Consuming Books Stephen Brown, 2006-04-18 Big name contributors such as Malcolm McDonald Julia Kirby and Morris Holbrook First book to focus on marketing in the publishing industry Stephen Brown is a well known name in this sphere of marketing Selfishness and Selflessness Linda L. Layne, 2020-04-09 We are said to be suffering a narcissism epidemic when the need for collective action seems more pressing than ever The traits of Selfishness and selflessness address the proper and improper relationship between one's self and others The work they do during periods of social instability and cultural change is probed in this original interdisciplinary collection Contributions range from an examination of how these concepts animated the eighteenth century anti slavery campaigners to a dissection of the way middle class mothers experiences illustrate gendered struggles over how much and to whom one is morally obliged to give White Feminists and Contemporary Maternity D. Hallstein, 2010-03-29 This work explores matrophobia the fear not of one's mother or of motherhood but of becoming one's mother in past and present white feminist analyses of motherhood and mothering By tracing white second wave feminism's strategic choice to organize first as sisters then as daughters O'Brien Hallstein argues matrophobia became embedded in past and continues to linger in contemporary feminist analyses As a result contemporary analyses reveal crucially important but limited understandings of contemporary motherhood and mothering This important work concludes that matrophobia can be reduced and eliminated by reorienting analyses to mutual responsiveness between sisters and daughters second and third wave feminists The Maternal Tug: Ambivalence, Identity, and Agency Adams Sarah LaChance, 2020-02-01 While the existence of maternal ambivalence has been evident for centuries it has only recently been recognized as central to the lived experience of mothering This accessible yet intellectually rigorous interdisciplinary collection demonstrates its presence and meaning in relation to numerous topics such as pregnancy birth Caesarean sections sleep self estrangement helicopter parenting poverty environmental degradation depression anxiety queer mothering disability neglect filicide and war rape Its authors deny the assumption that mothers who experience ambivalence are bad

evil unnatural or insane Moreover historical records and cross cultural narratives indicate that maternal ambivalence appears in a wide range of circumstances but that it becomes unmanageable in circumstances of inequity deprivation and violence From this premise the authors in this collection raise imperative ethical social and political questions suggesting possibilities for vital cultural transformations These candid explorations demand we rethink our basic assumptions about how mothering is experienced in everyday life Birtherd in Prayer Kim Barker, Leigh Harrison, Linda de Meillon, 2016-03-01 A hopeful grace filled companion for the 9 months of pregnancy Birtherd in Prayer uniquely addresses and supports the spiritual journey of mothers to be As the authors moms say it s the book they longed to read but never found while they were pregnant Filled with lively thoughtful honest and been there stories this book deals with not only the emotional and physical facets of this overwhelming life experience but also the spiritual needs From the moment you know you re pregnant you enter a time of transition a time of waiting and preparing as you anticipate the arrival of the new little person who will share your life Pregnancy can be a God given stopping point an opportunity to reflect on our lives values and relationships to reevaluate our choices and priorities and to make some adjustments write authors Barker de Meillon and Harrison Even more importantly pregnancy can offer an occasion to draw closer to God and encounter God in a new way Each chapter includes honest humorous and touching stories questions to think about journaling prompts and prayer exercises Birtherd in Prayer gives you a safe place to acknowledge your thoughts and feelings as you read wisdom from scripture and stories from mother sages It focuses not just on preparing for childbirth but also motherhood The authors invite you on a journey of awareness and growth that will build a strong foundation for your life and your family As Barker de Meillon and Harrison say it takes courage to become aware to encounter and be encountered by God And it takes courage to be a mother Phenomenology

Matricentric Feminism Andrea O'Reilly, 2016-10-01 The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face social economic political cultural psychological and so forth are specific to women's role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O'Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice The chapter on maternal theory examines the central theoretical concepts of maternal scholarship while the chapter on activism considers the twenty first century motherhood movement Feminist mothering is likewise examined as the specific practice of matricentric feminism and this chapter discusses various theories and strategies on and for maternal empowerment

Matricentric feminism is also examined in relation to the larger field of academic feminism here O Reilly persuasively shows how matricentric feminism has been marginalized in academic feminism and considers the reasons for such exclusion and how such may be challenged and changed

Confronting Postmaternal Thinking Julie Stephens,2012-03-20 There is a deep cultural anxiety around public expressions of maternalism and the application of maternal values to society as a whole Julie Stephens examines why postmaternal thinking has become so influential in recent decades and why there has been a growing unease with maternal forms of subjectivity and maternalist perspectives In moving beyond policy definitions which emphasize the priority given to women s claims as employees over their political claims as mothers Stephens details an elaborate process of cultural forgetting that has accompanied this repudiation of the maternal Reclaiming an alternative feminist position through an investigation of oral history life narratives Web blogs and other rich and varied sources Stephens confronts the core claims of postmaternal thought and challenges dominant representations of feminism as having forgotten motherhood Deploying the interpretive framework of memory studies she examines the political structures of forgetting surrounding the maternal and the weakening of nurture and care in the public domain She views the promotion of an illusory self sufficient individualism as a form of social unmothering that is profoundly connected to this ethos In rejecting both traditional maternalism and the new postmaternalism Stephens challenges prevailing paradigms and makes way for an alternative feminist maternalism centering on a politics of care
