Motion Picture Biographies John Cones,2015-04-01 Hollywood movies are famous for promoting negative stereotypes of all kinds especially against minorities women Southerners and Christians To what extent are biographical films selected for production according to certain biases conscious or unconscious among the Hollywood elite An expert on the U S film industry gives readers brief synopses of Hollywood biopics produced and or released from 1912 through 1994 This survey provides the basis for discussion and analysis Tracking these one sided depictions over a longer period of time the patterns of bias and the source of the problem become more clear The problem appears to be that most of the people who have green light authority in the U S film industry for either the production and or distribution of a motion picture share a common ethnic religious cultural background Thus the stories of their own cohort and those of all other ethnic religious and or cultural groups whose members seldom achieve positions of power in Hollywood are being filtered through the cultural sensibilities of a single group John Cones suggests that the solution could lie in increasing diversity at the highest levels in the U S film industry

Congress and the controversial last stand at the Alamo that mythologized him beyond recognition In this beautifully written narrative Crockett emerges as never before a rugged individual a true American original and an enduring symbol of the Western frontier A great myth busting story that presents Davy Crockett as a man of genius and folly which has the unlikely effect of making him all the more heroic Martin Dugard author of The Last Voyage of Columbus and Into Africa The Epic Adventures of Stanley and Livingstone As spellbinding and dramatic as any novel and as compelling as any reportage Peter Hoffer Distinguished Research Professor of History The University of Georgia
