Prosecuting Slobodan Milošević Nevenka Tromp, 2016-04-14 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the trial of former Serbian leader Slobodan Milošević at the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ICTY With the premature death of Milošević in March 2006 his trial was left unfinished Although the traditional objectives of criminal law such as retribution justice for victims and deterrence were not achieved the Milošević trial archive is a significant historical resource for researchers from various fields This book extracts details from the collection of documentary and transcript evidence that makes up the trial record sources which would be almost impossible to extricate without an insider's guiding hand to allow readers to trace the threads of several historical narratives The value of this methodology is particularly evident in the Milošević case as acting as his own defence counsel he responded to and interacted with almost all witnesses and evidence presented against him By providing snapshots of the behaviour displayed by Milošević in court while conducting his defence in combination with passages of carefully selected evidence from an immense archive familiar to few scholars this volume reveals how these trial records and trial records in general are a truly invaluable historical source The book underlines the premise that any record of a mass atrocities trial whether finished or unfinished establishes a record of past events contributes to interpretations of a historical period and influences the shaping of collective memory This book will be of much interest to students of the Former Yugoslavia war crimes international law human rights international relations and European politics Religion in the Post-Yugoslav Context Branislav Radeljic, Martina Topic, 2015-07-01 Religion in the Post Yugoslav Context brings together a diverse group of scholars each of them specializing in the role of religion in one of the Yugoslav successor states In addition to providing the readership with the understanding of both the general context religion during the disintegration of the Yugoslav state as well as more specific aspects individual post Yugoslav states this rich collection complements the existing research in the fields of religious studies and political science It represents an important source for scholars and students interested in the post Yugoslav dynamic Moreover this kind of analysis is of major relevance for state and non state actors involved in promotion of religious tolerance Prosecuting Heads of State Ellen L. Lutz, Caitlin Reiger, 2009-03-16 The meteoric rise in criminal prosecutions of former heads of state is examined for the first time in this probing and engaging narrative The Oxford Handbook on the United Nations Thomas George Weiss, Sam Daws, 2008-11-13 This major new handbook provides the definitive and comprehensive analysis of the UN and will be an essential point of reference for all those working on or in the organization Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2010 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Civilian Protection in Armed Conflicts Robert Schütte, 2014-10-29 The study analyzes three themes first the evolution of the concept of civilians in the course of human history and secondly the situation and victimization of civilians in armed conflict since 1990 and third how the international community since the end of the Cold War to protect civilians has monitored by the mandating robust UN peacekeeping missions The United Nations Mission in the Congo functions as a case study Perilous Medicine Leonard Rubenstein, 2021-09-21 Pervasive violence against hospitals patients doctors and other health workers has become a horrifically common feature of modern war These relentless attacks destroy lives and the capacity of health systems to tend to those in need Inaction to stop this violence undermines long standing values and laws designed to ensure that sick and wounded people receive care Leonard Rubenstein a human rights lawyer who has investigated atrocities against health workers around the world offers a gripping and powerful account of the dangers health workers face during conflict and the legal political and moral struggle to protect them In a dozen case studies he shares the stories of people who have been attacked while seeking to serve patients under dire circumstances including health workers hiding from soldiers in the forests of eastern Myanmar as they seek to serve oppressed ethnic communities surgeons in Syria operating as their hospitals are bombed and Afghan hospital staff attacked by the Taliban as well as government and foreign forces Rubenstein reveals how political and military leaders evade their legal obligations to protect health care in war punish doctors and nurses for adhering to their responsibilities to provide care to all in need and fail to hold perpetrators to account Bringing together extensive research firsthand experience and compelling personal stories Perilous Medicine also offers a path forward detailing the lessons the international community needs to learn to protect people already suffering in war and those on the front lines of health care in conflict ridden places around the world The Alternatives to War James Pattison, 2018-06-04 If states are not to go to war what should they do instead In The Alternatives to War James Pattison considers the case for the alternatives to military action to address mass atrocities and aggression The volume examines the normative issues raised by measures ranging from comprehensive economic sanctions diplomacy and positive incentives to criminal prosecutions nonviolent resistance accepting refugees and arming rebels For instance given the indiscriminateness of many sanctions regimes are sanctions any better than war Should states avoid megaphone diplomacy and adopt more subtle measures What if anything can nonviolent methods such as civilian defence and civilian peacekeeping do in the face of a ruthless opponent Is it a serious concern that positive incentives can appear to reward aggressors Overall Pattison provides a comprehensive account of the ethics of the alternatives to war In doing so he argues that the case for war is weaker and the case for many of the alternatives is stronger than commonly thought The upshot is that when reacting to mass atrocities and aggression states are generally required to pursue the alternatives to war rather than military action The volume concludes that this has significant implications for pacifism just war theory and the responsibility to protect doctrine Last Lectures on the Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel

Totten, 2017-09-29 Last Lectures on the Prevention and Intervention of Genocide is a collection of hypothetical last lectures by some of the top scholars and practitioners across the globe in the fields of human rights and genocide studies Each lecture purportedly constitutes the last thing the author will ever say about the prevention and intervention of genocide The contributions to this volume are thought provoking engaging and at times controversial reflecting the scholars most advanced thinking about issues of human rights and genocide This book will be of great interest to professors researchers and students of political science international relations psychology sociology history human rights and genocide studies

Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century Amy E. Randall, 2015-10-29 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2016 Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century brings together a collection of some of the finest Genocide Studies scholars in North America and Europe to examine gendered discourses practices and experiences of ethnic cleansing and genocide in the 20th century It includes essays focusing on the genocide in Rwanda the Armenian genocide in the Ottoman Empire the Holocaust and ethnic cleansing and genocide in the former Yugoslavia The book looks at how historically and culturally specific ideas about reproduction biology and ethnic national racial and religious identity contributed to the possibility for and the unfolding of genocidal sexual violence including mass rape The book also considers how these ideas in conjunction with discourses of femininity and masculinity and understandings of female and male identities contributed to perpetrators tools and strategies for ethnic cleansing and genocide as well as victims experiences of these processes This is an ideal text for any student looking to further understand the crucial topic of gender in genocide studies

Security, Strategy and Military Change in the 21st Century Jo Inge Bekkevold, Ian Bowers, Michael Raska, 2015-05-22 This edited volume explores and analyses strategic thinking military reform and adaptation in an era of Asian growth European austerity and US rebalancing A significant shift in policy strategy and military affairs is underway in both Asia and Europe with the former gaining increasing prominence in the domain of global security At the same time the world's powers are now faced with an array of diverse challenges The resurgence of great power politics in both Europe and Asia along with the long term threats of terrorism piracy and sustained geopolitical instability has placed great strain on militaries and security institutions operating with constrained budgets and wary public support The volume covers a wide range of case studies including the transformation of China's military in the 21st century the internal and external challenges facing India Russia's military modernization program and the USA's reassessment of its strategic interests In doing so the book provides the reader with the opportunity to conceptualize how strategic thinking military reform operational adaptation and technological integration have interacted with the challenges outlined above With contributions by leading scholars and practitioners from Europe and Asia this book provides a valuable contribution to the understanding of strategic and operational thinking and adjustment across the world This book will be of much interest to students of military and strategic studies security studies defence studies Asian politics Russian politics US foreign policy and IR in general

Examining Crime and Justice around the World Janet P. Stamatel, 2020-11-04 A thorough and timely investigation of both well established and emerging crime and punishment issues this book provides readers with compelling examples of how different countries around the world confront these problems This book offers a detailed look at 10 hot topics in crime and punishment that are shared by many countries Some of these topics are well established within the field of criminology such as patterns of criminal behavior juvenile delinquency drug trafficking policing and punishment others are emerging topics that have not been well studied across a variety of countries such as violence against women hate crimes and gun control Within each topic the book explores how eight countries experience the issue highlighting similarities across different places as well as unique treatments of the problem The chapter on punishment addresses the widespread use of incarceration as criminal punishment but also considers different philosophies with respect to the purpose of incarceration and whether or not this strategy is effective in the face of large scale criminal events such as mass atrocities The country narratives provide historical context for understanding the particular crime or punishment issue current trends and relevant statistical data for describing the extent of the issue and changes over time in addition to contemporary examples of the issue

The State and Cosmopolitan Responsibilities Richard Beardsworth, Garrett Wallace Brown, Richard Shapcott, 2019-06-06 This book explores the role that states might play in promoting a cosmopolitan condition as an agent of cosmopolitanism rather than an obstacle to it In doing so the book seeks to develop recent arguments in favour of locating cosmopolitan moral and political responsibility at the state level as either an alternative to or a corollary of cosmopolitanism as it is more commonly understood qua requiring transnational or global bearers of responsibility As a result the contributions in this volume see an on going role for the state but also its transformation perhaps only partially into a more cosmopolitan minded institution instead of a purely national or particularistic one It therefore makes the case that the state as a form of political community can be reconciled with various form of cosmopolitan responsibility In this way the book will address the question of how states in the present and in the future can be better bearers of cosmopolitan responsibilities Not on Our Watch Don Cheadle, John

Prendergast, 2007-05-01 An Academy Award nominated actor and a renowned human rights activist team up to change the tragic course of history in the Sudan with readers help While Don Cheadle was filming Hotel Rwanda a new crisis had already erupted in Darfur in nearby Sudan In September 2004 then Secretary of State Colin Powell termed the atrocities being committed there genocide and yet two years later things have only gotten worse 3 5 million Sudanese are going hungry 2 5 million have been displaced by violence and 400 000 have died in Darfur to date Both shocked and energized by this ongoing tragedy Cheadle teamed up with leading activist John Prendergast to focus the world s attention Not on Our Watch their empowering book offers six strategies readers themselves can implement Raise Awareness Raise Funds Write a Letter Call for Divestment Start an Organization and Lobby the Government Each of these small actions can make a huge difference in the fate of a nation and a people not only in Darfur but in other crisis zones such as Somalia Congo and northern Uganda
