to the study of The Gospel of St John Jesus James D. G. Dunn, Doris Donnelly, 2001-06-07 In June 2000 five internationally renowned biblical scholars and one equally well known systematic theologian traveled to Israel with 60 non academic pilgrims to share their insights on the Jesus of history and the meaning of the historical Jesus for Christian faith The result is a book that provides a succinct summary of what is currently known about Jesus and his times his setting in Galilee his relationship to the Qumran community his sense of mission as an eschatological prophet and miracle worker and finally the mechanics of how the memories of Jesus's words and deeds circulated among his followers and were passed on in oral performance to be enshrined eventually in the written Synoptic tradition The book concludes with reflections by Elizabeth Johnson on the relevance of such scholarship for contemporary Christian faith Rather than a challenge to faith she sees it as a gift

The Disciples according to Mark C. Clifton Black, 2012-12-13 Redaction criticism attempts to identify biblical authors theological interests by examining their adaptation of sources Focusing on representative studies of Jesus disciples in the Gospel of Mark this pioneering book by C Clifton Black has become the standard evaluation of that method's exegetical reliability Comprehensively reviewing recent scholarship Black identifies three distinctive types of redaction criticism in Markan interpretation He demonstrates that diverse redaction critical interpretations of the disciples in Mark have bolstered rather than controlled scholarly presuppositions to a degree that impugns the method's reliability for interpreting Mark The book concludes by assessing redaction criticism's usefulness and offering a more balanced approach to Mark's interpretation This second edition includes a substantial detailed afterword that revisits the book's primary issues converses with its critics and provides an update of Markan scholarship over the past twenty five years An Exegetical Bibliography of the New Testament: Matthew and Mark Günter Wagner, 1983 Library has v 1 3

Criteria for Authenticity in Historical-Jesus Research Stanley E. Porter, 2004-10-19 Historical Jesus research continues to captivate the interests of scholars and recently there has been renewed discussion of the criteria for authenticity The first half of this volume reviews the state of play in historical Jesus research and examines the criteria in particular One chapter is devoted to the so called Quests and a second critically charts the development of the criteria in the light of form criticism One of the conclusions of this part of the volume is that several criteria especially those based on linguistics need re evaluation The second half of the volume proposes three new criteria based upon use of the Greek language These criteria are Greek language and its context textual variance and discourse features The criteria are proposed as a way forward in historical Jesus research Jesus and Jewish Covenant Thinking Tom Holmén, 2021-11-22 This book offers the first large scale investigation into the attitude of the historical Jesus towards covenant belief the dominant theme of the Judaism of Jesus day The book intended as part one of a two volume investigation takes its point of departure in a simple question which nevertheless integrally reflects the covenant thinking of the time Was Jesus engaged in trying to find out how to remain faithful to the covenant Current scholarship underlines both the importance of the covenant belief for early Judaism and the need for considering Jesus as being within Judaism Studying how Jesus viewed the covenant leads right to the heart of the matter both illuminating his relation to Judaism and providing a significant still unexamined vantage point for his proclamation Hebrews 9-13, Volume 47B William L. Lane, 2017-10-10
