Fossil Capital Andreas Malm,2016-01-12 The more we know about the catastrophic implications of climate change the more fossil fuels we burn How did we end up in this mess In this masterful new history Andreas Malm claims it all began in Britain with the rise of steam power But why did manufacturers turn from traditional sources of power notably water mills to an engine fired by coal Contrary to established views steam offered neither cheaper nor more abundant energy but rather superior control of subordinate labour Animated by fossil fuels capital could concentrate production at the most profitable sites and during the most convenient hours as it continues to do today Sweeping from nineteenth century Manchester to the emissions explosion in China from the original triumph of coal to the stalled shift to renewables this study hones in on the burning heart of capital and demonstrates in unprecedented depth that turning down the heat will mean a radical overthrow of the current economic order

Borderlands of Theological Education Joshua B. Davis,Deirdre Good,2022-10-03 Traditional patterns of educating and training clergy face not only crises of increasing cost and declining enrollment but also a crisis of identity since at present it is the academy not the church that shapes formation for ministry This collection of essays outlines a history and a new vision of the church as the primary location of ministerial formation for the future of theological education

Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism Stefan Herbrechter,Ivan Callus,Manuela Rossini,Marija Grech,Megen de Bruin-Molé,Christopher John Müller,2022-11-28 Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism is a major reference work on the paradigm emerging from the challenges to humanism humanity and the human posed by the erosion of the traditional demarcations between the human and nonhuman This handbook surveys and speculates on the ways in which the posthumanist paradigm emerged transformed and might further develop across the humanities With its focus on the posthuman as a figure on posthumanism as a social discourse and on posthumanisation as an on going historical and ontological process the volume highlights the relationship between the humanities and sciences The essays engage with posthumanism in connection with subfields like the environmental humanities health humanities animal studies and disability studies The book also traces the historical representations and understanding of posthumanism across time Additionally the contributions address genre and forms such as autobiography games art film museums and topics such as climate change speciesism anthropocentrism and biopolitics to name a few This handbook considers posthumanism s impact across disciplines and areas of study

Accumulating Capital Today Marlène Benquet,Théo Bourgeron,2021-01-30 This book explores the renewal of forms of capital accumulation and the institutions that shape it It focuses on three main sources of accumulation the extraction of profit through labor and the commodification of nature financial speculation and the ways in which profit is converted into wealth It thus offers a new understanding of the economic and political logics of capital accumulation within capitalism in the 21st century It shows the recomposition of the sources of profit from the traditional mechanisms of labor exploitation to the contemporary logics of speculation and dispossession

Bringing together the work of scholars who study the social fabric of capitalist accumulation Accumulating Capital Today goes beyond disciplinary frontiers to describe how capital is accumulating in a world threatened by social and environmental collapse This book heralds the emergence of accumulation studies and will be of interest to researchers in sociology anthropology politics political economy geography and economics Climate Change and Journalism Henrik Bødker, Hanna E. Morris, 2021-07-29 This edited collection addresses climate change journalism from the perspective of temporality showcasing how various time scales from geology meteorology politics journalism and lived cultures interact with journalism around the world Analyzing the meetings of and schisms between various temporalities as they emerge from reporting on climate change globally Climate Change and Journalism Negotiating Rifts of Time asks how climate change as a temporal process gets inscribed within the temporalities of journalism The overarching question of climate change journalism and its relationship to temporality is considered through the themes of environmental justice and slow violence editorial interventions ecological loss and political and religious contexts which are in turn explored through a selection of case studies from the US France Thailand Brazil Australia Spain Mexico Canada and the UK This is an insightful resource for students and scholars in the fields of journalism media studies environmental communication and communications generally

A Social Ecology of Capital Éric Pineault, 2023-02-20 An original theory of contemporary capitalist growth and its socio-ecological contradictions A timely and urgent analysis which seeks to comprehend our ecological plight through an elucidation of monopoly capital Gareth Dale Reader in Political Economy Brunel University Capital is pushing into motion ever larger global material flows In doing so it has come to depend on massive expenditures of energy putting to work fossil fuels and the machines they animate to transform the world accumulate power and grow the economy The ecological relations and crises of today's societies are driven by the processes of extraction of the elements that come together as a throughput of material and energy flows controlled by capital and shaped by its imperative of valorization In A Social Ecology of Capital ric Pineault proposes an original model of the fossil social metabolism that has sustained the growth of advanced capitalism in the last century Drawing on ecological economics and critical political economy the book analyses how the social structures of accumulation production consumption and waste determine and regulate the material flow and the accumulation of material artifacts Showing how social relations shape the ecology of capital the book highlights the contradictions humanity now faces Bitter Harvest Lisi Krall, 2022-08-01 Humans are in danger of crossing a divide where their foothold on an earth once abundant in self-willed otherness is slipping away This is apparent with the sixth mass extinction climate change and the many breaches of planetary boundaries Bitter Harvest brings clarity to this moment in history through a focus on economic order how it comes to be what it is and the way it structures the relationship between humans and Earth An unusual synergy of disciplines evolutionary biology history economic systems analysis anthropology and deep ecology are tapped to fully explore the emergence of an economic system that contextualized a duality between humans and Earth Conversations that focus on capitalism and the industrial revolution are subsumed under the longer arc of history and the system change that began with the cultivation of annual grains Bitter Harvest engenders a more critical conversation about the complexity of the human relationship to Earth and the challenge of altering the economic trajectory that began with agriculture and has now reached its apogee in global capitalism
