One Amazing Thing:

One Amazing Thing Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni, 2010-04-12 A group of nine are trapped in the visa office at an Indian Consulate after a massive earthquake in an American city Two visa officers on the verge of an adulterous affair Jiang a Chinese Indian woman in her last years her gifted teenage granddaughter Lily an ex soldier haunted by guilt Uma an Indian American girl bewildered by her parents decision to return to Kolkata after twenty years Tariq a young Muslim man angry with the new America and an enraged and bitter elderly white couple As they wait to be rescued or to die they begin to tell each other stories each recalling one amazing thing in their life sharing things they have never spoken of before Their tales are tragic and life affirming revealing what it means to be human and the incredible power of storytelling Always by My Side Lianne Hill, 2021-04-08 Always by My Side is a feel good story of a young couple Lianne and Paul and their journey through life with their dog Paisley After getting their puppy as a wedding gift to each other they experience the challenges of following career opportunities moving to new homes raising their three young children and living the busy life of a dynamic family Always by My Side follows the natural life of a dog in the whirlwind of family life In vivid and personable prose Lianne highlights the joys successes and emotions that are involved in the everyday life of her family while demonstrating the beautiful bond between dogs and their human friends Told in a similar style to Marley and Me this endearing dog tale will delight animal lovers of all ages and stages Indian Diaspora Literature: A Critical Evaluation Dipak Giri, 2024-02-05 In this period of globalization many individuals are trying to upgrade the life and for that most of them are now migrating to other lands In the process of getting settle in new land they encounter many problems The issue of migration and immigration brings forward the question of exile identity assimilation memory nostalgia hopelessness uprootedness hybridity and so on Indian writers have beautifully picked up experiences of such people and penned them down Such writing is called Diaspora Literature wherein immigrant experiences have been shared through literature This type of literature includes expatriate stories refugee chronicles and immigrant narratives The present anthology Indian Diaspora Literature A Critical Evaluation covers as many as twenty articles where the authors have discussed innumerable issues and challenges as confronted by Indian immigrants due to their distance and dislocation from their familiar homeland to the alien hostland irrespective of what kind of exile they follow forced or voluntary Apart from bringing into surface the migratory problems the anthology also sheds light on the complexities that arise out of such migration Some of the notable Indian writers who have been given room in this book are V S Naipaul Amitav Ghosh Rohinton Mistry Jhumpa Lahiri Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Anita Desai and Kiran Desai to name a few Authors have tried to give their best outputs to reach this anthology to its intended goal Hopefully this book will be helpful to both students and scholars alike Conflicted Territories: Representations Of Ethnic And Political Disputes In World Literature Dr. Neha Soman, Dr. B. Padmanabhan, 2022-05-24 Conflicted Territories Representations of Ethnic and Political Disputes in World Literature is an attempt to contextualise the diversity and complexity of human territories around the globe through their manifestations in literature and popular culture The unrelenting presence of social variables such as indigeneity sovereignty and religion in territorial disputes obfuscates the possibility of conflict resolution due to their sensitive and complex traits This complexity is the kernel of this book in which each chapter explores the implications and dissensions of social variables in stifling global territorial crises Women, Subalterns, and Ecologies in South and Southeast Asian Women's Fiction Chitra Sankaran, 2021-11-01 In recent decades East Asia has gained prominence and has become synonymous with Asia while other Asian regions such as South and Southeast Asia have been subsumed under it The resultant overgeneralization has meant that significant aspects of the global ecological crisis as they affect these two regions have been overlooked Chitra Sankaran refocuses the global lens on these two rapidly developing regions of Asia Combining South Asian and Southeast Asian philosophical views and folk perspectives with mainstream ecocritical and ecofeminist theories she generates a localized critical idiom that qualifies and subverts some established theoretical assumptions This pioneering study introducing a corpus of more than thirty ecofictions by women writers from twelve countries in South and Southeast Asia examines how recent global threats to ecosystems in both nature and culture impact subdominant groups including women This new corpus reveals how women and subalterns engage with various aspects of critical ecologies Using ecofeminist theory augmented by postcolonial and risk theories as the main theoretical framework Sankaran argues that these women writers present unique perspectives that review Asian women's relationships to human and nonhuman worlds Diasporic Consciousness in the select novels of Chitra anarjee Divakaruni Dr. P. Prasanna Kumari, 2018-09-14 The story of the Indian English novel is about the story of changing India There was a time when education was a rare opportunity and speaking English was not considered necessary The stories were already there spread all over the subcontinent in the myths in the folklore and the umpteen languages and cultures that gossiped conversed laughed and cried India has always been a land of stories Critical Perspectives on Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Robin E. Field, Amritjit Singh, Samina Najmi, 2022-02-15 Critical Perspectives on Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Feminism and Diaspora offers insights into Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni's provocative and popular fiction In their engaging and comprehensive introduction editors Amritjit Singh and Robin Field explore how Divakaruni's short stories and novels have been shaped by her own struggles as a new immigrant and by the influences she imbibed from academic mentors and feminist writers of color Twelve critical essays by both aspiring and experienced scholars explore Divakaruni's aesthetic of interconnectivity and wholeness as she links generations races ethnicities and nations in her depictions of the diversity of religious and ethnic affiliations within the Indian diaspora The contributors offer a range of critical perspectives on Divakaruni's growth as a novelist of historical mythic and political motifs The volume includes two extended interviews with Divakaruni offering insights into her personal inspirations and social concerns while also revealing her deep affection for South Asian communities as well as an essay by Divakaruni herself a candid expression of her artistic independence in response to the didactic expectations of her many South Asian readers
