Buried treasure, creeks glittering with gold nuggets, sunken galleons filled with Spanish doubloons, the mother lodes are as varied as the men pursuing them. Something has been going badly wrong in America. But what is really happening, why, and what does it mean? Could the US itself now be the greatest threat to the future of the West? What does Joe Biden need to do to get America back on track? In this fascinating account of America today, Patrick Davies, former British Deputy Ambassador to the US, sets out to understand how America, blinded by myths of its own exceptionalism, has failed to tackle serious political, social and economic problems which are exacerbating divisions in its society, poisoning its politics and ultimately fuelling America's decline. The Great American Delusion asks whether, with global power shifting eastwards, the US can save itself and with it the Western world before it's too late. Patrick Davies worked alongside the Obama and Trump White Houses for five years. He has more than 30 years experience of America, its people and its politics. The Final Days of Great American Shopping Gilbert Allen, 2016-04-30

A quirky assortment of materialistic suburbanites trying to supersize and spend their way to happiness. An affectionate satire of the culture of self-indulgence. The Final Days of Great American Shopping exposes the American obsessions with money, mass marketing and material objects. In Belladonna, a gated subdivision in upstate South Carolina, readers meet a colorful cast of characters doing their best to buy happiness in a series of sixteen closely linked stories from the past, present and future. Whether speed dating, test driving cars, upsizing to dream houses, flying helicopters or lusting after designer shoes, these small town spenders have good intentions that often go hilariously awry as they search for emotional and spiritual comfort. Gilbert Allen is a master at character development and the individuals in this collection are no exception. Among them are the childless, emotionally distant couple Butler and Marjory Breedlove, the harried appliance salesman John Beegle and his precocious pole dancing daughter Alison, and the one-handed soccer wunderkind Amy Knobloch.
