Pluriversal Literacies for Sustainable Futures Mia Perry,2023-07-28 This book presents a new vision of literacy that frames meaning making and communication in relation to individual collective and ecological needs Building on the concept of the pluriversal Perry explores how literacy education can support multiple ways of being and becoming In so doing Perry rejects limiting and skills focused definitions of literacy and instead embraces a more profound conceptualisation that reflects the boundless potential of literacy practices Bringing together research from the Global North and South Perry connects literacy education with semiotics philosophy sustainability studies and geopolitics to argue for the urgency of a pluriversal model of literacy that combats a normative neo colonial understanding of reading and writing Offering a unique contribution to the field of literacy studies this book demonstrates how literacy is a semiotic process and literacy practices can connect learner needs with pathways to social ecological and cultural sustainability With Perry as a guide this illuminating book invites readers to join the journey into literacies beyond words to arrive at a more holistic and inclusive understanding of what literacy practices are and can be

Interpersonal Meaning in Multimodal English Textbooks Yumin Chen,2022-03-10 Exploring multimodality in English language teaching textbooks this book focusses on how language and image are co deployed within these resources in order to create and convey interpersonal meaning Presenting cutting edge research in appraisal studies and multimodal discourse analysis Yumin Chen uses systemic functional linguistics and social semiotics to investigate how different voices are introduced and aligned inter modally in textbooks extending the appraisal systems of engagement and graduation across language and image The book also demonstrates how linguistic and visual semiotic resources co instantiate attitude paying special attention to the attitudinal dimension of curriculum goals for school students of different ages Furthermore it examines how different kinds of coding orientation are deployed in various educational contexts and different constituent genres Demonstrating how the linguistic and semiotic theories can be adapted to analyze multimodal texts across language and image Interpersonal Meaning in Multimodal English Textbooks offers new perspectives on how to employ multimodal resources to enhance the teaching and learning of English as a foreign language

Literacies that Move and Matter Karen Wohlwend, 2020-06-30 Expanding the definition and use of literacies beyond verbal and written communication this book examines contemporary literacies through action focused analysis of bodies places and media Nexus analysis examines how people enact and mobilize meanings that are largely unspoken Wohlwend demonstrates how nexus analysis can be used as a tool to critically analyze and understand action in everyday settings to provide a deeper understanding of how meanings are produced from a mix of modes in daily social and cultural contexts Organized in three sections Engaging Nexus Navigating Nexus and Changing Nexus this book provides a roadmap to applying nexus analysis to literacy research and offers tools to enable readers to compare methods across contexts Designed to help readers understand the theoretical and methodological assumptions and goals of nexus analysis in classroom and literacy research this book provides a comprehensive understanding of the theory framework and foundations of nexus analysis by using multimodal examples such as films and media artifacts live action performances and more Each chapter features consistent sections on key ideas and methods and a description of procedures for replication and application

Visual and Cultural Identity Constructs of Global Youth and Young Adults Fiona Blaikie, 2021-06-03 This collection brings together the ideas of key global scholars focusing on the lives of youth and young adults examining their visual and cultural identity constructs Embracing an international perspective encompassing the Global North and Global South chapters explore expressions and performances of youth and young adults as shifting and entangled in and through the clothed body gender sexuality race artistic and pedagogical making practices in spaces and places framed by new materialism social media popular and material culture The overarching emphasis of the collection is on youth and young adults strategies for engaging in and with the world becoming a someone and belonging in settings that include a juvenile arbitration program an artist community high schools universities families and social media This truly interdisciplinary and international collection will have resonance not just within cultural and media studies but also in education anthropology sociology gender studies child and youth studies visual culture and communication studies Children in Immigrant Families Becoming Literate Catherine Compton-Lilly, Stephanie Shedrow, Dana Hagerman, Laura Hamman-Ortiz, Yao-Kai Chi, Jieun Kim, Sun Young Lee, Kristin Papoi, Erin Quast, Brooke Ward Taira, Bingjie Zheng, 2022-05-05 This original book offers a meaningful window into the lived experiences of children from immigrant families providing a holistic profound portrait of their literacy practices as situated within social cultural and political frames Drawing on reports from five years of an ongoing longitudinal research project involving students from immigrant families across their elementary school years each chapter explores a unique set of questions about the students experiences and offers a rich data set of observations interviews and student created artifacts Authors apply different sociocultural sociomaterial and sociopolitical frameworks to better understand the dimensions of the children s experiences The multitude of approaches applied demonstrates how viewing the same data through distinct lenses is a powerful way to uncover the differences and comparative uses of these theories Through such varied lenses it becomes apparent how the complexities of lived experiences inform and improve our understanding of teaching and learning and how our understanding of multifaceted literacy practices affects students social worlds and identities Children in Immigrant Families Becoming Literate is a much needed resource for scholars professors researchers and graduate students in language and literacy education English education and teacher education The Infographic Murray Dick, 2020-04-21 An exploration of infographics and data visualization as a cultural phenomenon from eighteenth century print culture to today s data journalism Infographics and data visualization are ubiquitous in our everyday media diet particularly in news in print newspapers on television news and online It has been argued that infographics are changing what it means to be literate in the twenty first century and even that they harmonize uniquely with human cognition In this first serious exploration of the subject Murray Dick traces the cultural evolution of the infographic examining its use in news and resistance to its use from eighteenth century print culture to today s data journalism He identifies six historical phases of infographics in popular culture the proto infographic the classical the improving the commercial the ideological and the professional Dick describes the emergence of infographic forms within a wider history of journalism culture and communications focusing his analysis on the UK He considers their use in the partisan British journalism of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century print media their later deployment as a vehicle for reform and improvement their mass market debut in the twentieth century as a means of explanation and sometimes propaganda and their use for both ideological and professional purposes in the post World War II marketized newspaper culture Finally he proposes best practices for news infographics and defends infographics and data visualization against a range of criticism Dick offers not only a history of how the public has experienced and understood the infographic but also an account of what data visualization can tell us about the past

Radical Communications Michael Tsangaris, 2021-11-08 Radical Communications explores unauthorized messages we see in the cities we live in and their impact on the construction of social reality Michael Tsangaris treats the city as a text and examines the political slogans graffiti and street art of Athens as complex visual signs in an alternative communication system He argues that the legitimacy aesthetic value and social acceptability of these expressions depend on the time place and social group or individual that interprets them Finally his analysis reveals the contradictory character of the contemporary city It shows a city of social inequalities cultural diversity multinational encounters of conflicts between age groups and political economic and epidemic crises a city of one dimensional thinking apathy and consumer fetishism but also a city that aspires to the dream of a better society and holds utopian promise

Re/humanizing Education, 2022-05-16 Teaching and learning are profoundly personal experiences yet systems of education often prioritize agendas that alienate people rather than engage them Reconceptualizing teaching and learning as a co constructed praxis places individuals at the heart of education and in so doing regards knowledge acquisition as a process of understanding that is dynamically and personally negotiated at the intersection of self subject and relationality This approach at once pedagogical and practical has the capacity to transform the classroom from a place of containment to one of expansiveness Through critical qualitative creative and arts integrated approaches this collection aims to explore the co curricular capacity of lived experience to re humanize education This is a timely project given the multiple race health environmental and socio political crises playing out on the world stage Contributions include works by authors who explore co curricular inclusion of lived experience for its potential to create more equitable and representative curricula co curricular capacity of lived experience to advance relationality both human and more than human and co curricular potential of lived experience to un privilege the current prioritization of the quantifiable in favour of more inclusive and holistic epistemologies
