Latham at Large Mark Latham, 2015-03-02 Mark Latham is by his own admission the most outspoken rebellious thoroughly uncontrollable former leader in Labor Party history In these brilliantly written opinion pieces Latham pulls no punches as he scrutinises the Australian political landscape looking at everything from climate change to Clive Palmer to what went wrong with Rudd Gillard and what's now wrong with Abbott Beyond politics Latham dabbles in his other great interests such as critiquing the modern media and explaining his fascination with horse racing His hilarious Henderson Watch columns and other satirical writing also feature in Latham at Large Mark Latham has a formidable intellect and a forensic ability to get to the bottom of things This is an entertaining thought provoking sometimes scathing often humorous collection from a man who is not afraid to speak his mind There is no one else like him in Australian public life Vatican II and New Thinking about Catholic Education Sean Whittle, 2016-10-26 It is only in the years since Vatican II that the new thinking about Catholic education has crystalised into shape Vatican II and New Thinking about Catholic Education provides an opportune moment to take stock of the impact of Vatican II on Catholic education This volume considers the various ways in which Vatican II and its teaching on education has been received and engages with the challenges and testing times that beset faith based education in the twenty first century With insights from an international range of leading and influential advocates of Catholic education the volume demonstrates the differing contexts of Catholic education and explores the ways in which Vatican II's teaching on education has been received over the past four or five decades The Triumph of Managerialism? Anna Yeatman, Bogdan Costea, 2018-10-16 This collection presents a critical dialogue on managerialist forms of government between philosophy political thought organisational and management theory The volume brings together essays that are concerned with technologies of government that are articulated as different iterations of managerialism The hallmark of managerialist discourse is value considered as a quantifiable abstraction where the intention is to always add value The central question addressed here by a team of international expert authors from across a range of disciplines is this in what ways has this abstraction of value impacted on the substantive work and ethical integrity of government and the public sector and more broadly of the professions including that of management itself Has it displaced this work or simply recast it The volume addresses audiences in social sciences philosophy management business and organisational studies The Liberal Year Book, 1917 Liberal year book, 1911 Live of the Irish Saints, with Special Festivals, and the Commemorations of Holy Persons O'Hanlon John Canon (Irish Catholic priest), 1873 Transcript of Enrollment Books New York (N.Y.).
