Abdou,Theodore Zervas,2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from various contexts across the Americas including Canada the various member nations of the Caribbean Community CARICOM Puerto Rico and the United States The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward toward more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy

Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1999     Religious Education and the Anglo-World Stephen Jackson,2020-03-31 Focusing on Australia Canada and New Zealand Religious Education and the Anglo World historiographically examines the relationship between empire and religious education The analysis centres on three formative eras in the development of religious education in each case firstly the foundational moments of publicly funded education in the mid to late nineteenth centuries when policy makers created largely Protestant systems of religious education and frequently denied Roman Catholics funding for private education Secondly the period from 1880 1960 during which campaigns to strengthen religious education emerged in each context Finally the era of decolonisation from the 1960s through the 1980s when publicly funded religious education was challenged by the loss of Britishness as a central ideal and Roman Catholics found unprecedented success in achieving state aid in many cases By bringing these disparate national literatures into conversation with one another Stephen Jackson calls for a greater transnational approach to the study of religious education in the Anglo World     Faith & Philosophy of Sikhism Sardar Harjeet Singh,2009     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993     Resources in Education ,1998     Quantifying the Moral Dimension. New steps in the implementation of Kohlberg's method and theory Fedor Kozyrev,2020-09-02 The book presents the results of an educational survey and a new instrument for diagnostics of moral judgment capacities based on the dilemma method This instrument is proposed for the quantitative assessment of aspects of the personal moral development and in particular to detect morally gifted children Reflections on the results include a revision of Kohlberg s 6 stage model of moral development and wider considerations regarding constructivist approaches to moral and religious psychology      Children's Books in Print, 2007
