Mobilities and Foucault Katharina Manderscheid, Tim Schwanen, David Tyfield, 2017-10-02 Although Foucault's work has been employed and embraced enthusiastically by some mobilities scholars discussion across these two traditions to date has mostly been partial and unsystematic Yet Foucault's work can make critical contributions for example to thinking about governing mobilities in contemporary societies while conversely mobilities research opens up new perspectives on Foucault In combination these bodies of work can illuminate issues as diverse as the greater interdependencies between mobility systems e g transport tourism trade internet use the proliferation of the undesired mobilities of viruses of natural phenomena like fire of what is taken to be criminality and other seemingly inevitable by products of globalisation the perceived threats to desirable forms of mobility as constituted by climate change peak oil and energy security and terrorism and warfare and the increased popularity of logics of governance premised on choice responsabilisation and the re coding of phenomena in economic terms under neo liberalism Against this background this book brings together the first major collection of contributions from across the social sciences with a shared interest in both mobilities and Foucauldian thinking This book was published as a special issue of Mobilities

Organizational Communication and Sustainable Development: ICTs for Mobility Hallin, Anette, Karrbom-Gustavsson, Tina, 2009-10-31 Covering advantages as well as disadvantages explores how mobility meets sustainability in contemporary organizational communication

Digital Transformation, Perspective Development, and Value Creation Małgorzata Pańkowska, 2023-10-02 This edited collection aims to provide relevant theoretical frameworks and the latest empirical research findings in the area of business management It covers case studies provided by teachers visiting the University of Economics in Katowice Poland within Erasmus and CEEPUS Programmes Over 12 years approximately 25 teachers have been coming year by year to Katowice presenting their monographic lectures and participating in seminars on their research results and educational achievements This book contains descriptions of case studies elaborated by Erasmus and CEEPUS teachers illustrating that the case study is a method of research as well as a method applied in education and emphasizing the value of qualitative methods by example of case studies The key benefit of qualitative research is that it allows a researcher to perceive and understand context within which decisions and actions take place Hence to understand peoples motivations their reasons their actions and the context for their beliefs and actions qualitative research is the best route Assuming that business organizations as well as individuals are entirely linked together via the Internet a new approach to business communication and marketing business modelling and management are developed to reveal an increase of business synergy effects the alignment of information and communication technologies ICT and business and social value creation as well as sustainability and environment protection Through this book readers have an opportunity to learn about relevance and rigor in qualitative research and how the case study can be applied in various organizational contexts Geographies of Transport and Mobility Stewart Barr,Jan Prillwitz,Tim Ryley,Gareth Shaw,2017-10-04

Geographies of Transport and Mobility aims to provide a comprehensive and evidenced account of the intellectual and pragmatic challenges for personal mobility in the twenty first century In doing so it argues that geographers have a key role to play in shaping academic and policy debates on how personal mobility can become more sustainable The book is structured in three parts Part I explores how personal mobility has evolved since the mid nineteenth century plotting the intricate relationship between new forms of mobile technology urban planning and design and social practices Part II examines how researchers study transport and mobility and outlines the different intellectual trajectories of transport geography and geographies of mobilities Part III then outlines and discusses the discourse of sustainable mobility that has emerged in recent years the ways in which social economic and environmental sustainability can be promoted through different strategies focusing on behavioural change and urban design Geographies of Transport and Mobility provides a unique perspective on personal mobility by demonstrating how the way we travel has developed through complex economic and social processes It argues that this historical context is critical for considering how mobility in the twenty first century can be more sustainable not just environmentally but also economically and socially As such it argues for a renewed focus on sustainable place making as a way to radically shift mobility practices Geographies of Transport and Mobility is designed to appeal to advanced level undergraduate students and researchers in the fields of geography anthropology psychology sociology and transport studies The UNHCR and Disaster Displacement in the 21st Century Sinja

Hantscher,2019-07-18 This book offers an in depth case study on the leading international refugee agency the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees UNHCR and its approach to environmentally displaced persons The author examines the UNHCR on the basis of expert interviews and content analysis in order to highlight why and how the organization is addressing the issue The analysis draws on organizational as well as security theory offering readers a better understanding of the connection between the two The book appeals to scholars in the fields of migration and organizational studies as well as policymakers and professionals working in international organizations The Elgar Companion to Migration and the Sustainable Development Goals Nicola Piper,Kavita Datta,2024-04-12 This dynamic Companion explores the connections and disconnections between migration and sustainable development as articulated by the UN s Agenda 2030 and Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Providing a critical appraisal of Agenda 2030 it examines the extent to which the SDGs encompass migration and migrant related experiences within the context of the pledge to leave no one behind

Geographic Approaches to Climate Change and Mitigation: Urban and Rural Perspectives (Volume 2) Shahfahad,Pir Mohammad,Abraham R. Matamanda,Jesús Rodrigo-Comino,2025-09-26 This book provides an exploration of innovative geographic approaches to address the challenges posed by climate change focusing on solutions across urban and rural contexts Offering actionable insights it bridges diverse disciplines to highlight practical strategies and evidence based policies for a more sustainable and resilient future The volume is organized into key themes that address global issues sustainable governmental policies urban planning rural land use practices transportation systems food security heritage conservation and the socio environmental impacts of climate change From implementing nature based solutions in African cities to reforestation practices in rural landscapes and from reducing meat consumption to preserving cultural heritage at risk from rising sea levels each chapter provides real world case studies and forward thinking strategies The book addresses the importance of integrating diverse perspectives emphasizing the need for cohesive policies and innovative solutions to mitigate climate impacts while fostering sustainable development Topics like participatory democracy in climate action the nexus between tourism and the environment and leveraging shared electric vehicles for transit sustainability illustrate the multifaceted approach required to tackle global challenges By examining methodologies such as fuzzy logic for territorial planning innovative urban design for sustainable education environments and advanced logistics for freight transportation the book sets out to solve complex problems related to resource management community resilience and climate adaptation It also sheds light on the socioeconomic and cultural dimensions of climate change underscoring the importance of interdisciplinary collaboration and global action The Business of Sustainable Mobility Paul Nieuwenhuis,Philip

Vergragt,Peter Wells,2017-09-08 In many parts of the world there is a crisis of mobility This book shows that technology may well not be enough in itself and that for a genuinely sustainable transport future far more radical change affecting many aspects of society is needed It is useful for academics practitioners and policy makers Understanding and Governing growing contribution to climate change tourist and traveller behaviour is currently not acknowledged as an important sector within the development of climate policy Whilst tourists may be increasingly aware of potential impacts on climate change there is evidence that most are unwilling to modify their actual behaviours Influencing individual behaviour in tourism and informing effective governance is therefore an essential part of climate change mitigation This significant volume is the first to explore the psychological and social factors that may contribute to and inhibit sustainable change in the context of tourist and traveller behaviour It draws on a range of disciplines to offer a critical review of the psychological understandings and behavioural aspects of climate change and tourism mobilities in addition to governance and policies based upon psychological behavioural and social mechanisms It therefore provides a more informed understanding of how technology infrastructure and cost distribution can be developed in order to reach stronger mitigation goals whilst ensuring that resistance from consumers for socio psychological reasons are minimized Written by leading academics from a range of disciplinary backgrounds and regions this ground breaking volume is essential reading for all those interested in the effective governance of tourism s contribution to climate change now and in the future

environmentalists Mobility and Migration Choices Martin van der Velde, Ton van Naerssen, 2016-03-03 The crossing of national state borders is one of the most discussed issues of contemporary times and it poses many challenges for individual and collective identities This concerns both short distance mobility as well as long distance migration Choosing to move or not across international borders is a complex decision involving both cognitive and emotional processes This book tests the approach that three crucial thresholds need to be crossed before mobility occurs the individual's mindset about migrating the choice of destination and perception of crossing borders to that location and the specific routes and spatial trajectories available to get there Thus both borders and trajectories can act as thresholds to spatial moves The threshold approach with its focus on processes affecting whether when and where to move aims to understand the decision making process in all its dimensions in the hope that this will lead to a better understanding of the ways migrants conceive perceive and undertake their transnational journeys This book examines the three constitutive parts discerned in the cross border mobility decision making process people borders and trajectories and their interrelationships Illustrated by a global range of case studies it demonstrates that the relation between the three is not fixed but flexible and that decision making contains aspects of belonging instability security and volatility affecting their mobility or immobility Mobility for Smart Cities and Regional Development - Challenges for Higher Education Michael E. Auer, Hanno Hortsch, Oliver Michler, Thomas Köhler, 2022-01-27 This book presents recent research on interactive collaborative learning We are currently witnessing a significant transformation in the development of education and especially post secondary education To face these challenges higher education has to find innovative ways to quickly respond to these new needs On the one hand there is a pressure by the new situation in regard to the COVID pandemic On the other hand the methods and organizational forms of teaching and learning at higher educational institutions have changed rapidly in recent months Scientifically based statements as well as excellent experiences best practice are absolutely necessary These were the aims connected with the 24th International Conference on Interactive Collaborative Learning ICL2021 which was held online by Technische Universität Dresden Germany on 22-24 September 2021 Since its beginning in 1998 this conference is devoted to new approaches in learning with a focus on collaborative learning in Higher Education Nowadays the ICL conferences are a forum of the exchange of relevant trends and research results as well as the presentation of practical experiences in Learning and Engineering Pedagogy In this way we try to bridge the gap between pure scientific research and the everyday work of educators This book contains papers in the fields of Teaching Best Practices Research in Engineering Pedagogy Engineering Pedagogy Education Entrepreneurship in Engineering Education Project Based Learning Virtual and Augmented Learning Immersive Learning in Healthcare and Medical Education Interested readership includes policymakers academics educators researchers in pedagogy and learning theory schoolteachers learning industry further and continuing education lecturers etc Transitions Towards Sustainable Mobility Jo A.E.E. van Nunen, Paul Huijbregts, Piet Rietveld, 2011-08-19 Delivering a sustainable transport system is not just a matter of adopting a number of technological innovations to improve performance in terms of people planet and profits A broader structural and societal transition is needed in technology as well as in institutions behavioural patterns and the economy as a whole In this broader view neither the free market nor the public sector will be the unique key player in making this transition happen Elements of such an approach are presented in this book in a number of domains integrating transport infrastructure and land use planning thus connecting fields that are rather unconnected in day to day policies experiments with dynamic transport optimization including reports on pilot projects to test the viability of transitions towards reliable transport systems describing a reversal from supply driven towards demand driven approaches and sustainable logistics and traffic management from local city distribution to global closed supply chain loops Tracing Mobilities Weert Canzler, 2016-02-24 Mobility is a basic principle of modernity besides others like individuality rationality equality and globality Taking its cue from this concept this book presents a movement that begins with the macro social transformations linked to mobility and ends with empirical discussions on the new forms of mobility and their implications for everyday life The book opens with a study of the social changes unique to the second age of modernity with contributions from Ulrich Beck John Urry Wolfgang Bonss and Sven Kesselring It continues with a discussion of the implications of these changes for sociological research Authors such as Vincent Kaufmann Weert Canzler Norbert Schneider Beate Collet Ruth Limmer and Gerlinde Vogl focus on a series of field examinations both qualitative and quantitative of emerging mobilities The book is a foray into the exciting new field of interdisciplinary mobility research informed by theoretical reflection and empirical investigation Work, Mobility, and Participation Robert E.
