Nice Book Destination Marketing International Perspective Routledge:

Destination Marketing Metin Kozak, Nazmi Kozak, 2015-10-23 This book advances the current literature on destination marketing by using innovative up to date case studies from a wide geographical representation. The contributors examine new methods and marketing approaches used within the field through a combination of theoretical and practical approaches. With discussions of topics including image branding, attractions and competitiveness, the chapters in this volume offer new insight into contemporary developments such as medical tourism, Islamic tourism and film induced tourism. Presenting detailed findings and a range of methodologies ranging from surveys to travel writings and ethnography, this book will be of interest to students, scholars and practitioners in the fields of tourism and marketing. The Routledge Handbook of

Destination Marketing Dogan Gursoy, Christina Chi, 2018-04-27 This book examines key contemporary marketing concepts, issues and challenges that affect destinations within a multidisciplinary global perspective. Uniquely combining both the theoretical and practical approaches, this handbook discusses cutting edge marketing questions such as innovation in destinations, sustainability, social media, peer to peer applications and web 3.0. Drawing from the knowledge and expertise of 70 prominent scholars from over 20 countries around the world, The Routledge Handbook of Destination Marketing aims to create an international platform for balanced academic research with practical applications in order to foster synergetic interaction between academia and industry. For these reasons, it will be a valuable resource for both researchers and practitioners in the field of destination marketing. Tourism Destinations and Policies in Europe During the 20th Century

Carlos Larrinaga, Donatella Strangio, 2025-08-07 This book analyzes key aspects of European tourism development in the 20th century, focusing on the development of tourist destinations as well as tourism policies that were created to shape these destinations. The book also examines the private sector, which has traditionally played a determining role in European tourism development. While doing so, this volume presents case studies of Western European and Eastern European countries such as Switzerland, Italy, France, Spain and Yugoslavia. This book will appeal to students, researchers and scholars of economics and business in general and economic history and tourism studies in particular, interested in a better understanding of the development of tourism destinations and tourism policies in Europe during the 20th century. Worldwide Destinations

Tourism and Heritage in the Chornobyl Exclusion Zone Magdalena Banaszekiewicz, 2022-09-28 Tourism and Heritage in the Chornobyl Exclusion Zone CEZ uses an ethnographic lens to explore the dissonances associated with the commodification of Chornobyl s heritage. The book considers the role of the guides as experience brokers focusing on the synergy between tourists and guides in the performance of heritage interpretation. Banaszekiewicz proposes to perceive tour guides as important actors in the bottom up construction of heritage discourse contributing to more inclusive and participatory approach to heritage management. Demonstrating that the CEZ has been going through a dynamic transformation into a mass tourism attraction the book offers a critical reflection on heritagisation as a meaning making process in which the resources of the past are interpreted negotiated and recognised as a valuable legacy Applying the concepts of dissonant heritage to describe the heterogeneous character of the CEZ the book broadens the interpretative scope of dark tourism which takes on a new dimension in the context of the war in Ukraine Tourism and Heritage in the Chernobyl Exclusion Zone argues that post disaster sites such as Chernobyl can teach us a great deal about the importance of preserving cultural and natural heritage for future generations The book will be of interest to academics and students who are engaged in the study of heritage tourism memory disasters and Eastern Europe Tourism Crises and Destination Recovery David Beirman,2021-10-20 As
