Johnson, David M. Luebke, Marjorie Elizabeth Plummer, Jesse Spohnholz, 2017-05-01 Modern religious identities are rooted in collective memories that are constantly made and remade across generations How do these mutations of memory distort our picture of historical change and the ways that historical actors perceive it Can one give voice to those whom history has forgotten The essays collected here examine the formation of religious identities during the Reformation in Germany through case studies of remembering and forgetting instances in which patterns and practices of religious plurality were excised from historical memory By tracing their ramifications through the centuries Archeologies of Confession carefully reconstructs the often surprising histories of plurality that have otherwise been lost or obscured      Catalogue of Printed Books, 1894      British Museum Catalogue of Printed Books, 1895      Great Christian Jurists in the Low Countries Wim Decock, Janwillem Oosterhuis, 2021-10-07 What impact has Christianity had on law and policies in the Lowlands from the eleventh century through the end of the twentieth century Taking the gradual secularization of European legal culture as a framework this volume explores the lives and times of twenty legal scholars and professionals to study the historical impact of the Christian faith on legal and political life in the Low Countries The process whereby Christian belief systems gradually lost their impact on the regulation of secular affairs passed through several stages not in the least the Protestant Reformation which led to the separation of the Low Countries in a Protestant North and a Catholic South in the first place The contributions take up general issues such as the relationship between justice and mercy Christianity and politics as well as more technical topics of state church law criminal law and social policy Ongeloof en revolutie ,1904 Groen van Prinsterers historische benadering van de politiek W.
