

1

According to Tom Tarrants, God's purpose in our life has two major aspects: His purpose in the world to come, and His purpose in the present world. Why is it important to approach our need for guidance in the affairs of daily life in the context of God's larger purposes?

2

Are you confident that you know and are fulfilling God's purpose for your life? After reading this article, are there steps you would like to take that would help you in this area? What are they, and when do you plan to do them?
