New Orleans Architecture: The University Section Friends of the Cabildo, 1971 New Orleans Architecture Robert J. Cangelosi, Jr., 2020-12-02 An essential reference guide to one of New Orleans's most iconic Uptown neighborhoods New Orleans Architecture Volume IX documents the remarkable architectural history of the former city of Carrollton once the seat of Jefferson Parish and now listed on the National Register of Historic Places Following the format of previous volumes in the series Robert J Cangelosi Jr divides the study into three sections He begins in the early eighteenth century by chronicling the area's development as one of the many upriver communities just west of New Orleans Its fields and plantations afforded early homesteaders tillable farmland and easy access to the Mississippi River Later during the War of 1812 American troops led by William Carroll encamped there and the area was subsequently named for the general In 1831 developers purchased the land subdivided it and began construction of a road and a canal linking the area to New Orleans Local officials reorganized Carrollton in 1845 by then a village of about 1 000 residents as a town in Jefferson Parish and in 1859 a charter officially incorporated it as a city Just fifteen years later the City of New Orleans annexed Carrollton now replete with schools public gardens and brick paved streets as the Seventh Municipal District The volume's second section consists of a Building Index which gives the original owners dates of construction costs designers and builders for many of the structures erected in Carrollton since its founding In the Selective Architectural Inventory the book's final section Cangelosi explores the history of nearly 420 historic homes and buildings in Carrollton and shares thumbnail photographs detailed sales records and information on a variety of architectural styles New Orleans Architecture Volume IX serves as a valuable resource for the city's Historic District Landmark Commission and the State Historic Preservation Office as well as home owners real estate agents guides historians and tourists New Orleans Architecture Friends of the Cabildo, 1997-05 This section of Uptown

New Orleans gets its name from the various colleges and universities that have existed within its boundaries Loyola and Tulane are two architecturally diverse universities that line St Charles Avenue in this historic section The architecture of this area ranges from the Gothic universities to the grand mansions that also line St Charles Avenue to the modest shotgun homes and cottages scattered around the perimeter of the section The New Orleans Architecture Series see page 21 celebrated its 25th anniversary in 1996 From the beginning the Friends of the Cabildo have had as their mission to promote history and to establish and protect New Orleans architecture and make it the best documented in the entire United States

Surveying the two centuries that preceded Jim Crow's demise Race and Education in New Orleans traces the course of the city's education system from the colonial period to the start of school desegregation in 1960 This timely historical analysis reveals that public schools in New Orleans both suffered from and maintained the racial stratification that characterized urban areas for much of the twentieth century Walter C Stern begins his account with the mid eighteenth century kidnapping and enslavement of Marie Justine Sirnir who eventually secured her freedom and played a major role in the development of free black education in the Crescent City As Sirnir's story and legacy illustrate schools such as the one she envisioned were central to the black antebellum understanding of race citizenship and urban development Black communities fought tirelessly to gain better access to education which gave rise to new strategies by white civilians and officials who worked to maintain and strengthen the racial status quo even as they conceded to demands from the black community for expanded educational opportunities The friction between black and white New Orleanians continued throughout the nineteenth century and well into the twentieth when conflicts over land and resources sharply intensified Stern argues that the post Reconstruction reorganization of the city into distinct black and white enclaves marked a new phase in the evolution of racial disparity segregated schools gave rise to segregated communities which in turn created structural inequality in housing that impeded desegregation's capacity to promote racial justice By taking a long view of the interplay between education race and urban change Stern underscores the fluidity of race as a social construct and the extent to which the Jim Crow system evolved through a dynamic though often improvisational process A vital and accessible history Race and Education in New Orleans provides a comprehensive look at the ways the New Orleans school system shaped the city's racial and urban landscapes

The Garden District of New Orleans Jim

Fraiser, 2012-03-01 The Garden District of New Orleans has enthralled residents and visitors alike since it arose in the 1830s with its stately white columned Greek Revival mansions and double galleried Italianate houses decorated with lacy cast iron Photographer West Freeman evokes the romance of this elegant neighborhood with lovely images of private homes dazzling gardens and public structures Author Jim Fraiser vividly details the historical significance and architectural styles of more than a hundred structures and chronicles both the political and cultural evolution of the neighborhood The Garden District unlike the French Quarter evolved under the auspices of predominantly Anglo American architects hired by newly arriving and newly wealthy Americans Beyond these wealthy homeowners the Garden District also offers a startlingly diverse and freewheeling history teeming with African American slaves free men and women of color French Italians Germans Jews and Irish all of whom helped fashion it into one of America s first suburbs and most extraordinary neighborhoods Fraiser animates the Garden District s story with such notables as Mark Twain Jefferson Davis occupying Union general Benjamin Butler flamboyant steamboat captain Thomas Leathers crusading Reverend Theodore Clapp Confederate generals Jubal Early and Leonidas Polk jazzmen Joe King Oliver and Nate King Cole champion pugilist John L Sullivan local authors Grace King George Washington Cable and Anne Rice Mayor Joseph Shakespeare architects Henry Howard Lewis Reynolds and Thomas Sully cotton magnate Henry S Buckner and Louisiana Lottery co founder John A Morris In words and photographs Fraiser and Freeman explore the unexpected evolution of this district and reveal how war plagues politics religion cultural conflict and architectural innovation shaped the incomparable Garden District Houses of Key West Alex Caemmerer,1992 Key West is an architectural treasure trove of houses built in the 19th century Robert W. Tebbs, Photographer to Architects Richard Anthony Lewis,2011-12-05 One of the finest architectural photographers in America Robert W Tebbs produced the first photographic survey of Louisiana s plantations in 1926 The images now housed in the Louisiana State Museum and never before widely available consist of 110 plates showcasing fifty two homes Author and curator Richard Anthony Lewis explores Tebbs s life and photographs revealing in both a new awareness of historic preservation The Faubourg Marigny of New Orleans Scott S. Ellis,2018-10-03 Leaving the crowded tourist driven French Quarter by crossing Esplanade Avenue visitors and residents entering the Faubourg Marigny travel through rows of vibrantly colored Greek revival and Creole style homes For decades this stunning architectural display marked an entry into a more authentic New Orleans In the first complete history of this celebrated neighborhood Scott S Ellis chronicles the incomparable vitality of life in the Marigny describes its architectural and social evolution across two centuries and shows how many of New Orleans s most dramatic events unfolded in this eclectic suburb Founded in 1805 the Faubourg Marigny benefited from waves of refugees and immigrants settling on its borders migr s from Saint Domingue Germany Ireland and Italy in addition to a large community of the city s antebellum free people of color would come to call Marigny home and contribute to its rich legacy Shaped as well by epidemics and political upheaval the young enclave hosted a post Civil War influx of newly freed slaves seeking affordable housing and suffered grievous losses after deadly outbreaks of yellow fever In the twentieth century the district grew into a working class neighborhood of creolized residents that eventually gave way to a burgeoning gay community which in turn led to an era of supergentrification following Hurricane Katrina Now as with many historic communities in the heart of a growing metropolis tensions between tradition and revitalization informality and regulation diversity and limited access contour the Marigny into an ever more kaleidoscopic picture of both past and present Equally informative and entertaining this nuanced history reinforces the cultural value of the Marigny and the importance of preserving this alluring neighborhood

Guidelines for Local Surveys Anne Derry,1977 Landscape and Race in the United States Richard

Schein,2012-11-12 Landscape and Race in the United States is the definitive volume on racialized landscapes in the United States Edited by Richard Schein each essay is grounded in a particular location but all of the essays are informed by the theoretical vision that the cultural landscapes of America are infused with race and America's racial divide While featuring the black white divide the book also investigates other social landscapes including Chinatowns Latino landscapes in the Southwest and white suburban landscapes The essays are accessible and readable providing historical and contemporary coverage Plantations by the River Marcel Boyer,Jay Edwards,2002-03-01 French priest Joseph M Paret 1807 1872 served in the missions of Louisiana from 1847 to 1869 as pastor of the Little Red Church located upstream from New Orleans on the east bank of the Mississippi River During his somewhat lonely tenure Paret sketched landscapes architecture and interiors capturing everyday life in prosperous St Charles Parish In 1987 fifty three watercolors were discovered still bound in their original sketchbook among his personal effects Plantations by the River contains twenty eight of these paintings created in or about the year 1859 Paret's insightful artwork provides a visual social history of the antebellum creole culture of south Louisiana and documents properties in addition to structures and furnishings of the period The book features full size reproductions of Paret's paintings which have been restored to their original vibrancy The value of Paret's detailed folk art lies in the accuracy of his depiction of the region he lived in He faithfully renders parishioners attending church men pulling driftwood from the Mississippi River and the edifices and flora gracing local plantations Ormond and Good Hope among many others The text is presented in both English and French and as a supplement to the art an appendix of excerpts from Mon Journal d'Amerique a collection of correspondence between Paret and his family is included The beautiful brightly colored paintings of Plantations by the River are a rare discovery and provide a unique view of rural Louisiana life before the onset of the Civil War Index of Bicentennial Activities American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1976 The
