One New People Models For Developing A Multiethnic Church:

One New People Manuel Ortiz, 1996-08-19 Manuel Ortiz urges us not just to put aside our differences but to celebrate and embrace them to use them in a way that draws us closer to each other and closer to God Preaching to Second Generation Korean Americans Matthew D. Kim, 2007 This in depth study on preaching to second generation Korean Americans the first of its kind is based on empirical and ethnographic fieldwork Matthew D Kim conducted surveys and semi structured qualitative interviews with Korean American pastors and second generation young adult respondents in three geographic regions of the United States the Midwest the West Coast and the East Coast His primary conceptual framework employs social psychologists Hazel Markus and Paula Nurius theory of possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermon preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology

Solving the Immigrant Church Crisis Ronald M. Rothenberg, 2016-08 Solving the Immigrant Church Crisis The Biblical Solution of Parallel Ministry Acts 6 1 7 addresses the crisis of the immigrant church in which complex cultural and linguistic factors create a reticence on the part of immigrants to transfer financial and decision making authority to succeeding generations and this results in a culturally irrelevant ministry to those generations an exodus of believers from the church a spiritually immature remnant and an inability to reach the lost The thesis of this book is that parallel ministry based on Acts 6 1 7 is the biblical solution to the crisis in the immigrant church While there are at least two main aspects of this crisis a spiritual relational and an ecclesiastical aspect this book focuses on the ecclesiastical aspect of defining the biblical structure of church government Specifically this book is for immigrant churches primarily in the United States and offers them a biblical and practical solution to the problem plaguing them for over two centuries of how to minister effectively to the succeeding generations

Medium Or Message? Anya Woods, 2004-01-01 What is the role of language in ethnic churches This new and much needed account of the Australian experience examines the issues faced by sixteen congregations together representing different periods of Australia s migration history as well as different languages cultural backgrounds and Christian denominations It brings to light a large range of experiences found in ethnic churches and considers the impact of Protestant Catholic and Orthodox traditions on the role of language Special reference is made to the tensions that can occur due to language shift and cross generational differences in language preference The concept of language religion ideology is developed to describe the nature of the relationship between language and religion which is exhibited by a denomination with far reaching implications for multilingual and multicultural societies

Walk with the People Juan F. Martinez, 2016-10-21 The growth and religious commitment of the Latino community in the U S presents a unique set of challenges for pastors in that community Walk with the People Latino Ministry in the United States identifies and analyzes the contemporary challenges facing Latino churches in the U S and some of the issues they are likely to face in the future Latino pastors and others working in the community need to understand and grapple with these challenges As the Latino community continues to grow and diversify effective church leaders in Latino congregations will need to retool their ministries to address these changes

Yes in Christ Howard A. Snyder, 2011 The promises of God formed the basis of John Wesley s optimism of grace Wesley believed God not only could but in fact would fulfill all his promises to bring salvation to the nations to make new heavens and a new earth to liberate the whole creation from its bondage to decay Rom 8 21 This collection of essays by respected Wesleyan theologian Howard A Snyder reflects the spirit of Wesley s optimism of grace The first half of this collection offers an overview of Wesley s theology and practice particularly with regard to gospel mission and culture Part Two examines the inter dynamic between church renewal and global mission The collection also includes Wesleyan appraisals of Clark Pinnock s theology and the ecclesiology of Karl Barth Howard A Snyder serves as distinguished professor and chair of Wesley Studies at Tyndale Seminary in Toronto Ontario Canada Previously he was professor of history and theology of mission in the E Stanley Jones School of World Mission and Evangelism at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore Kentucky from 1996 to 2006 He has also taught at United Theological Seminary Dayton Ohio and pastored in Chicago and Detroit He has written numerous books including The Problem with Wineskins IVP The Radical Wesley IVP and most recently Populist Saints B T and Ellen Roberts and the Birth of Free Methodism Eerdmans

Journeys of Asian Diaspora Sam George, 2021-10-19 Asians make up the largest and most dispersed people of the world and Christians make up a sizable proportion of this demographic Asian Christians are more likely to emigrate and many have continued to embrace Christian faith at their diasporic places of settlement They are quick to establish distinctively Asian churches all over the world and infuse diversity revival and missionary consciousness into their adopted communities They preserve the ties and cultures of their ancestral homelands while assimilating and adapting into the new setting They have become a recognizable force in the transformation and advancement of Christianity itself at the beginning of the twenty first century The dozen essays in this volume are written by leading scholars of Asian backgrounds situated in various diasporic locations The authors trace the contours of their dispersion and highlight diverse missiological themes including the scattering diaspora and the gathering ekklesia of Asian Christians around the world This volume traces the origins and destinations of major Asian migration and diaspora communities from a variety of perspectives and geographical locations It is pan Asian in scope and multidisciplinary in nature It also provides the latest data and infographics on Asian diasporas worldwide

Urban Ministry Manuel Ortiz, Harvie M. Conn, 2025-06-06 No 3 in the Academy of Parish Clergy Top Ten Books of the Year The city presents serious challenges that cry out for answers poverty racism human exploitation and government corruption How can the church move ahead in the midst of these demands with the gospel of hope Here in one comprehensive volume Harvie Conn and Manuel Ortiz two noted scholars and proven practitioners of urban ministry address the vital work of the church in the city Their dual goal to understand the city and God's work in it Through four great waves of development Conn and Ortiz trace the history of the city around the world Then they tackle the critical issue of a biblical basis for urban mission How does the Bible view the city Are we closer to God in the country than the city Does the Bible have an anti urban bias These questions are given a thorough analysis that unveils God's urban mandate as reflected in both Old and New Testaments From this foundation the authors unpack the multifaceted nature of the city as place as process as center as power and as a place of change and stability They move us beyond fragmented stereotypes to a new way of seeing that is holistic enough for a fully biblical ministry to develop In addition Conn and Ortiz lay out what the social sciences have to offer urban mission including ethnographic and demographic studies and they focus on the particular issues and needs of urban leadership including a plan for developing and mentoring leaders while equipping the laity for ministry in the city This is the essential text for bringing God's kingdom to the city through the people of God

Fireweed Evangelism Elizabeth Geitz, 2004-11-01 Fireweed always the first flower to spring up and bloom in ruins and burned over places is Elizabeth Geitz's metaphor for evangelism that comes from the heart It is the motivation that makes some Christians eager to welcome the stranger and invite people into their churches while others hang back In this prequel to Entertaining Angels Hospitality Programs for the Caring Church Geitz explores this missing ingredient in Christian hospitality reminding us that in a multi faith world where Christians wish to honor the validity of other religious paths we may hesitate to talk about the uniqueness of Jesus Christ Her book helps both individuals and communities to understand what holds them back from evangelism and discover the path that is right for them This book unfolds in three sections In the first we look at the factors that inhibit our evangelism including the awareness that we live in a pluralistic world and do not wish to offend those with other faith commitments Geitz offers both reflection and exercises to help us discover our own motivation for evangelism Part 2 addresses the question of context Where does evangelism take place and for whose benefit To what sort of communities do we invite those to whom we reach out Section 3 focuses on the uniqueness of Christian hospitality and describes the nuts and bolts of newcomer ministry and the programs needed to sustain Christian hospitality in a pluralistic society It includes workshop and group process material

Soulsunami Leonard Sweet, 2009-10-14 Road rage animal rights cyberporn crystal healing doctor assisted suicide everywhere we look the signs all tell us we're living in a post Christian culture Or are we Leonard Sweet cultural historian preacher futurist creatologist and preeminent thinker firmly believes we live today in a pre Christian society fraught with challenges dangers critical choices and above all tremendous potential for the church The outcome will depend on our response to today's flood of religious pluralism that threatens to sweep us away What will we do

Deny the reality of the incoming surge Hunker in the bunker hermetically sealing ourselves in an increasingly out of touch church counterculture Or will we boldly hoist our sails and looking to God for guidance and strength move with confidence and purpose over the waves SoulTsunami is a fascinating even mind numbing look at the implications of our changing world for the church in the 21st century With uncanny wisdom and trademark wit Leonard Sweet explores ten key futuribles precision guesses that fall short of predictions expanding on and relating topics ranging from the reentry of theism and spiritual longing in contemporary society to the impact of modern technology to the global renaissance to models for the church to reach people caught in the cultural maelstrom Here are eye opening perspectives on the church from within and from without from its surrounding society Lively well written and provocative SoulTsunami is a clarion call for Christians to remove their tunnel vision glasses and take a good look at the swelling postmodern flood It also is a voice of encouragement affirming the church in its role as God's lifeboat And it is a passionate prophetic guide pointing the way to reach a world swept out to sea

The Community of the King Howard A. Snyder, 2010-01-28 Howard A. Snyder probes the relationship between the kingdom of God and our daily experience of the church

Globalization and Its Effects on Urban Ministry in the 21st Century: Susan S. Baker, 2009-06-01 When we think about globalization with the eyes and heart of a sovereign mission God we must recognize the vast opportunities before us as God is moving His people around the world bringing the gospel with them in new and different ways Globalization and Its Effects on Urban Ministry in the 21st Century is an attempt to broaden the views of individuals and institutions alike to what God is doing around the world and how He is accomplishing His purposes through globalization The book is organized around the four overarching themes of globalization reconciliation church planting and leadership development

Cities Roger S. Greenway, Timothy M. Monsma, 2000-06-01 As cities continue to expand Christ calls the church to bring the gospel to these centers of population culture and political power

Towards Liturgies that Reconcile Scott Haldeman, 2016-12-05 Towards Liturgies that Reconcile reflects upon Christian worship as it is shaped and mis shaped by human prejudice specifically by racism African Americans and European Americans have lived together for 400 years on the continent of North America but they have done so as slave and master outsider and insider oppressed and oppressor Scott Haldeman traces the development of Protestant worship among whites and blacks showing that the following exist in tension African American and European American Protestant liturgical traditions are both interdependent and distinct and that multicultural communities must both understand and celebrate the uniqueness of various member groups while also accepting the risk and possibility of praying themselves into an integrated body one new culture

Workbook for Interfaith Ambassadors Rev. John-Brian Paprock, 2005

The Heart of Racial Justice Brenda Salter McNeil, Rick Richardson, 2022-01-11 Racial and ethnic hostility is one of the most pervasive problems the church faces What should our response be in a work torn apart by prejudice hatred and fear In this book Brenda Salter McNeil and Rick Richardson provide a model of racial reconciliation social justice and spiritual healing that creates both individual and communal transformation How to Be a World-Class Christian Paul Borthwick,2009-12-01 How To Be A World Class Christian shows the reader how to expand in understanding Scripture increase in global praying and intensify crosscultural outreach beginning at home Biblical Organizational Spirituality, Volume 2 Bruce E.

Winston,2023-09-23 This book expands on the New Testament leadership principles introduced in Volume 1 and draws connections to the contemporary organizational leadership literature By applying these principles to analyze modern organizations and leaders it aims to uncover how they are manifested within an organization and their impact on both the organization and individual employees Through interviews with leaders and coding of the transcripts the chapter authors develop scale development items to measure the concept of organizational spirituality within organizations This volume offers theoretical framing and practical applications for scholars and practitioners in the field of organizational leadership particularly those interested in the Christian perspective Global Mission Rose Dowsett,2011-06-27 Reflections and Case Studies in Contextualization for the Whole Church Global Mission is divided into two sections the first Reflections and Foundations comprises nine essays of a more general nature the second Contextualization at Work contains twenty one essays of a more specific nature most of them case studies from a particular location and people group The thirty three contributors come from five continents and a host of contexts Some are veterans some quite young but every one of them is passionate about God s mission and about building bridges for the gospel in a way that is absolutely faithful to Scripture but also sensitive to specific contexts North and South East and West demonstrate precious unity in Christ in our common calling Contextualization is complex and none of the authors claim to have got everything right But their essays are thoughtful and written out of love for God and love for his world They tell the stories of trial and error of struggles and triumphs as each seeks to present Christ in terms that make sense and can be understood It is following the process quite as much as specific conclusions which make this book valuable and transferable to many other parts of the global church The essays also give us a peep into many different societies and the birthing of faith in the grace of the Holy Spirit Thus we give thanks to God for all that he is wonderfully doing around his world and stimulate our prayers for those who work cross culturally especially in pioneer situations Not all contributors agree on every point especially when it comes to the difficulties of mission in the Muslim world and increasingly amongst Hindus There has been no attempt to standardize different approaches letting a robust conversation develop Each chapter ends with some suggested study questions useful for personal reflection or group or class discussion The book is deliberately accessible to lay people but stimulating to career missionaries and academics

The Elusive Dream Korie L. Edwards,2008-08-27 The Elusive Dream demonstrates through nuanced analysis and in depth study that interracial churches in fact help to perpetuate the very racial inequality they aim to abolish The text raises provocative questions about the ongoing problem of race in the national culture
