From Multiculturalism to Democratic Discrimination Alberto Spektorowski, Daphna Elfersy, 2020-12-10 The effect of Islam on Western Europe has been profound Spektorowski and Elfersy argue that it has transformed European democratic values by inspiring an ultra liberalism that now faces an ultra conservative backlash Questions of what to do about Muslim immigration how to deal with burqas how to deal with gender politics have all been influenced by western democracies grappling with ideas of inclusion and most recently exclusion This book examines those forces and ultimately sees not an unbridgeable gap but a future in which Islam and European democracies are compatible rich and evolving Multiculturalism Michael Murphy, 2013-03-01 What is multiculturalism and what are the different theories used to justify it Are multicultural policies a threat to liberty and equality Can liberal democracies accommodate minority groups without sacrificing peace and stability In this clear introduction to the subject Michael Murphy explores these questions and critically assesses multiculturalism from the standpoint of political philosophy and political practice The book explores the origins and contemporary usage of the concept of multiculturalism in the context of debates about citizenship egalitarian justice and conflicts between individual and collective rights The ideas of some of the most influential champions and critics of multiculturalism including Will Kymlicka Chandran Kukathas Susan Okin and Brian Barry are also clearly explained and evaluated Key themes include the tension between multiculturalism and gender equality cultural relativism and the limits of liberal toleration and the impact of multicultural policies on social cohesion ethnic conflict Murphy also surveys the legal practices and policies enacted to accommodate multiculturalism drawing on examples from the Americas Australasia Europe Asia and the Middle East Multiculturalism A Critical Introduction is an ideal starting point for anyone coming to the topic for the first time as well as those already familiar with some of the key issues Minority Issues in Europe: New Ideas and Approaches Tove H. Malloy, Caitlin Boulter, 2019-03-18 As the political landscape of Europe transforms so too does the field of minority issues New areas of focus encompass topics as varied as populism and media representation anthropological insights and intersectional feminist considerations education in human rights and participatory mechanisms and the changing categories and roles of minority communities as important actors in a variety of forums Volume 2 of Minority Issues in Europe reflects a growing range of disciplinary approaches to the field and a fresh outlook on the issues facing Europe's diverse communities Bringing together research from experienced experts and young researchers this book aims to equip students with critical and considered insights to some of the most pressing questions in minority studies today The Oxford Handbook of Gender and Politics Georgina Waylen, 2013-04-04 The Oxford Handbook of Gender and Politics brings to political science an accessible and comprehensive overview of the key contributions of gender scholars to the study of politics and it shows how these contributions produce a richer understanding of politics and societies

The Crises of Multiculturalism Alana Lentin, Gavan Titley, 2011-08-12 Across the West something called multiculturalism is in crisis. Regarded as the failed experiment of liberal elites, commentators and politicians compete to denounce its corrosive legacies: parallel communities threatening social cohesion, enemies within cultivated by irresponsible cultural relativism, mediaeval practices subverting national ways of life and universal values. This important new book challenges this familiar narrative of the rise and fall of multiculturalism by challenging the existence of a coherent era of multiculturalism in the first place. The authors argue that what we are witnessing is not so much a rejection of multiculturalism as a projection of neoliberal anxieties onto the social realities of lived multiculturalism. Nested in an established post-racial consensus, new forms of racism draw powerfully on liberalism and questions of values and unsettle received ideas about racism and the far right in Europe. In combining theory with a reading of recent controversies concerning headscarves, cartoons, minarets and burkas, Lentin and Titley trace a transnational crisis that travels and is made to travel and where rejecting multiculturalism is central to laundering increasingly acceptable forms of racism.

Trust, Democracy, and Multicultural Challenges Patti Tamara Lenard, 2012 Banning minarets by referendum in Switzerland, publicly burning Korans in the United States, prohibiting kirpans in public spaces in Canada: these are all examples of the rising backlash against diversity that is spreading across multicultural societies. Trust has always been precarious and never more so than as a result of increased immigration. The number of religions, races, ethnicities and cultures living together in democratic communities and governed by shared political institutions is rising. The failure to construct public policy to cope with this diversity to ensure that trust can withstand the pressure that diversity can pose is a failure of democracy. The threat to trust originates in the perception that the values and norms that should underpin a public culture are no longer truly shared. Therefore, societies must focus on building trust through a revitalized public culture. In Trust, Democracy and Multicultural Challenges, Patti Tamara Lenard plots a course for this revitalization. She argues that trust is at the center of effective democratic politics; that increasing ethnocultural diversity as a result of immigration may generate distrust; and therefore that democratic communities must work to generate the conditions under which trust between newcomers and native citizens can be built so that the quality of democracy is sustained.

Theological and Hermeneutical Explorations from Australia Jione Havea, 2020-11-12 This book presents theological, cultural, ecclesial and hermeneutical explorations from a specific context: Australia. It invites reimagining of theology and hermeneutics against the horizons of indigeneity and sovereignty, contingencies of context, feminist theologies, multiculturalism and intercultural theologies, sexual abuse and ecclesial cover-ups, suicide and worship traditions and betrayal, art and popular cultures, climate effects and climate in justice, disability theories, Islamic insights, migration and the images of home and heaps of contextual matters in between. The chapters are organized into three sections: 1. Roots presents some of the starting points for contextual thinking in Australia and beyond; 2. Wounds attends to the demands of bodies on the line upon theological biblical and ecclesial engagements and 3 Shifts pokes at thinkers and critics The Sharia Inquiry, Religious Practice and Muslim Family Law in Britain Samia Bano, 2023-02-01 In February 2018 the Independent Review on Sharia Law in England and Wales was published headed by Professor Mona Siddiqui The review focused on whether sharia law is being misused or applied in a way that is incompatible with the domestic law in England and Wales and in particular whether there were discriminatory practices against women who use sharia councils It came about after years of concerns raised by academics lawyers and women s activists This timely collection of essays from experts scholars and legal practitioners provides a critique and evaluation of the Inquiry findings as a starting point for analysis and debate on current British Muslim family law practices in the matters of marriage and divorce At the heart of the collection lie key questions of state action and legal reform of religious practices that may operate outside the sphere of law and legal relations but also in conjunction with state law mechanisms and processes This cutting edge book is a must read for those with an interest in Islamic law family law sociology of religion human rights multiculturalism politics anthropology of law and gender studies

A Multicultural Entrapment Michael Karayanni, 2020-12-17 A critical legal study of religion and state relations in Israel focusing on the religiously entrapped Palestinian Arab individuals The Democratic Predicament Jyotirmaya Tripathy, Sudarsan Padmanabhan, 2014-03-14 Both India and Europe have been undergoing a difficult process of negotiating cultural religious and ethnic diversity within their democratic frameworks In fact recent incidents of xenophobic backlash against multiculturalism and minority communities in Europe as well as myriad movements for constitutional recognition of castes tribes and languages and the emergence of Islamophobic terror in India question the conventional idea of democracy as the idyllic preserver of diversity This volume contests the simplistic connection between democracy and diversity by proposing that democracy in fact produces sediments and reinforces cultural heterogeneity It argues that in democratic polities disparate cultural practices are often converted into identity categories with disturbing implications for national identity constitutionalism political governance and citizenship While mobilizations on the plank of cultural differences are typically viewed as being born in undemocratic spaces with little toleration for diversity they also find fertile soil in democracy insofar as democracy celebrates diversity and allows cultural dissent to thrive Such dissent while essential for democracy has difficult consequences Examining the fundamental conflict between constructions of particular cultural identities and mandates of a unifying democratic ethos the book brings forth the complexities underlying the politics of identity recognition and national integration In making a radical intervention in the discourse this volume offers a critique of existing paradigms of multiculturalism It will interest scholars and students of political science sociology and postcolonial and comparative studies Muslim Identity Politics Khadijah Elshayyal, 2018-02-28 The surge in divisive and far right politics and growing Islamophobia in Britain pose new challenges for Muslim advocacy organisations British Muslim activism has taken centre stage in the public sphere as a result Yet for over fifty years Muslim advocacy groups have worked to preserve religious identity lobby the state and provide concerted responses to the political establishment This is the first book to chart critically the national and global factors influencing the political mobilisation of British Muslim activists as Muslims Khadijah Elshayyal traces the changes of thought direction and method within Muslim identity politics after 1960 noting key organisations and turning points such as the Rushdie Affair the 9 11 attacks the 7 7 bombings and the current conflict in Syria The book argues that the Rushdie Affair prompted new debate around the subject of freedom of expression which has continued to be a point of contention ever since Providing a history of the interaction between Muslim advocacy groups and the state and the impact of state policy on Muslim communities Muslims Identity Politics shows that that Muslim citizens continue to experience an equality gap and recommends where transformation and progress can be made Based on primary sources and in depth interviews this book is a vital resource for government officials policy makers and researchers interested in multiculturalism Islamophobia and security issues in Britain

The Crisis of Multiculturalism in Latin America David Lehmann, 2016-09-19 This book presents a challenging view of the adoption and co option of multiculturalism in Latin America from six scholars with extensive experience of grassroots movements and intellectual debates It raises serious questions of theory method and interpretation for both social scientists and policymakers on the basis of cases in Mexico Brazil Argentina Bolivia and Ecuador Multicultural policies have enabled people to recover the land of their ancestors administer justice in accordance with their traditions provide recognition as full citizens of the nation and promote affirmative action to enable them to take the place in society which is theirs by right The message of this book is that while the multicultural response has done much to raise the symbolic recognition of indigenous and Afro descendant peoples nationally and internationally its application calls for a profound reappraisal in spheres such as land gender institutional design and equal opportunities Written by scholars with long term and in depth engagement in Latin America the chapters show that multicultural theories and policies which assume racial and cultural boundaries to be clear cut overlook the pervasive reality of racial and cultural mixture and place excessive confidence in identity politics

Islam and the Liberal State Stephen H. Jones, 2020-11-26 National identity and liberal democracy are recurrent themes in debates about Muslim minorities in the West Britain is no exception with politicians responding to claims about Muslims lack of integration by mandating the promotion of fundamental British values including democracy and individual liberty This book engages with both these themes addressing the lack of understanding about the character of British Islam and its relationship to the liberal state It charts a gradual but decisive shift in British institutions concerned with Islamic education Islamic law and Muslim representation since Muslims settled in the UK in large numbers in the 1950s Based on empirical research including interviews undertaken over a ten year period with Muslims and analysis of public events organized by Islamic institutions Stephen Jones challenges claims about the isolation of British Islamic organizations and shows that they have decisively shaped themselves around British public and institutional norms He argues that this amounts to the building of a distinctive

British Islam Using this narrative the book makes the case for a variety of liberalism that is open to the expression of religious arguments in public and to associations between religious groups and the state It also offers a powerful challenge to claims about the insularity of British Islamic institutions by showing how the national orientation of Islam called for by British policymakers is in fact already happening

Reasonable Accommodation Lori G. Beaman, 2012-09-15 Often when a religious minority challenges mainstream customs the phrase reasonable accommodation is at the centre of the ensuing debate But what exactly is reasonable accommodation Does it achieve its goal of integrating the rights of religious minorities with those of mainstream society or does it emphasize inequality Reasonable Accommodation features eight essays that seek to define the meaning of reasonable accommodation within Canada and abroad These probing explorations touch on current hot button topics such as women s right to wear the niqab in public religious diversity in prisons and accommodating sexual diversity Woven throughout are questions and commentary about whether there really is a religious majority in Canada how the idea of shared values obscures debate and how tolerating religious differences simply isn t enough to guarantee equality Reasonable Accommodation provides a much needed critical assessment of this phrase and theorizes religious diversity and freedom of religion beyond the meaning of tolerance as it sometimes implies

Dao Companion to the Analects Amy Olberding, 2013-10-24 This volume surveys the major philosophical concepts arguments and commitments of the Confucian classic the Analects In thematically organized chapters leading scholars provide a detailed scholarly introduction to the text and the signal ideas ascribed to its protagonist Confucius The volume opens with chapters that reflect the latest scholarship on the disputed origins of the text and an overview of the broad commentarial tradition it generated These are followed by chapters that individually explore key areas of the text s philosophical landscape articulating both the sense of concepts such as ren li and xiao as well as their place in the wider space of the text A final section addresses prominent interpretive challenges and scholarly disputes in reading the Analects evaluating for example the alignment between the Analects and contemporary moral theory and the contested nature of its religious sensibility Dao Companion to the Analects offers a comprehensive and complete survey of the text s philosophical idiom and themes as well as its history and some of the liveliest current debates surrounding it This book is an ideal resource for both researchers and advanced students interested in gaining greater insight into one of the earliest and most influential Confucian classics

The Routledge Companion to Feminist Philosophy Ann Garry, Serene J. Khader, Alison Stone, 2017-09-19 The Routledge Companion to Feminist Philosophy is an outstanding guide and reference source to the key topics subjects thinkers and debates in feminist philosophy Fifty six chapters written by an international team of contributors specifically for the Companion are organized into five sections 1 Engaging the Past 2 Mind Body and World 3 Knowledge Language and Science 4 Intersections 5 Ethics Politics and Aesthetics The volume provides a mutually enriching representation of the several philosophical traditions that contribute to feminist philosophy It also foregrounds issues of global concern and scope shows how feminist theory meshes with rich theoretical approaches that start from transgender identities race and ethnicity sexuality disabilities and other axes of identity and oppression and highlights the interdisciplinarity of feminist philosophy and the ways that it both critiques and contributes to the whole range of subfields within philosophy

The Material of World History Tina Mai Chen, David S. Churchill, 2015-03-27 This volume considers the confluence of World History and historical materialism with the following guiding question in mind given developments in the field of historical materialism concerned with the intersection of race gender labour and class why is it that within the field of World History historical materialism has been marginalized precisely as World History orients toward transnational socio cultural phenomenon micro studies or global histories of networks Answering this question requires thinking in an inter related manner about both the development of World History as a discipline and the place of economic determinism in historical materialism This book takes the position that historical materialism as applied to the field of World History needs to be more open to the methodological diversity of the materialist tradition and to refuse narrowly deterministic frameworks that have led to marginalization of materialist cultural analysis in studies of global capitalism At the same time World History needs to be more self critical of the methodological diversity it has welcomed through a largely inclusionary framework that allows the material to be considered separately from cultural social and intellectual dimensions of global processes

Debating Multiculturalism in the Nordic Welfare States P. Kivisto, Ö. Wahlbeck, 2013-08-30 This collection addresses the ways that Nordic countries have approached the issue of bringing ethnic minorities into the societal mainstream With multicultural incorporation as an option the authors explore the potential impact of the politics of identity in societies with social democratic welfare states committed to redistributive politics

Educational Inequalities Kalwant Bhopal, Uvanney Maylor, 2013-11-07 While there is considerable literature on social inequality and education there is little recent work which explores notions of difference and diversity in relation to race class and gender This edited text aims to bring together researchers in the field of education located across many international contexts such as the UK Australia USA New Zealand and Europe Contributors investigate the ways in which dominant perspectives on difference intersectionality and institutional structures underpin and reinforce educational inequality in schools and higher education They emphasize the importance of international perspectives and innovative methodological approaches to examining these areas and seek to locate the dimensions of difference within recent theoretical discourses with an emphasis on race class and gender as key categories of analysis
