The Age of Light Whitney Scharer, 2019-02-05 One of the Best Books of the Year Parade Glamour Real Simple Refinery29 Yahoo Lifestyle A startlingly modern love story and a mesmerizing portrait of a woman's self transformation from muse to artist Celeste Ng author of Little Fires Everywhere I'd rather take a photograph than be one Lee Miller declares after she arrives in Paris in 1929 where she soon catches the eye of the famous Surrealist Man Ray Though he wants to use her only as a model Lee convinces him to take her on as his assistant and teach her everything he knows As they work together in the darkroom their personal and professional lives become intimately entwined changing the course of Lee's life forever Lee's journey of self discovery takes her from the cabarets of bohemian Paris to the battlefields of war torn Europe during WWII from inventing radical new photography techniques to documenting the liberation of the concentration camps as one of the first female war correspondents Through it all Lee must grapple with the question of whether it's possible to stay true to herself while also fulfilling her artistic ambition and what she will have to sacrifice to do so

Kill the Documentary Jill Godmilow, 2022-03-22 Can the documentary be useful Can a film change how its viewers think about the world and their potential role in it In Kill the Documentary the award winning director Jill Godmilow issues an urgent call for a new kind of nonfiction filmmaking She critiques documentary films from Nanook of the North to the recent Ken Burns Lynn Novick series The Vietnam War Tethered to what Godmilow calls the pedigree of the real and the pornography of the real they fail to activate their viewers engagement with historical or present day problems Whether depicting the hardships of poverty or the horrors of war conventional documentaries produce an us watching them mode that ultimately reinforces self satisfaction and self absorption In place of the conventional documentary Godmilow advocates for a postrealist cinema Instead of offering the faux empathy and sentimental spectacle of mainstream documentaries postrealist nonfiction films are acts of resistance They are experimental interventionist performative and transformative Godmilow demonstrates how a film can produce meaningful useful experience by forcefully challenging ways of knowing and how viewers come to understand the world She considers her own career as a filmmaker as well as the formal and political strategies of artists such as Luis Buñuel Georges Franju Harun Farocki Trinh T Minh ha Rithy Panh and other directors Both manifesto and guidebook Kill the Documentary proposes provocative new ways of making and watching films
