Molla,2018-01-18 This book focuses on higher education in Ethiopia analysing persisting inequalities and policy responses against the backdrop of the extensive expansion and reform that the system has experienced in recent years Drawing on empirical data generated through interviews policy reviews and focus group discussions it explicates factors of structural inequality ranging from neoliberal policy orientations to repressive gender culture and geo political peripherality In a departure from conventional studies that consider policy a response to social problems the book takes a critical perspective to show the constitutive role of policy and explains how the representation of the problem of social inequality undermines equity policy outcomes in Ethiopian higher education Not only does the book problematise the framing of the problem of inequality in the system it also outlines strategies for designing transformative equity instruments In explaining structural factors of inequality and equity provisions the book productively combines sociological concepts with historical accounts and political economy insights Given the increased economic optimism associated with higher education in sub Saharan Africa and the neoliberal ideals underpinning much of the restructuring of the system in the region this is a timely and important contribution that sheds light on the social justice implications and consequences of such changes It offers fresh accounts of largely neglected qualitative cases of inequality making it a valuable read for students and researchers in the areas of Ethiopian education policy studies international and comparative education and international development      THE END OF THE GLOBAL? Liam Bemrose, Millie Bushell, Livia Cuciurean, Tessa Caplen Browne, Harry Rawson, Gabriele Piazza, Ethel Tambudzai, Tenzin Tinkol Tashi and Victoria Vall,2018-04-15 p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 9 0px Helvetica p p2 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 8 0px Helvetica The End of the Global features a collection of papers presented at the first DEN International Student Conference in 2017 This publication is one of many projects that the Democratic Education Network DEN has been responsible for since its launch in 2016 within the department of Politics and International Relations at the University of Westminster In addition to supporting various other initiatives DEN encourages and inspires students to research get involved in student led workshops and publish magazines and journals It hopes to increase our knowledge about how to open up deliberative and empowering spaces for students and how to maximise the impact of their projects on other students experience This book is a result of eclectic ideas and hard work put in by many students and covers the views of student authors on various economic political and social crises that shape our world today We hope that we have taken an important step in achieving the aims of DEN through encouraging students to believe in themselves and push the boundaries of imagination and possibility Education should not only be about knowledge gathering skills enhancement and degree acquisition but be a transformative life experience If students go away with more confidence more humility and better equipped to deal with the various challenges and opportunities that the world around them offers we would have succeeded as educationists Prof Dibyesh Anand Head of the Department of Politics and International Relations University of Westminster This book is produced by some of the students active in the Democratic Education Network It is essentially a collective work of the former and present students in the department to learn and explore their own world independently Dr Farhang Morady Academic Coordinator of DEN University of Westminster      Becoming Middle Class Markus Roos Breines,2021-08-02 This book is an ethnography of urban to urban migration and its role in middle class formation in Ethiopia Through an examination of the intersections and tensions between physical movement and social mobility it considers how young Tigrayan people's migration between urban centres made them distinct from both international migrants and non migrants Based on fieldwork in Adigrat and Addis Ababa it focuses on these young people's notions of progress experiences of higher education and ethnic tensions to demonstrate how their movements enabled them to enhance their economic social and symbolic capital while their cultural capital remained largely unchanged The book provides new insights into the opportunities and constraints for upward social mobility and argues that the emergence of shared characteristics among urban to urban migrants led to the formation of a group that can be described as a middle class in Ethiopia      Library & Information Science Abstracts ,2001      Understanding the Higher Education Market in Africa Emmanuel Mogaji,Felix Maringe,Robert Ebo Hinson,2020-03-06 This book offers theoretical and practical insights into the marketing of higher education in Africa It explores the key players challenges and policies affecting higher education across the continent their marketing strategies and the students selection process While acknowledging the vast size of the continent this book aims to provide an understanding of the dynamics of higher education in Africa This book recognises the private and government involvement in higher education provision and students and staff as stakeholders in the marketisation process Strategic efforts are directed by universities to attract prospective students This book further addresses issues such as the responses of higher education sectors to the notion of markets and marketing consumerism and competition in higher education in Africa conceptions of the commodification of higher education in Africa and the dominance of Western epistemologies and their influence in transforming higher education sectors Students as consumers in increasingly marketised higher education sectors in Africa are also discussed Though primarily for marketing students and academic researchers the book's feature of blended theoretical and practical knowledge means that it will also be of interest to marketing practitioners and university managers      The Handbook of Israel's Political System Itzhak Galnoor,Dana Blander,2018-04-30 There is growing interest in Israel's political system from all parts of the world This Handbook provides a unique comprehensive presentation of political life in Israel from the formative pre state period to the present The themes
