David Salkin has fired at close range and with unerring accuracy with this tale. He takes a tough situation that is all too often neglected and gives it life. This story is for all veterans and their supporters. His first person writing style makes the reader feel present throughout the story. It's a quick read that will leave you thinking long after completion. I most strongly recommend it to all who are interested in understanding better the true costs of America's conflicts past, present, and future.

David Salkin's story is a must read for all Veterans and supporters. This book not only entertains you, it educates you on the price paid by those who have the guts to walk the walk. His first person writing takes you on a ride which seems to bring out all emotions and it also places you right on the battlefield. Maybe it's just my love of heroic deeds, but it sure knocked me on my knees. The read is overall life like and is very consistent with the actions taking place every day in Iraq and Afghanistan. Kudos to Dave for really knocking this one out of the park.

Camaraderie, adrenaline, fear, loss, hope, and redemption all in one exhilarating and disturbingly beautiful tale. Hard to believe David hasn't been on the battlefield because this tale rocked me back for days. A must read for everyone who has been or supports our warriors.

Lost in a Good Book Jasper Fforde, 2004-02-24 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER From the author of The Constant Rabbit comes Harry Potter just for adults: an immensely enjoyable, almost compulsive experience. The New York Times Book Review the second novel in the renowned Thursday Next series. Lost in a Good Book is satire, fantasy, literary criticism, thriller, whodunit, game, puzzle, joke, postmodern, prank, and tilt a whirl. The Washington Post: If resourceful, fearless literary detective Thursday Next thought she could avoid the spotlight after her heroic escapades in the pages of Jane Eyre, she was sorely mistaken. Her adventures as a renowned Special Operative in literary detection have left Thursday Next yearning for a rest. But when the love of her life is eradicated by the corrupt multinational Goliath Corporation, Thursday must bite the bullet and moonlight as a Prose Resource Operative in the secret world of Jurisfiction, the police force inside the books. There she is apprenticed to Miss Havisham, the famous man hater from Dickens's Great Expectations, who teaches her to book jump like a pro. If Thursday retrieves a supposedly vanquished enemy from the pages of Poe's The Raven, she thinks Goliath might return her lost love, Landen. But her latest mission is endlessly complicated. Not only are there side trips into the works of Kafka and Austen and even Beatrix Potter's The Tale of Flossy Bunnies, Thursday finds herself the target of a series of potentially lethal coincidences, the authenticator of a newly discovered play by the Bard himself, and the only one who can prevent an unidentifiable pink sludge from engulfing all life on Earth. Don't miss any of Jasper Fforde's delightfully
