Nicaragua Richard Leonardi, 2005. Once synonymous with Marxist revolution, Nicaragua is now a paradigm of peace and democracy. The largest and least densely populated of Central American republics is so far off the beaten track as to make the middle of nowhere seem overcrowded and the only activity you'll see is from its countless volcanoes. Footprint's second edition is the most detailed and comprehensive guide to this emerging Latin tourist destination. Includes the pick of activities including trekking, rafting, riding and surfing. In dual colour format throughout with the new clear typeface for even better legibility.
