of modern scholarship on the Ismaili Shia Muslims and different facets of their heritage The dictionary covers all phases of Ismaili history as well as the main doctrines of the community It includes an introductory chapter which provides a broad historical survey of the Ismailis followed by alphabetical entries on all major aspects of the community such as key figures institutions traditions and doctrines It also contains a chronology genealogical tables a glossary and a substantial bibliography This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Ismailis Indian Secularism Shabnum Tejani,2021-01-05 Many of the central issues in modern Indian politics have long been understood in terms of an opposition between ideologies of secularism and communalism Observers have argued that recent Hindu nationalism is the symptom of a crisis of Indian secularism and have blamed this on a resurgence of religion or communalism Shabnum Tejani unpacks prevailing assumptions about the meaning of secularism in contemporary politics focusing on India but with many points of comparison elsewhere in the world She questions the simple dichotomy between secularism and communalism that has been used in scholarly study and political discourse Tracing the social political and intellectual genealogies of the concepts of secularism and communalism from the late nineteenth century until the ratification of the Indian constitution in 1950 she shows how secularism came to be bound up with ideas about nationalism and national identity Islam in the Digital Age Gary R. Bunt,2003-07-20 The Internet is an increasingly important source of information for many people in the Muslim world Many Muslims in majority and minority contexts rely on the Internet as a primary source of news information and communication about Islam As a result a new media culture is emerging which is having a significant impact on areas of global Muslim consciousness Post September 11th this phenomenon has grown more rapidly than ever Gary R Bunt provides a fascinating account of the issues at stake identifying two radical new concepts Firstly the emergence of e jihad Electronic Jihad originating from diverse Muslim perspectives this is described in its many forms relating to the different definitions of jihad including on line activism ranging from promoting militaristic activities to hacking to co ordinating peaceful protests and Muslim expression post 9 11 Secondly he discusses religious authority on the Internet including the concept of on line fatwas and their influence in diverse settings and the complexities of conflicting notions of religious authority UbiComp 2006: Ubiquitous Computing Paul Dourish,Adrian Friday,2006-09-14 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 8th International Conference on Ubiquitous Computing UbiComp 2006 The book presents 30 revised full papers carefully reviewed and selected from 232 submissions The papers address all current issues in the area of ubiquitous pervasive and handheld computing systems and their applications Topics include improving natural interaction constructing ubicomp systems embedding computation understanding ubicomp and its consequences and deploying ubicomp technologies Can Islam Be French? John R.

Bowen,2011-11-06 Bowen asks not the usual question how well are Muslims integrating in France but rather how do French Muslims think about Islam In particular Bowen examines how French Muslims are fashioning new Islamic institutions and developing new ways of reasoning and teaching He looks at some of the quite distinct ways in which mosques have connected with broader social and political forces how Islamic educational entrepreneurs have fashioned niches for new forms of schooling and how major Islamic public actors have set out a specifically French approach to religious norms from publisher description Jesus and the Incarnation David Emmanuel Singh,2011 Jesus and the Incarnation Reflections of Christians from Islamic Contexts In the dialogues of Christians with Muslims nothing is more fundamental than the Cross the Incarnation and the Resurrection of Jesus An open and honest conversation on these is a necessity as Christians all over the world meet with Muslims on a daily basis Building on the volume on the Cross published in 2009 this book contains voices of Christians living in various Islamic contexts and reflecting on the Incarnation of Jesus The aim of these reflections is constructive and the hope is that the papers weaved around the notion of the Word will not only promote dialogue among Christians on the roles of the Person and the Book but also create a positive environment for their conversations with Muslim neighbors Sociology and Anthropology: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide Oxford University
