History and Memories of the Domestic Violence Movement Gill Hague, 2021-05-26 In this captivating book activist and scholar Gill Hague recounts the inspiring story of the violence against women movement in the UK and beyond from 1960s onwards examining the transformatory politics behind this movement through an important historical and international lens

Marriage, Sexuality, and Gender Robin West, 2015-12-03 Marriage Sexuality and Gender examines contemporary debates about the meaning and value of marriage The book analyzes arguments for traditional marriage including those of neonaturalists utilitarians and communitarians or virtue theorists The volume also considers a range of feminist welfarist and liberationist arguments for ending the institution altogether It evaluates two major reform movements one focused on expanding marriage to include same sex couples and the other focused on the use of law to render marriage more internally just The book concludes with a plea to activists to redirect marriage equality movements toward the creation of an entirely secular civil union law that would respect a broader range of private life long commitments including but not limited to same and opposite sex couples without threatening the role of religious marriage in the lives of those who embrace it and without penalizing nonparticipants Cosmopolitan

Sexualities Ken Plummer, 2016-09-26 How are we to live with the wide varieties of sexuality and gender found across the rapidly changing global order Whilst some countries have legislated in favour of same sex marriage and the United Nations makes declarations about gender and sexual equality many countries across the world employ punitive responses to such differences In this compelling and original study Ken Plummer argues the need for a practical utopian project of hope that he calls cosmopolitan sexualities He asks how can we connect our differences with collective values our uniqueness with multiple group belonging our sexual and gendered individualities with a broader common humanity Showing how a foundation for this new ethics politics and imagination are evolving across the world he discusses the many possible pitfalls being encountered He highlights the complexity of sexual and gender cultures the ubiquity of human conflict the difficulties of dialogue and the problems with finding any common ground for our humanity Cosmopolitan Sexualities takes a bold critical humanist view and argues the need for positive norms to guide us into the future Highlighting the vulnerability of the human being Plummer goes in search of historically grounded and potentially global human values like empathy and sympathy care and kindness dignity and rights human flourishing and social justice These harbour visions of what is acceptable and unacceptable in the sexual and intimate life Clearly written the book speaks to important issues of our time and will interest all those who are struggling to finding ways to live together well in spite of our different genders and sexualities Domestic Violence in Hollywood Film Diane L. Shoos, 2017-12-19 This is the first book to critically examine

Hollywood films that focus on male partner violence against women These films include Gaslight Sleeping with the Enemy What's Love Got to Do with It Dolores Claiborne Enough and Safe Haven Shaped by the contexts of postfeminism domestic abuse post awareness and familiar genre conventions these films engage in ideological gaslighting that reaffirms our preconceived ideas about men as abusers women as victims and the racial and class politics of domestic violence While the films purport to condemn abuse and empower abused women this study proposes that they tacitly reinforce the very attitudes that we believe we no longer tolerate Shoos argues that films like these limit not only popular understanding but also social and institutional interventions

Violence in Everyday Life Aliraza Javaid, 2020-07-23 Violence in Everyday Life explores how identity markers such as gender and sexuality intersect with violence synthesizing the themes of gender sexuality and violence to offering a crucial and coherent framework for understanding the interrelationship between these concepts Aliraza Javaid explores how violence is experienced at a local regional and global level and considers the ways in which hegemonic masculinities are reproduced through violence Attention is given to the particular ways in which these constructions of masculinity are reflected in areas such as homophobic violence transphobic violence and violence against intimate partners Drawing on new empirical data and his own personal experiences of violence as well as identifying new areas for further research Javaid's work represents a unique study of the interconnectedness of violence gender and sexuality and of how violence is fuelled by society's attitudes towards masculinity

Domestic Abuse in the Novels of African American Women Heather Duerre Humann, 2014-06-04 The literary tradition begun by Zora Neale Hurston in the 1930s has since flourished and taken new directions with a diverse body of fiction by more contemporary African American women writers This book examines the treatment of domestic violence in Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God Gayl Jones's Corregidora Gloria Naylor's The Women of Brewster Place and Linden Hills Alice Walker's The Color Purple Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye and Love Terry McMillan's Mama and A Day Late and a Dollar Short and Octavia Butler's Seed to Harvest These novels have given voice to oppressed and abused women The aims of this work are threefold to examine how female African American novelists portray domestic abuse to outline how literary depictions of domestic violence are responsive to cultural and historical forces and to explore the literary tradition of novels that deal with domestic abuse within the African American community
