When the humans eventually came out of hiding the Gwa remained and the Vokko were nowhere to be seen or so they thought. But just because you can't see it doesn't mean it's not there watching waiting. Vokko attacks are on the rise again. The human race is in danger and the Gwa have a plan. Though they've studied old movies and TV shows they don't actually know much about humans so their idea is to team up with them to battle the Vokko. And Detective Darika Dailey is the lucky guinea pig to test out their new strategy first. At first Darika doesn't trust the Gwa Ahl who's been assigned as her new partner even after he takes on the visage of someone very dear to her from her past. But Ahl grows on her and the partnership is working and she's quickly becoming attached. They both have the same mission in life to protect and serve. How much time will they have together? How long before Ahl reaches his true death? However long it is it won't be long enough for her.
