philosophers to clarify and criticize McDowell's core position and explore its repercussions for contemporary debates about metaphysics and epistemology perception language action and value The essays here scrutinize the core idea that human reason constitutes a second nature emerging from humanity's basic animal nature and reflect on the underpinnings of McDowell's claims in Aristotle Kant and Hegel Many of the contributors extend McDowell's views beyond his own articulations elaborating the transformative role that reason plays in human experience In clarifying and expanding McDowell's insights Reason in Nature challenges contemporary orthodoxy much as McDowell himself has And as this collection makes clear McDowell's unorthodox position is of enduring importance and has wide ranging implications still not fully appreciated for ongoing philosophical debates

Arc of Containment Wen-Qing Ngoei, 2019-05-15 Arc of Containment recasts the history of American empire in Southeast and East Asia from World War II through the end of American intervention in Vietnam Setting aside the classic story of anxiety about falling dominoes Wen Qing Ngoei articulates a new regional history premised on strong security and sure containment guaranteed by Anglo American cooperation Ngoei argues that anticommunist nationalism in Southeast Asia intersected with preexisting local antipathy toward China and the Chinese diaspora to usher the region from European dominated colonialism to US hegemony Central to this revisionary strategic assessment is the place of British power and the effects of direct neocolonial military might and less overt cultural influences based on decades of colonial rule as well as the considerable influence of Southeast Asian actors upon Anglo American imperial strategy throughout the post war period Arc of Containment demonstrates that American failure in Vietnam had less long term consequences than widely believed because British pro West nationalism had been firmly entrenched twenty plus years earlier In effect Ngoei argues the Cold War in Southeast Asia was but one violent chapter in the continuous history of western imperialism in the region in the twentieth century
