The Spirituality of Wine Gisela H. Kreglinger, 2016 Wine serves an important role both in Scripture and in the Christian church but its significance has received relatively little theological attention in modern times This book fills that gap Viewing wine as a gift of God's created bounty and as a special symbol used pervasively throughout Scripture Kreglinger canvasses the history of wine in the church particularly its use in the Lord's Supper discusses the fascinating process of winemaking and considers both the health benefits of wine and the dangers of alcohol abuse Offering a vision of the Christian life that sees God in all things including the work of a vintner and the enjoyment of a well crafted glass of wine

Why True Biblical Creationists Believe That Jesus Did Not Make Alcohol! Leighton Campbell, 2008-07 This book shows that the account of Creation given to us by God in the Book of Genesis simply does not allow anyone claiming to be a Biblical Creationist in the true sense of the word to accept that our Lord could have made wine that consisted of alcohol This study reveals that there are parallels that can be drawn from the almost universal acceptance of the evolutionary or semi evolutionary world view by many Christians that it took God millions of years to Create everything instead of 6 literal 24 hour days to their world view adopted from unbelievers that when the Bible speaks of wine it is always of the alcoholic nature Instead it shows us that contrary to the views of many Christians and indeed unbelievers the notion that good wine has to be fermented or alcoholic is indeed erroneous and evolutionary in concept Using the clear literal truths established in the Creation account as its foundation this material unequivocally declares that the wine that Jesus made from water was in fact pure unfermented grape juice Leighton Campbell is a member of a Fundamental Evangelical Pentecostal Church He has served in youth ministries and evangelism He is currently active in the teaching ministry He is married to Jennifer and they have three children

Captive Will Cynthia Geppert, 2024-05-30 Twenty first century neuroscience has discovered that in some severe cases addiction may so constrain human freedom that the will is only able to choose to use substances of abuse At this advanced stage substance use has become the primary driver of salience co-opting and subsuming other moral priorities and human rewards Scholars have investigated Aristotle's concept of akrasia as an ancient mirror of this understanding and there have been some preliminary discussions of Augustine's concept of the divided will as it bears on addiction No detailed and comprehensive exploration of the work of Augustine has yet been undertaken as it relates to three contemporary models of addiction the choice learning and brain disease models Augustine's psychological awareness his mastery of ancient theological and philosophical thinking and his enormous and enduring influence on both Catholic and Protestant theology make him an ideal subject for such research This incisive book argues that Augustine's doctrine of the captive will offers a theological parallel of each of these contemporary models of addiction Tackling Mental Illness Together Alan

Hanson,1995-02-28 The prevailing neo prohibitionist approach to reducing alcohol problems is generally ineffective often counter productive and is doomed to failure This work is to promote an effective alternative strategy to reducing the incidence of alcohol problems The thesis is that a socio cultural approach would be effective and therefore that public policy should promote this approach This work is expected to be controversial and is hoped to form a pattern for reorientation of the current approach to alcohol abuse Professionals in drug abuse education and treatment along with public policy makers and students in appropriate courses should be interested in the work T&T Clark Handbook of Food in the Hebrew Bible and Ancient Israel Janling Fu,Cynthia

Shafer-Elliott, Carol Meyers, 2021-11-04 Food and feasting are key themes in the Hebrew Bible and the culture it represents. The contributors to this handbook draw on a multitude of disciplines to offer an overview of food in the Hebrew Bible and ancient Israel. Archaeological materials from biblical lands along with the recent interest in ethnographic data, a new focus in anthropology and emerging technologies provide valuable information about ancient foodways. The contributors examine not only the textual materials of the Hebrew Bible and related epigraphic works but also engage in a wider archaeological, environmental, and historical understanding of ancient Israel as it pertains to food. Divided into five parts, this handbook examines and considers environmental and socio-economic issues such as climate and trade, the production of raw materials, and the technology of harvesting and food processing. The cultural role of food and meals in festivals, holidays, and biblical regulations is also discussed, as is the way food and drink are treated in biblical texts, in related epigraphic materials, and in iconography.

Alcohol Peter Boyle, Paolo Boffetta, Albert B. Lowenfels, Harry Burns, Otis Brawley, Witold Zatonski, Jürgen Rehm, 2013-03-07 Alcohol has always been an issue in public health but it is currently assuming increasing importance as a cause of disease and premature death worldwide. Alcohol Science Policy and Public Health provides an interdisciplinary source of information that links together the usually separate fields of science policy and public health. This comprehensive volume highlights the importance of bringing scientific knowledge to bear in order to strengthen and develop alcohol public policy. The book looks at the historical evolution of alcohol consumption in society, key early studies of alcohol and disease, and the cultural and social aspects of alcohol consumption. It then goes on to cover the chemistry and biology of alcohol, patterns of consumption, gender and age-related issues, alcohol and injury, alcohol and cancer, and non-malignant disease and various current therapeutic aspects. The book concludes with a section on alcohol policy looking at issues of poverty, the availability of alcohol, and alcohol control measures.
