News Public Relations And Power The Media In Focus Series:

News, Public Relations and Power Simon Cottle, 2003-04-18 We live in increasingly promotional times States political parties and corporations as well as new social movements and diverse cultural interests today seek to put their message across via the media and in pursuit of disparate aims enhanced public understanding and legitimacy Introducing theoretical ideas and the latest empirical findings in this fast developing field of media communication study this book addresses such issues as the rapid growth of public relations in its impact on news production state information management strategies in times of internal political dissent political parties and mediated spin conducted at national and local levels the historically changing nature of war journalism environmental activism and pressure group communication and much more back cover

Media Organization and Production Simon Cottle, 2003-04-18 Drawing on the work of international contributors Media Organization and Production examines a wide range of global local media organizations and the production of different mediums and genres Following the editor's introduction which sets out the principal differences of approach and defining debates chapters address transnational and national commercial and public service corporations international film and TV co productions children's television news production the historical development of liveness on radio and music journalism the politics and organizational forms of alternative media production including radical newspapers video and the internet and the changing production ecology of natural history television These topics are examined through a variety of theoretical and conceptual frameworks that help to illuminate how cultural production often involves a complex articulation of differing influences and constraints both material and discursive intended and unintended structurally determined and culturally mediated Together the chapters in this book help to recover this complexity and thereby help us to better understand the nature and output of today's media

Secrecy in Public Relations, Mediation and News Cultures Anne M. Cronin, 2023-01-19 This book investigates the relationship of secrecy as a social practice to contemporary media news cultures and public relations Drawing on Georg Simmel's theorisation of how secrecy produces a second world alongside the obvious world and creates and reshapes social relations Anne Cronin argues for close analysis of the PR industry as a powerful vector of secrecy and an examination of its relationship to news cultures Using case studies and in depth interviews as well as recent research in media and cultural studies sociology journalism studies and communication studies the book analyses how PR practices generate a second shadow world of the media sphere which has a profound impact on the obvious world It interrogates both the PR industry's and news culture's role in shaping social relations for a digital media landscape and those initiatives promoting transparency of data and decision making processes An insightful interdisciplinary approach to debates on media and power this book will appeal to students of public relations sociology media studies cultural studies and communication studies It will also be of interest to scholars and practitioners working at the intersections of media social relations and public trust
