New Beginnings The Skirball Museum Collections And Inaugural Exhibition:

New Beginnings Skirball Museum, 1996 The museum preserves more than 25 000 objects that reveal much about daily life beliefs customs worship human yearnings and artistic achievement from biblical to contemporary times They reflect Jewish life in virtually every corner of the globe as well as the museum's commitment to exploring American Jewish life in the context of American society as a whole Homes of the Past Jeffrey Shandler, 2024-06-04 Homes of the Past tells the powerful story of how immigrant Jewish scholars in 1940s New York sought to build a museum to commemorate their lost worlds and people Among the Jews who arrived in the United States in the early 1940s were a small number of Polish scholars who had devoted their professional lives to the study of Europe's Yiddish speaking Jews at the YIVO Institute for Jewish Research Faced with the devastating knowledge that returning to their former homes and resuming their scholarly work there was no longer viable they sought to address their profound sense of loss by continuing their work under radically different circumstances to document the European Jewish lives places and ways of living that were being destroyed In pursuing this daunting agenda they made a remarkable decision they would create a museum to memorialize East European Jewry and educate American Jews about this legacy YIVO scholars determinedly pursued this undertaking for several years publicizing the initiative and collecting materials to exhibit However the Museum of the Homes of the Past was abandoned shortly after the war ended With insight and clarity Jeffrey Shandler draws upon the surviving archival sources to tell the story of the purpose development and ultimate fate of the Museum of the Homes of the Past Homes of the Past explores this largely unknown episode of modern Jewish history and museum history and demonstrates that the project even though it was never realized marked a critical inflection point in the dynamic interrelations between Jews in America and Eastern Europe

Mendelssohn to Mendelsohn Cyril Reade, 2007 This book takes a fresh look at the history of the Jews in Berlin using significant examples of the rich visual legacy of the period It begins by examining the visual environment of the Enlightenment philosopher Moses Mendelssohn 1729-86 and his community whose lives were regulated by feudal conditions in the waning days of a mercantilist regime It also looks at the Moorish Revival synagogue on the Oranienburgerstrasse inaugurated in 1866 that reflects the status and the evolving sense of identity of the sponsoring community at that moment in the nineteenth century pursuit of emancipation and the incremental attainment of civil rights The book ends with the Weimar Republic where the inventive modernist architect Erich Mendelsohn contributed to the vital building program of the Neue Sachlichkeit The visual studies approach adopted here foregrounds the articulation of the dominant culture s visual language by a dynamic minority expressing its place within the process of German nation building
