Beiner,2018-11-09 Forgetful Remembrance examines the paradoxes of what actually happens when communities persistently endeavour to forget inconvenient events The question of how a society attempts to obscure problematic historical episodes is addressed through a detailed case study grounded in the north eastern counties of the Irish province of Ulster where loyalist and unionist Protestants and in particular Presbyterians repeatedly tried to repress over two centuries discomfiting recollections of participation alongside Catholics in a republican rebellion in 1798 By exploring a rich variety of sources

Beiner makes it possible to closely follow the dynamics of social forgetting His particular focus on vernacular historiography rarely noted in official histories reveals the tensions between professed oblivion in public and more subtle rituals of remembrance that facilitated muted traditions of forgetful remembrance which were masked by a local culture of reticence and silencing Throughout Forgetful Remembrance comparative references demonstrate the wider relevance of the study of social forgetting in Northern Ireland to numerous other cases where troublesome memories have been concealed behind a veil of supposed oblivion Shoe and Leather Reporter ,1880 The Reporter ,2003 Giant Don Graham,2018-04-10 A larger than life narrative of the making of the classic film marking the rise of America as a superpower the ascent of Hollywood celebrity and the flowering of Texas culture as mythology Featuring James Dean Rock Hudson and Elizabeth Taylor Giant is an epic film of fame and materialism based around the discovery of oil at Spindletop and the establishment of the King Ranch of south Texas Isolating his star cast in the wilds of West Texas director George Stevens brought together a volatile mix of egos insecurities sexual proclivities and talent Stevens knew he was overwhelmed with Hudson s promiscuity Taylor s high diva dom and Dean s egotistical eccentricity Yet he coaxed performances out of them that made cinematic history winning Stevens the Academy Award for Best Director and garnering nine other nominations including a nomination for Best Actor for James Dean who died before the film was finished In this compelling and impeccably researched narrative history of the making of the film Don Graham chronicles the stories of Stevens whose trauma in World War II intensified his ambition to make films that would tell the story of America Edna Ferber a considerable literary celebrity who meets her match in the imposing Robert Kleberg proprietor of the vast King Ranch and Glenn McCarthy an American oil tycoon and Errol Flynn lookalike with a taste for Hollywood Drawing on archival sources Graham s Giant is a comprehensive depiction of the film s production showing readers how reality became fiction and fiction became cinema The British and Foreign Anti-slavery Reporter ,1843 Vols 3 8 3d ser include the 16th 21st annual reports of the British and foreign anti slavery society The 22d 24th annual reports are appended to v 9 11 3d ser Series 4 contains annual reports of the British and Foreign Anti Slavery Society Series 5 contains annual reports of the Anti Slavery and Aborigines Protection Society Encyclopedia of American Short Films, 1926-1959 Graham Webb,2020-07-10 Short subject films have a long history in American cinemas These could be anywhere from 2 to 40 minutes long and were used as a filler in a picture show that would include a cartoon a newsreel possibly a serial and a short before launching into the feature film Shorts could tackle any topic of interest an unusual travelogue a comedy musical revues sports nature or popular vaudeville acts With the advent of sound on film in the mid to late 1920s makers of earlier silent short subjects began experimenting with the short films using them as a testing ground for the use of sound in feature movies After the Second World War and the rising popularity of television short subject films became far too expensive to produce and they had mostly disappeared from the screens by the late 1950s This encyclopedia offers comprehensive listings of American short subject films from the 1920s through the 1950s Historic
