Peaceful Action Open Heart Lessons From The Lotus Sutra:

Peaceful Action, Open Heart Thich Nhat Hanh, 2005-01-09 Peaceful Action Open Heart shines 60 years of study and practice upon one of the crowning scriptures of the path of the Buddha and is destined to be known as one of the most significant writings by Thich Nhat Hanh. The Lotus Sutra is one of the most revered of Mahayana sacred texts and is sometimes called the king of sutras. Despite this fact, there are very few commentaries in English available today. Thich Nhat Hanh explores the Sutra's main theme that everyone has the capacity to become a Buddha and that Buddha nature is inherent in everything, but he also uniquely emphasizes the Sutra's insight that Buddha nature is the basis for peaceful action. Since we all will one day become a Buddha, he says, we can use mindfulness practices right now to understand and find solutions to current world challenges. In his interpretation of the Sutra, he suggests that if the practices, views, and insights of the Lotus Sutra would find application not only by individuals but also by nations, it would offer concrete solutions to transform individual suffering and the global challenges facing the world today. Stamped with his signature depth of vision, lucidity, and clarity, Thich Nhat Hanh's insights based on the wisdom of the Lotus Sutra invoke a wide range of contemporary topics and concerns, such as the Palestinian-Israeli war, the threat of terrorism, and the degradation of our environment. In proposing radical new ways of finding peaceful solutions to universal contemporary conflicts, he not only challenges the UN to change from an organization to a real organism working for peace and harmony in the world but also encourages all branches of all governments to act as Sangha. In so doing, he demonstrates the practical and direct applicability of this sacred text to today's concerns. This book has been re-released with a new title. The earlier hardcover edition was entitled Opening the Heart of the Cosmos. Opening the Heart of the Cosmos Thich Nhat Hanh, 2003-10-28 Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh uses the Lotus Sutra, one of Mahayana Buddhism's most revered texts, to illustrate the Buddha nature inherent in everyone. With great passion and clarity, he demonstrates how each human being has the capacity to transform their own individual suffering, develop compassion, and help create more peace in the world. Nhat Hanh's insights invoke a wide range of contemporary topics and concerns, from war and the threat of terrorism to individual anxiety and the degradation of our environment. He proposes a radical new solution to current conflicts, encouraging each of us to work on our own mindfulness practice to create greater peace and harmony. His accessible analysis of the sacred text demonstrates its practical and direct applicability to today's concerns. Peace Psychology and Character Strengths Ryan M. Niemiec, 2024-10-08 In this volume, the sciences of peace psychology and character strengths integrate in a substantive way to examine how the positive parts of our personality can contribute and impact each level of peace: inner, relational, group, community, international, and ecological peace. Readers will discover a wide range of insights, models, and scholarship from new studies conducted for this volume and practical strategies to bring greater peace to oneself, one's relationships, and the world. Peace Love Yoga Andrea R. Jain, 2020-07-28 Engaging with the growing popular and academic interest in the spiritual but not religious, Andrea R. Jain explores the connections between the practices of global spirituality and aspects of neoliberal capitalism in Peace Love Yoga Personal growth self care and transformation are all tropes in the narrative of the spiritual identity Jain is concerned with This spirituality is usually depicted as firmly countercultural the term alternative alternative health alternative medicine alternative spiritualities is omnipresent To the contrary Jain argues spiritual commodities entrepreneurs and consumers are quite mainstream and sometimes even conservative and nationalistic Ranging from the transnational to the economic to the activist Jain refuses the single narrative focus of most works on the SBNR human phenomena that can be analyzed through a single lens or narrative are few and far between and existing research in this area too often yields a suspiciously tidy story The heart of the book includes sophisticated analyses of two politically divergent but equally entrepreneurial and global capitalist yoga gurus athleisure apparel corporations such as lululemon that successfully market consumer goods as a purchased commitment to social justice and therapeutically focused applications of spirituality that concentrate on healing the broken person rather than undermining the system that broke that person in the first place Many spiritual commodities corporations and entrepreneurs Jain suggests do actually acknowledge the problems of neoliberal capitalism and in fact subvert them but they subvert them through mere gestures From provocative taglines printed across t shirts or packaging to calls for conscious capitalism commodification serves as a strategy through which subversion itself is colonized

A Cruel Theatre of Self-Immolations Grzegorz Ziolkowski, 2020-02-13 A Cruel Theatre of Self Immolations investigates contemporary protest self burnings and their echoes across culture The book provides a conceptual frame for the phenomenon and an annotated comprehensive timeline of suicide protests by fire supplemented with notes on artworks inspired by or devoted to individual cases The core of the publication consists of six case studies of these ultimate acts augmented with analyses and interpretations hailing from the visual arts film theatre architecture and literature By examining responses to these events within an interdisciplinary frame Zi kowski highlights the phenomenon s global reach and creates a broad yet in depth exploration of the problems that most often prompt these self burnings such as religious discrimination and harassment war and its horrors the brutality and indoctrination of authoritarian regimes and the apathy they produce as well as the exploitation of the so called subalterns and their exclusion from mainstream economic systems Of interest to scholars from an array of fields from theatre and performance to visual art to religion and politics A Cruel Theatre of Self Immolations offers a unique look at voluntary demonstrative and radical performances of shock and subversion

Making Gender in the Intersection of the Human and the Divine Thomas Donlin-Smith, Muhammad Shafiq, 2019-02-07 This collection of essays challenges the traditional patriarchal approach to sacred literature by highlighting gender parity in sacred texts and envisioning the rise of the matriarchy in the future The authors redefine Biblical Greek words like malakoi and arsenokoitai used in condemnation of homosexuality and Qur anic words like darajah and qawwamun used for establishing patriarchy One author reexamines the role of the Nepalese Teej festival of fasting and worship of the god Shiva in promoting male hegemony in Hinduism Other papers examine passages like Proverbs 31 1 31 the stories of Sarah and Rahab in the Bible the role of Mary in the Qur'an and the Dharmic conversion in chapter 27 of the Lotus Sutra This book makes it clear that sacred literature is subject to human understanding as it evolves through space and time Today as more women are educated and actively engaged in political economic and social life religions are challenged to redefine gender roles and norms
