The Reformed Apprentice Volume 2: A Workbook on the Doctrine of Scripture and Biblical Interpretation C. Matthew McMahon, 2013-11-18 This is the second volume in the Reformed Apprentice workbook series teaching Reformed Theology in a simple but interactive manner This workbook covers the Doctrine of Scripture and the science of hermeneutics the art of biblical interpretation The main purpose of the workbook is to come into a deeper knowledge and relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ as he has revealed himself to the church in his Word and by his Spirit through the centuries in Reformed Theology The workbook extensively quotes the early church fathers the Reformers the Puritans and Reformed theologians from various ages in order to aid the Reformed Apprentice in understanding how the Bible is God's Word and how to interpret it both exegetically and practically There is nothing like this series of interactive workbooks anywhere in the Reformed community They are unique workbooks designed to bring Reformed Theology to students of the bible in its various facets In old England an apprentice is a novice who engaged in a covenant with a tradesman to learn a particular trade A workbook of this kind was created to engage the student of Scripture to be apprenticed under the teachers of Reformed Theology thus a Reformed Apprentice This workbook does not need to be completed in a short timeframe nor is it governed by a specific amount of time The Reformed Apprentice has as much time to complete each section at their own pace as they need in order to walk more closely with Jesus Christ and understand the importance of the doctrine of Scripture Ioel's Use of Scripture And the Scripture's Use of Joel John Strazicich, 2007 This work focuses on the appropriation and resignification of scripture in Joel and its NT Nachleben where Israel s literature functions as an authoritative medium of refraction The purpose is to recover the canon's unrecorded hermeneutics at the intersection of both diachronic and synchronic textual surfaces A Definition and Critique of Postmodernism Bruce Proctor, 2012 Bruce A Proctor is a native of Dallas Texas but spent most of his youth growing up in Los Angeles California He graduated from Oklahoma Christian College B A in 1973 from Dallas Theological Seminary Th M in 1981 and Louisiana Baptist University Ph D in 2011 Bruce has held various ministerial positions including pastor youth counselor and pastor prison ministry leader and college professor Bruce has taught Bible Exposition Theology Old and New Testament history and Church History at various Christian schools Southern Bible Institute D Edwin Johnson Bible Institute both in Dallas TX True Vine Baptist Bible Institute in Spencer OK and at the Ministry Training Institute an extension of Oklahoma Baptist University in Shawnee OK Bruce and his wife Patricia reside in San Antonio Texas They have eight adult children Postmodernism is difficult to define because it rejects absolute meaning However I found it worth trying to define it by looking at other authors attempts to define it It was easier for me to describe than define it Much discussion is also given to the definition of the emergent church movement including its fundamental tenets and marks along with signs of drifting toward it Next the idea of postmodernism is weaved into the description of condemned mankind according to Romans 1 18 32 The description given is clearly relevant to the postmodern mindset as men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness verse 18 In my conclusion I discuss the power of truth and the loss of truth due primarily to a loss of focus However in the Person of Jesus Christ Truth arose from the dead and marches on victoriously despite the postmodern spirits of delusions Pursuit of Perfection Seth M. Simisi, 2016-11-01 Pursuit of Perfection explores the significance of the perfection motif in the Epistle to the Hebrews It addresses the controversial interpretation of teleios perfection in Hebrews where this notion is so central to the argument of the book The investigation examines the meaning of perfection in an attempt to discover its significance on Hebrews theology The need for the study is the lack of adequate treatment of the subject in the last three decades The discussion focuses on the precise meaning to be attached to the notion of perfection and its significance for Hebrews interpretation Through an exploration of major interpretative approaches to the notion of perfection and its usages in classical world Second Temple Judaism and New Testament literature especially Hebrews The author argues that the notion of perfection has an eschatological significance and is linked to better provisions of the new covenant which quarantee believers salvation and eternal inheritance The author sums up his argument that the call to pursue the goal of perfection is a call for commitment to the gospel message as Christians of all ages follow the example of the Christ the one who endured suffering of the cross and its despised shame in order to bring many followers to their future eternal glory Off the Beaten Path LIT Verlag, 2021-01-10 In this book the academic colleagues of Prof Dr Gie Vleugels who turned 65 in 2021 celebrate his life by contributing chapters in his honor Several chapters are innovative in nature including Clemens Wassermann's comparative analysis of 1 John and the Fourth Gospel which utilizes insights from Semitic syntax and shows how spoken Semitic dialects help us to unearth new perspectives on the relationship between John's Gospel and 1 John The chapter on the Didache by Martin Webber makes innovative use of Social Identity Complexity Theory Other contributions come from the fields of New Testament Old Testament Historical Theology and Systematic Theology Prof Dr Dr Jacobus Kok is Professor and Department Chair of New Testament Studies and Co Director of RCEC at the Evangelische Theologische Faculteit Leuven in Belgium as well as Professor Extraordinarius and NRF B3 rated scholar in the Department of New Testament and Related Literature Faculty of Theology and Religion University of Pretoria in South Africa Prof Dr Martin Webber Professor of New Testament Studies Dr Jeremy Otten Senior Researcher and Lecturer in New Testament Studies and Greek and Dr Mark Paridaens Lecturer in Greek are also appointed at Evangelische Theologische Faculteit Leuven in Belgium Abiding Mission Dick Brogden, 2016-07-06 Abiding Mission presents the discipline of abiding as the first priority of the Christian and the base methodology of mission Based on an exegesis of John 15 Abiding Mission illustrates the definition of abiding by examining the abiding mission lives of seven key pioneers in mission to Muslims in North Africa including Daniel Comboni Catholic Samuel Zwemer Presbyterian Oswald Chambers YMCA Pentecostal League Lillian Trasher Assemblies of God Lilias Trotter Algerian Missions Band Douglas Thornton Anglican CMS and Temple Gairdner Anglican CMS The work continues by looking at the operationalization of abiding as developed from interviews from current missionaries to Muslims in North Africa

Knight, 2003 Exploring the Letters of John & Jude George R. Knight, 2009 The letters of John and Jude are a wake up call False teachers had infiltrated the church and introduced secular reasoning in place of apostolic teachings John and Jude wrote to their congregations not only to warn the faithful against the impostors but to emphasize true spirituality in the face of error and apostasy Its no surprise then that these four letters are of the utmost relevance to Christians today Johns first and second letters deal with issues central to a genuine Christian faith and life while the third provides a snapshot of the dynamics of at least one congregation in the A D 90s Jude confronts many of the same issues in his letter including the immorality that results from a denial of Christ This user friendly devotional commentary divides the entire text of these four letters into bite sized passages using a new translation by the author Each passage is followed by the exegetical meaning as well as the practical application for the lives of twenty first century believers Small study groups and individuals alike will benefit from this format and better understand Gods timely and very personal message Beatitudes of Christ Richard W. Yarbrough, 2009-01-01 Mark Yarbrough Seely, assesses the question of whether traditional preformed material contributes to the message and understanding of Paul's first letter to Timothy The issue is addressed in three sections Part one evaluates previous works interacting with traditional material in the New Testament Through a critique of historically proposed criteria Yarbrough identifies eight criteria as the primary tools by which to discern units of preformed material In the second part of the book Yarbrough evaluates nineteen passages in 1 Timothy according to the criteria previously determined From this base he embraces twelve of the nineteen passages as preformed material These passages are subsequently examined in depth according to the author's distinct methodology Part three demonstrates four functions of the preformed traditions in 1 Timothy Firstly that they may be seen as strengthening the literary cohesion of the letter Secondly that the traditional units afford the author rhetorical leverage which may be best identified as the provision of authority the establishment of an instant rapport with the primary audience and the assistance conferred in addressing this implied audience Thirdly they present theological directives that confront the character and belief of the false teachers Finally Yarbrough asserts that the preformed traditions exist as a combatant against counter mission doctrine In conclusion this study displays that the traditional material which may be discerned within the letter contributes significantly to the overall message and understanding of 1 Timothy
