Food Marketing to Children and Youth Institute of Medicine, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Food and Nutrition Board, Committee on Food Marketing and the Diets of Children and Youth, 2006-05-11 Creating an environment in which children in the United States grow up healthy should be a high priority for the nation Yet the prevailing pattern of food and beverage marketing to children in America represents at best a missed opportunity and at worst a direct threat to the health prospects of the next generation Children's dietary and related health patterns are shaped by the interplay of many factors their biologic affinities their culture and values their economic status their physical and social environments and their commercial media environments all of which apart from their genetic predispositions have undergone significant transformations during the past three decades Among these environments none have more rapidly assumed central socializing roles among children and youth than the media With the growth in the variety and the penetration of the media have come a parallel growth with their use for marketing including the marketing of food and beverage products What impact has food and beverage marketing had on the dietary patterns and health status of American children The answer to this question has the potential to shape a generation and is the focus of Food Marketing to Children and Youth This book will be of interest to parents federal and state government agencies educators and schools health care professionals industry companies industry trade groups media and those involved in community and consumer advocacy

Prizing Children's Literature Kenneth B. Kidd,Joseph T. Thomas Jr.,2016-11-10 Children s book awards have mushroomed since the early twentieth century and especially since the 1960s when literary prizing became a favored strategy for both commercial promotion and canon making There are over 300 awards for English language titles alone but despite the profound impact of children s book awards scholars have paid relatively little attention to them This book is the first scholarly volume devoted to the analysis of Anglophone children s book awards in historical and cultural context With attention to both political and aesthetic concerns the book offers original and diverse scholarship on prizing practices and their consequences in Australia Canada and especially the United States Contributors offer both case studies of particular awards and analysis of broader trends in literary evaluation and elevation drawing on theoretical work on canonization and cultural capital Sections interrogate the complex and often unconscious ideological work of prizing the ongoing tension between formalist awards and so called identity based awards all the more urgent in light of the We Need Diverse Books campaign the ever morphing forms and parameters of prizing and scholarly practices of prizing Among the many awards discussed are the Pura Belpr Medal the Inky Awards the Canada Governor General Literary Award the Printz Award the Best Animated Feature Oscar the Phoenix Award and the John Newbery Medal giving due attention to prizes for fiction as well as for non fiction poetry and film This volume will interest scholars in literary and cultural studies social history book history sociology education library and information science and anyone concerned with children s literature

The Roads to Rome Catherine Fletcher,2024-12-03 Inspired by original research and filled with color and drama this is an exploration of two thousand years of history as seen through one the greatest imperial networks ever built All roads lead to Rome is a medieval proverb but it s also true today s European roads still follow the networks of the ancient empire and these ancient roads continue to grip our modern imaginations as a physical manifestation of Rome s extraordinary greatness Over the two thousand years since they were first built these roads have been walked by crusaders and pilgrims liberators and dictators but also by tourists and writers refugees and artists As channels of trade and travel and routes for conquest and creativity Catherine Fletcher reveals how these roads forever transformed the cultures and intertwined the fates of a vast panoply of people across Europe and beyond The Roads to Rome is a magnificent journey into a past that remains intimately connected to our present Traveling from Scotland to Cordoba to Istanbul and back to Rome the reader meanders through a series of nations and empires that have risen and fallen Along the way we encounter spies bandits scheming innkeepers a Byzantine noblewoman on the run young aristocrats on their Grand Tour a conquering Napoleon John Keats the Shelleys the abolitionist Frederick Douglass and even Mussolini on his motorbike Reflecting on his own walk on the Appian Way Charles Dickens observed that here is a history in every stone that strews the ground Based on vibrant original research this is the first narrative history to tell the full story of life on the roads that lead to Rome The Hockey Stick and the Climate Wars Michael E. Mann, 2013-10-01 The ongoing assault on climate science in the United States has never been more aggressive more blatant or more widely publicized than in the case of the Hockey Stick graph a clear and compelling visual presentation of scientific data put together by Michael E Mann and his colleagues demonstrating that global temperatures have risen in conjunction with the increase in industrialization and the use of fossil fuels Here was an easy to understand graph that in a glance posed a threat to major corporate energy interests and those who do their political bidding The stakes were simply too high to ignore the Hockey Stick and so began a relentless attack on a body of science and on the investigators whose work formed its scientific basis The Hockey Stick achieved prominence in a 2001 UN report on climate change and quickly became a central icon in the climate wars The real issue has never been the graph's data but rather its implied threat to those who oppose governmental regulation and other restraints to protect the environment and planet Mann lead author of the original paper in which the Hockey Stick first appeared shares the story of the science and politics behind this controversy He reveals key figures in the oil and energy industries and the media front groups who do their bidding in sometimes slick sometimes bare knuckled ways Mann concludes with the real story of the 2009 Climategate scandal in which climate scientists emails were hacked This is essential reading for all who care about our planet's health and our own well being Directory of Publishing 2011, 2010-09-30 Now in its 36th edition and compiled in association with the Publishers Association this is the most authoritative detailed trade directory available for the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland listing over 900 book publishers Comprehensive entries include where available full contact details including addresses and websites details of distribution and sales and marketing agents key personnel listing of main fields of activity information on annual turnover numbers of new titles and numbers of employees ISBN prefixes including those for imprints and series details of trade association membership information on overseas representation details of associated and parent companies In addition to the detailed entries on publishers the Directory offers in depth coverage of the wider UK book trade and lists organizations associated with the book trade packagers authors agents trade and allied associations and

Terrorism, Gender and Women Alexandra Phelan, 2020-12-17 Terrorism Gender and Women Towards an Integrated Research Agenda encourages greater integration of gender sensitive approaches to studies of violent extremism and terrorism This book seeks to create and inspire a dialogue among scholars of conflict terrorism and gender by suggesting the necessity of incorporating gender analysis to fill gaps within and further enhance our understanding of political violence The chapters featured in the book interrogate how recent developments in the field such as the proliferation of propaganda and online messaging the decline or shifting presence of ISIS the continued rise of far right extremism and the changing roles of women in political violence necessitate a gendered understanding of radicalisation participation and of strategies to counter and prevent both violent extremism and terrorism Taken together they encourage a discussion of new ways in understanding how women and men can be affected by terrorism and violent extremism differently and how involvement can often be influenced by highly gendered experiences and considerations The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Studies in Conflict Terrorism

The Crimes of Digital Capitalism Aitor Jiménez, 2025-03-25 This book delves into the criminal structure of digital capitalism fostered by states and corporations along the supply chain illustrating how the rise of algorithmic racism lithium extractivism the Googlization of education or the deployment of AI surveillance killing technologies brutally impacts the lives of millions of people around the world

The Race Card Richard Thompson Ford, 2008-01-22 What do Katrina victims waiting for federal disaster relief millionaire rappers buying vintage champagne Ivy League professors waiting for taxis and ghetto hustlers trying to find steady work have in common All have claimed to be victims of racism These days almost no one openly expresses racist beliefs or defends bigoted motives So lots of people are victims of bigotry but no one is a bigot What gives Either a lot of people are lying about their true beliefs and motivations or a lot of people are jumping to unwarranted conclusions or just playing the race card As the label of prejudice is applied to more and more situations it loses a clear and agreed upon meaning This makes it easy for self serving individuals and political hacks to use accusations of racism sexism homophobia and other types of bias to advance their own ends Richard Thompson Ford a Stanford Law School professor brings sophisticated legal analysis lively and eye popping anecdotes and plain old common sense to this heated topic He offers ways to separate valid claims from bellyaching Daring entertaining and incisive The Race Card is a call for us to treat racism as a social problem that must be objectively understood and honestly evaluated
