The Public Mind and the Politics of Postmillennial U.S.-American Writing Jolene Mathieson, Marius Henderson, Julia Lange, 2022-08-22 In the last twenty years how has U S American writing and the reading public responded to the complexity of an American culture resolutely situated in a larger highly politicized globalized world undergoing radical change The 20th century modes of realism and postmodernism have been succeeded by writerly practices that are that are invested in the idea of embodied authenticity and that are relatable to neorealism whether it be via outright affirmation or critical experimentation and appropriation The individual case studies mark the ways in which postmillennial U S American writing is marked by an ongoing awareness toward complexity and the entanglement of writers and the reading public with pressing political concerns and at times oppressive social and economic discursive and structural formations These contributions further attest to how narrative and structural complexity grammatical and lexical sophistication and social nuance endure as the main literary modes of confronting 21st century political life This volume is thus of interest for both the study of U S American political culture and U S American literature

Silence and its Derivatives Mahshid Mayar, Marion Schulte, 2022-09-03 This edited book examines silence and silencing in and out of discourse as viewed through a variety of contexts such as historical archives day to day conversations modern poetry creative writing clubs and visual novels among others The contributions engage with the historical shifts in how silence and silencing have been viewed conceptualized and recorded throughout the course of the twentieth and twenty first centuries then present a series of case studies from disciplines including linguistics history literature and culture and geographical settings ranging from Argentina to the Philippines Nigeria Ireland Morocco Japan South Africa and Vietnam Through these examples the authors underline the thematic and methodological contact zones between different fields and traditions providing a stimulating and truly interdisciplinary volume that will be of interest to scholars across the humanities
