Alles Dienstich Ende Nut Den Schilders, Const-beminders Ende Dichters ... Karel Van Mander,1618 A Sham Princess Eglanton Thorne, COULD it be that the Princess was going to die Bert held his breath as the thought smote him He could almost hear the beating of his heart as he stood motionless arrested by the painful idea and gazed with anxious eyes on his sleeping sister Prin had been ill for more than a week so ill that the parish doctor had come every day to see her but Bert had never thought of death before The idea having presented itself was not easily to be dismissed He looked at Prin s white sunken face at the dark veins on her forehead at the thin white hands that were folded on her bosom he listened to her quick difficult breathing and his fear deepened How could he bear it if Prin died It was a small mean room in which the brother and sister lived The dirty sodden paper hung in strips from the wall the flooring was rotten with holes gaping here and there the place reeked of damp and worse the window dim with dirt looked on to a foul area it was hardly a room in which any patient was likely to make a good recovery The bed on which the sick girl lay looked very comfortless Yet some one had arranged the grimy pillows in the best way possible so that she lay at ease and tended her so carefully that her white skin and fair hair had a purity which contrasted strangely with her dingy surroundings This was their neighbour Mrs Kay a woman who lived on the floor above a native of Scotland but who retained few traces of her Scotch upbringing save a faint and somewhat intermittent belief in the virtues of cleanliness Bert had been wont to speak of her as the cross old woman for she had a sharp tongue and little patience with the ways of children but she had not been cross at all since Prin fell ill a fact which now struck Bert as ominous Bert knew what was the matter with his sister She had had measles and now as he had heard the doctor say they were succeeded by bronchitis Bert himself had had measles in fact he had conveyed the infection to the Princess but his ailment had been over in a couple of days Clearly this brownkitus as he called it was a much more serious thing Prin had been fretful and restless all day but now at last she slept As he watched her deep slumber Bert took comfort from it If she sleep she shall do well he said to himself not aware that he was making a quotation though the words were a fleeting reminiscence of a Scripture lesson Suddenly as he thought thus there arose an uproar in the street above It was never a quiet street by day or night Fights and rows were of frequent occurrence so that Bert was not surprised though he was much annoyed when the sound of angry voices in hot altercation broke on his ear If Prin were suddenly roused and affrighted she would lose all the good that this sleep was doing her Bert was up the area steps in a moment to see what he could do Some lads considerably bigger than himself were causing the disturbance The ringleader of the mischief had taken up his position with his back against the railings of the area and was inviting the others to come on With more pluck than discretion Bert flew at him Get out of this he cried shoving against him with all his might you don t stand here and make a row Get out I say My sister s below very ill and I won t have her woke by you you big hulking brutes Queechy Elizabeth Wetherell,1854
