A Study Guide for Randa Abdel-Fattah's "Does My Head Look Big in This?" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Randa Abdel Fattah's Does My Head Look Big in This excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students. This concise study guide includes plot summary, character analysis, author biography, study questions, historical context, suggestions for further reading, and much more. For any literature project, trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs. Does My Head Look Big in This? Randa Abdel-Fattah, 2014-05-01. Don't panic! I'm Islamic. Amal is a 16-year-old Melbourne teen with all the usual obsessions about boys, chocolate, and Cosmo magazine. She's also a Muslim struggling to honour the Islamic faith in a society that doesn't understand it. The story of her decision to shawl up is funny, surprising, and touching by turns.

Does My Head Look Big in This? Randa Abdel-Fattah, 2005. A witty and engaging story about being young and Muslim. Amal Abdel Hakim is a seventeen-year-old Australian Palestinian Muslim trying to come to grips with her various identities. It's hard enough being cool as a teenager when being one issue behind the latest Cosmo is enough to disqualify you from the in-group. Try wearing a veil and talking intimately about personal issues and you know you're in for a tough time at school in Australia. Luckily, her friends support her, although they've got troubles of their own. Simone, blonde, gorgeous, and overweight, has serious image issues, and Leila's really intelligent, but her parents are more interested in her getting a marriage certificate than her high school certificate. Maybe Amal's problems are not as bad as she thinks. Does This Book Make My Butt Look Big? Carson Kressley, Riann Smith, 2016-10-11. A hilarious style guide for women from fashion guru Carson Kressley, the Emmy-winning TV star and New York Times bestselling author of Queer Eye for the Straight Guy. Carson Kressley, the Emmy-winning TV star and New York Times bestselling author of Queer Eye for the Straight Guy, has spent the last decade transforming thousands of women and connecting with millions more on Oprah Winfrey's Good Morning America and countless other national broadcasts. He knows what makes women tick. Whether we live in Tacoma or Tallahassee, there is a common thread among all of us: we want to feel beautiful but don't always know where to start. We're frequently frustrated by fashion and can't figure out which trends to follow and which to flee. Does This Book Make My Butt Look Big? is a roadmap for all of us to build unshakable body and fashion confidence. Nowhere else is there a fun and accessible book created for the underserved masses like us who just want to get out the door looking and feeling fabulous. Who don't have gobs of money to drop on our wardrobe and feel left out of the game. And when it comes to how we feel about our bodies, all we see are roadblocks and signs for Burger King. We need to be reminded that fashion is FUN. We need to know that with the right tools, we have the power to transform our self-perception by shifting our mindset from "woe is me" to "wow is me." We need the secrets of playing to our strengths and minimizing our flaws. We need to take more chances and leave what doesn't work in the dust. Most of all, we need Carson, our peppy blond fairy godstylist, to show us the way. Includes full-color photographs and illustrations throughout. Teaching to Exceed the English Language Arts Common Core State Standards Richard

Farwell, Nancy L. Teger, 2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6 12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development promote literature appreciation and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork

Supporting Reading Grades 6-12: A Guide addresses head-on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students' motivation and test scores. The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this: the READS curriculum, which stands for Read as a personal activity, Explore characteristics, history, and awards of creative works, Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works, Develop a literary-based product, and Score reading progress. Each of these five components is explained thoroughly, describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals, in groups, and as school communities support classroom teachers' instruction and connect students to today's constantly evolving technologies. Used in combination with an inquiry/information skills model, the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic, balanced library program that addresses AASL's Standards for the 21st Century Learner.

Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, James A. Rycik, 2019-08-28 Now in its second edition, this book explores a great variety of genres and formats of young adult literature while placing special emphasis on contemporary works with nontraditional themes, protagonists, and literary conventions that are well suited to young adult readers. It looks at the ways in which contemporary readers can access literature and share the works they're reading and it shows teachers the resources that are available, especially online, for choosing and using good literature in the classroom and for recommending books for their students' personal reading. In addition to traditional genre chapters, this book includes chapters on literary nonfiction, poetry, short stories, and drama and film. Graphic novels, diversity issues, and uses of technology are also included throughout the text. The book's discussion of literary language, including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms, enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their peers and others when communicating about books. This book is an essential resource for preservice educators to help young adults understand and appreciate the excellent literature that is available to them. New to the second edition: New popular authors, books, and movies with a greater focus on diversity of literature; Updated coverage of new trends such as metafiction, a renewed focus on nonfiction, and retellings of canonical works; Increased attention to graphic novels and multimodal texts throughout the book; eResources with downloadable materials, including book lists, awards lists, and Focus Questions.

Young Adult Literature Michael Cart, 2010-09-01 This insightful and often humorous work presents the evolution of YA lit in an appealing way, making it equally useful for students of literary studies.

Teaching K-8 Reading Christine H. Leland, Mitzi Lewison, Jerome C. Harste, 2020-10-10 Accessible and engaging, this methods textbook provides a roadmap for improving reading instruction. Leland, Lewison, and Harste explain why certain ineffective or debunked literacy techniques prevail in the classroom, identify the problematic assumptions that underlie these popular myths, and offer better alternatives for literacy teaching. Grounded in a mantra that promotes critical thinking and agency—Enjoy, Dig Deeply, Take Action—this book presents a clear framework, methods, and easy applications for designing and implementing effective literacy instruction Numerous teaching strategies classroom examples teacher vignettes and recommendations for using children s and adolescent literature found in this book make it an ideal text for preservice teachers in elementary and middle school reading and English language arts methods courses as well as a practical resource for professional in service workshops and teachers Key features include Instructional engagements for supporting students as they read picture books chapter books and news articles and interact with social media and participate in the arts and everyday life Voices from the field that challenge mythical thinking and offer realworld examples of what effective reading and language arts instruction looks like in practice Owl statements that alert readers to key ideas for use when planning reading and language arts instruction Turning the Page Rachel Slaughter,2021-03-05

There is a dearth of multicultural literature in schools since few schools offer a curriculum that promotes multicultural education However by the year 2050 ethnic minority children will make up the majority of the United States public school classrooms Multicultural literature is the building block of a multicultural education which reflects our nation s diversity and helps all students learn by providing help to bridge the cultural gap and promote racial awareness Teachers often find it difficult to identify or find quality multicultural literature that adheres to the standard curriculum Turning the Page The Ultimate Guide for Teachers to Multicultural Literature helps educators find and evaluate multicultural books that are suitable for the classroom and align with the standard curriculum The book includes a peer reviewed metric that shows teachers how to substitute biased books with multicultural literature that endorse the same themes Second the book includes reviews lesson plans and curated book lists of multicultural books Finally the book offers a stepwise plan on how to create a task force of school stakeholders who can implement a comprehensive multicultural program In 2018 The National Association for Multicultural Education released standards for multicultural education to encourage school staff to become culturally competent and linguistically diverse Turning the Page The Ultimate Guide for Teachers to Multicultural Literature moves educators in that direction
